Return to play imminent, positive updates

As we go to print there is still much uncertainty related to the upcoming Round 10 of the 2021 VAFA Season.

The major focus will be on the 25km radius requirement, crowd numbers and advice related to density limits - specifically related to changerooms and social facilities. Rest assured, we are working closely with AFL Victoria in relation to these matters and will advise all clubs as soon as this information comes to hand.

The VAFA Board and Administration thank all clubs and umpires who completed the recent survey related to club, team, player, coach, umpire and volunteer availability across the upcoming competition bye (July 10) and thoughts on reducing the VAFA Finals Series to accommodate more H&A matches – as we explore all avenues available to maximise competition across all of our grades.

The VAFA Board will consider these results and we will advise of the outcome(s) shortly.

On a positive note, the VAFA would like to sincerely thank all of our clubs who made first round instalments of their affiliation fees due on April 30, a first in my time at the helm. We are reviewing the current May 31 and June 30 second and third instalment deadlines in line with the related COVID policy and will advise further.

This year the VAFA has teamed with My Sport Live (MSL) to offer livestreaming opportunities to all VAFA clubs. This new initiative, borne out of the desire to showcase our whole competition to a broader audience, has received fantastic feedback - the Emmaus St Leos Breast Cancer Awareness Match, Mzenod OC's Founders Day, Melbourne University Women's & Fitzroy-ACU's Pride Match and the upcoming Hawthorn AFC Wings Luncheon and match all examples of the VAFA's reach and support of men's divisional and women's football across our competition. Should your club wish to explore livestreaming upcoming games please contact Nick Armistead (Head of Media).

It is also with great pride that we advise that VAFA clubs raised more than $19,000 for Breast Cancer Network Australia through their fundraising efforts over PLAY4BCNA

Round on Mother's Day weekend. Clubs turned pink in an amazing show of support, with pink socks dominating social media along with match day luncheons, raffles, and donation tins. The final tally of $19,569 is the highest of all participating leagues and associations and blew away the VAFA's initial collective fundraising target of $10,000. Canterbury raised a competition high $5268, followed by Old Brighton ($2343), Hampton Rovers ($2228), Old Ivanhoe ($1942), Richmond Central ($1710) and Prahran Assumption ($1606). The VAFA congratulates and thanks all participating clubs and looks forward to building on the success of PLAY4BCNA Round into the future.

Please also note that due to the recent State Government Circuit Breaker lockdown, VAFA partners Thick & Thin and Tackle Your Feelings have postponed their Mental Health Breakfast which was due to take place on Wednesday June 16. The new date for this event has been set for Wednesday July 28 with more information to follow.

By way of an update, recent staffing changes sees Paul Wagland (Partnerships Manager) leave us to further his career in another line of work. We thank Paul for his drive, energy and focus in the sponsor and partnerships area of the business. Paul will leave us on Friday June 25, with a replacement currently being sought. We wish Paul all the very best with his future endeavours.

We have also recently added Susan Miller to the Administration Team as Administration Officer. Susan began on Tuesday June 15 and will focus on supporting Administration across the areas of General Administration, Finance and Events. Susan replaces Bec Carter who has returned to Canberra to pursue her state league cricket commitments. Bec will continue to be part of the Administration team working remotely on key projects on a casual basis.

See you at the Footy - hopefully

William Buck Premier Men's Mid-Season Review

St Kevin's OB (6-1)

Speaking to senior coach, Guy Martyn, on the Saturday Warm-Up ahead of SKOB's Round 6 game against Old Melburnians, he admitted that – despite sitting second on the ladder – SKOB were just 'going along'. Most notably, they had kicked just 309 points in their first five games and ranked eighth in that category. It was that match at EP, however, when SKOB stamped their authority on the competition with a commanding 74-point win over OM's, putting to bed their goal kicking woes with a season-high 19:12 (126) – their first score over 100. They went on to claim a R7 victory over St Bernard's but most importantly, after kicking a combined 40 goals and 69 behinds in their first five games, they found their range and slotted 32.20 in those two games. Defensively, they continue to dominate, ranking first with 54 points against with Will Coates, Sam Critchley, and Conor Ross patrolling the back 50. Josh Wallis and Tom Jok have been outstanding through the midfield, while Riley Bowman has starred as number one ruck in his first year at the club.

Old Xaverians (5-2)

With James Byrne (coach) and Marcus Stavrou (captain) taking the reins at the start of the season, Old Xaverians quickly established themselves as a serious finals threat yet again with three dominant wins. After defeating St Bernard's (32) and Old Scotch (94) in the opening two rounds, Xavs dismantled SKOB by 61 points in Round 3 – arguably the win of the season so far. Despite consecutive losses to Uni Blues and Caulfield in Rounds 4 and 5, Xavs hit back and now sit in second spot on the ladder. After kicking 10 goals in Round 1, Rohan Bewick leads a star-studded forward line of Xavier Richards, Julian Soccio, Grant Valles, Michael Batten and Ryan Schoenmakers (when required) that averages a competition-high 100ppg. Stavrou and Dan Robinson will be polling heavily through the midfield, while Jordan Kelly, Jack Noone, Jack Whitehead and Will Hams lead a defence that ranks second behind only SKOB.

University Blues (5-2)

The defending champs underwent significant change ahead of their 2021 campaign with Alex Fasolo, Jay Kennedy-Harris, Sam Grimley and Hugh Goddard replacing premiership players Luke Russell, Josh Green, Clayton Hinkley and Ross Young. More importantly, they appointed Jarrod Moore as senior coach to lead alongside captain and two-time Woodrow Medallist, Ayce Cordy. Sitting in third spot on the ladder, Blues have had their ups and down in the first seven rounds, with two incredible come-from-behind victories over Xavs (R4) and Collegians (R5) followed by a surprising 21-point loss to Scotch (R6). After kicking 5.18 (48) in that loss to Scotch, they hit back against Trinity and one would have to think, after two weeks of match cancellations, their experience would put them in the box seat to fire when football returns. Kieran Harper (16), Grimley (13) and Fasolo (11) all sit in the top 15 goal kickers, as does Dan Batarilo (12) who would arguably be leading their B&F alongside Cam O'Shea.

Old Brighton (5-2)

Coming off a Round 7 loss to Old Xavs, the Tonners slipped from second to fourth spot on the ladder but remain a game above those trying to force their way in. They've started the season in true Brighton fashion, with a hard-hitting and hard-running style of play led by Harry Hill, Nick Pavlou, and Tom Fisher. They defeated Uni Blues in Round 1 and only just fell to SKOB by three points in Round 2, before going on a four-game winning streak that included wins over Caulfield (52) and OMs (12). Despite injuring his hamstring in their last outing, Jack Watts has been one of the stories of the year after coming to the Old Boys following his AFL career (Melbourne FC and Port Adelaide) and, as he explained on the FLTOTG VAFA Podcast, enjoying his football again.

Caulfield Grammarians (4-3)

The 2019 Premier B champions opened the season under a baptism of A Grade fire and lost their first three games in a row against OMs (54), Uni Blues (20) and Old Brighton (52). Round 4 proved the turning point for the Fields' season with their 84-point win over Trinity followed by a thrilling six-point victory over Xavs. They've since defeated the Snow Dogs and Scotch, stringing together four wins in a row. Most impressively, no team has kicked more points than Caulfield since Round 4 with three scores 100+ at an average of 114.5ppg. Their biggest concern is that they currently ranked eighth for points against. Julian Dobosz (16) and Brett Eddy (15) are the key cogs up forward, while Will Edwards and, more recently Dane Crognale, have dominated through the middle.

Old Melburnians (4-3)

With Paul Satterley at the helm and the key additions of Sam Dunell, the Haysman and Nichols brothers, it was an explosive start to the season for OMs. They won three from their first four games including two dominant performances against Caulfield (54) and St Bernard's (56). Of those recruits, Ned Nichols has been the standout and would currently sit as firm favourite for the Mecwacare Men's Rising Star with 13 goals from his five games. Sam Dunell has also been superb in his three games while he juggles a coaching role with Sandringham. They suffered consecutive losses to Brighton (12) and SKOB (74) in Rounds 5 and 6, where they also posted two of their four scores of 65 or less. On the flip side, in three of their four wins, OMs have posted totals of 98 points or more. While their scoring output is either hot or cold with no in between, defensively, OMs have allowed just one score above 78 – ranking fourth for points against thanks largely to Josh Freezer and Oscar Hosking.

Premier B Mid-Season Review

Old Haileyburians – 6-1 (Ave Score – 97, Ave Conceded – 58)

Best so far: Brede Seccull, James Paul, Emilio Bitters.

Leading goal kicker: Durras Seccull (19)

After a rough 2019, many outside the walls of Princes Park wouldn't be surprised if the Bloods came out for another ho-hum season that saw them sit in the middle of the pack of Premier B. But after an incredible off-season that saw them draw some high-level talent inside to the club, Daniel Ward and company are rounding the corner in the box seat for a return to William Buck Premier for the first time since 2011.

University Blacks – 6-1 (Ave Score – 82, Ave Conceded – 51)

Best so far: Campbell Moorfield, James Sansom, Jack Charleston.

Leading goal kicker: Alastair Robbins (11)

The Blackers have been the bridesmaid the last two seasons, bowing out in heartbreaking fashion with close preliminary final losses, but this year, they're in a great spot to be the bride and return to William Buck Premier after three seasons in the competitions second rung. The next five weeks for Uni come against sides outside the top-4, a perfect opportunity to potentially leapfrog Haileybury if they slip up.

Beaumaris – 5-2 (Ave Score – 84, Ave Conceded – 46)

Best so far: Chris Grigoriadis, Callum Heath, Lewis Diggins.

Leading goal kicker: Chris Grigoriadis (18)

The Sharks have had opposing sides in their vice-like grip whenever play transitions to their back-half, led by James Taylor and Cal Lineham, their back-six concedes a mere 46-points per game on average. On-top of that, Chris Grigoriadis has been one of the more prominent forwards to start the year and has had a big hand in pushing Beau to the second-best scoring line-up in the league.

De La Salle – 5-2 (Ave Score – 81, Ave Conceded – 65)

Best so far: Fraser Cameron, Hugh Nicholson, Sean Fisher.

Leading goal kicker: Adrian Indovino (11)

Dropping two of their first three games of the year, it wasn't looking pretty for the recently relegated De La but since, the royal blues have rallied off four-straight wins with an impressive 42-point win over Beau highlighted, proving they may be a top-4 contender to end the year. Thanks to some fortunate results, De La are now two games clear in fourth and can look to build on that with wins over the CYs and Carey in the next fortnight.

St Bedes/Mentone Tigers – 3-4

(Ave Score – 76, Ave Conceded – 71)

Best so far: Michael Barnes, Zac Calvez, James Mangoni.

Leading goal kicker: James Mangoni (20)

The last time we saw the Tigers was when they were on the wrong end of a Fitzroy match-winner, putting an abrupt end to what could have been their third straight victory and deflating what could have been the start of a serious run. Haileybury and Uni Blacks now await and even though they'll be underdogs, they matched up relatively well in previous contests and will need to pick up some major scalps to keep tabs on the top-4.

Williamstown CYMS – 3-4 (Ave Score – 73, Ave Conceded – 73)

Best so far: Tom Johnstone, Dylan Jones, Sam Callard.

Leading goal kicker: Ryan Joy (8)

One of the newcomers to Premier B have shown they can hang with the best on a good day but also drop below their standards on another day. Knocking over De La and Bedes earlier in the year were fantastic results but with defeats against Carey and AJAX paired together, a sign of inconsistency could be rearing its head for the CYs, a trait they will need to touch up if they wish to continue their climb up the VAFA league ranks.

AJAX – 3-4 (Ave Score – 51, Ave Conceded – 74)

Best so far: Elliot Debinski, Nick Lewis, Noah Webb.

Leading goal kicker: Nick Cohen (10)

The Jackas round five win over fellow Premier C promotion partner Williamstown CYMS remains a bright light on an otherwise indifferent year for AJAX as they battle to remain competitive. The consistent struggles to put points on the board have been an issue from the outset, but their defensive line remains a positive and one they can lean on as the year progresses.

Fitzroy – 2-5 (Ave Score – 74, Ave Conceded – 78)

Best so far: Donovan Toohey, Ted Clayton, Darcy Bennett.

Leading goal kicker: Jack Hart (9)

Despite a rough start to 2021 that saw them drop four of the first five games, the three-week break which allowed some key personnel to return from injury, on-top of Donovan Toohey's round seven heroics over the Tigers, something may be brewing for the Roys' and a second-half of the season surge could be on the cards.

Old Carey – 2-5 (Ave Score – 59, Ave Conceded – 75)

Best so far: Ben Jepson, Tom Jepson, Zander Adam

Leading goal kicker: Harrison Bean (13)

Much like AJAX, the Panthers have struggled mightily to score, crossing the century mark just once in what has been a severely disappointing year to date. This weekend will be the perfect time to turn their year around though, as a matchup with the winless Parkdale could light a fire under Carey and launch themselves up the table, potentially moving up to fifth by rounds end if results go their way.

Parkdale Vultures – 0-7 (Ave Score – 31, Ave Conceded – 117)

Best so far: Cooper Balic, Charlie Yee, Liam Purcell

Leading goal kicker: Ryan Macdermid (8)

Much has been made of the Vultures off-season and goals entering season 2021, with the aspirations of growing through the year and using it as a lesson to stay competitive in the future. Parkdale will fight to the very end and it would not be surprising if they claim a win or two towards the end of the season, catching a couple teams sleeping.

Round 10 Predictions

Beaumaris def AJAX by 61-points

Old Carey def Parkdale Vultures by 71-points

University Blacks def Fitzroy 27-points

Old Haileyburians def St Bedes/Mentone Tigers by 33-points

De La Salle def Williamstown CYMS by 16-points

Scintillating re-matches lead Premier C footy

COVID has taken two rounds from us, and we have now officially made the turn in the season. With some scintillating rematches, Premier C Round 10 looks to be one to watch.

Hampton v Mazenod @ Boss James Reserve

Last meeting – Round 7: Mazenod (14.10.94) def Hampton (9.14.68).

Well, this is weird. These teams last faced each other in round 7, and having not played any games since then, will have an immediate rematch. Hampton was a clear favourite heading into the first matchup, but the Noddors jumped them early and held a six-goal lead at half time that proved to be insurmountable. It was the in-form defence of Mazenod that won them the game, holding Nathan Smith (20 goals) and Max Coughlin (17 goals) goalless. Tom Warby and Simon Hall were outstanding down back, but it was Samuel Michael that dominated in the middle that made the difference. If I were a betting man (and I am), I would say that Christian Carnovale and Chris Perkins will not let Michael have such an influence this week. The stats say that you can't stop Hampton from scoring two weeks in a row, and for that reason, I expect coach Anthony Quon to make the necessary adjustments to allow his high scoring and high-pressure game style to take the chocolates in Round 10.

UHS-VU v Preston @ Brens Oval

Last meeting – Round 7: Preston (7.13.55) def by UHS-VU (8.14.62)

Just like the game above, UHS-VU and Preston played in a tight one in round 7 and pending a lockdown, the Bullants will get an instant crack at some revenge this round. UHS-VU have been in great form in recent weeks, culminating in their first win in the Premier sections in 44 years over the Bullants, who have never won a game in the Premier sections. The Bullants will lean on their star midfielders to stop the influence of the Vulture's ruckman Fraser Allen and ball winner Esubalew Ramsay. I expect a very similar game this week. The game will be won in the contest. If the Calcedo boys can get on top, Preston will be in for a massive chance. While UHS-VU's lack of scoring options is a worry, their record at Brens Oval in recent years is too hard to go past.

Old Geelong v Ormond @ Como Park

Last meeting – Round 6: Ormond (21.12.138) def Old Geelong (6.9.45)

The last time these two met, Ormond annihilated the Oggers to the tune of 93 points at home. It was a defensive masterclass by the Monders, who behind the great play of Jeremy Simon, Mason Martinez and Dae Szydluk, held Old Geelong to a season low 45 points. With the tables turned at Como Park, I expect Old Geelong to put up a better fight. Their class in the middle with Dixon, Simson and Sloss does not often get beaten twice in a row. The return of Christian Hatzis forward for the Oggers should also ensure more goals are put on the board. Having said that, the Monders are coming off a marginal loss to the undefeated Monash away, a game which they will feel they should have won. While Ormond has the injury bug, I expect Suckling, Kennedy and the Buckleys to be too much again for Old Geelong. Ormond to win in a tight one.

Old Mentonians v Monash @ Keysborough Playing Fields

Last meeting – Round 2: Monash (20.8.128) def Old Mentonians (6.4.40)

Old Mentone have been in great form of late. Emerging young stars have ensured the Panthers are in with a crack in almost every game recently, however, this will be a tough one. Monash took over early in round two and never gave Old Mentone a chance. MacGregor Cameron dominated, and the Blues had 10 individual goal kickers. Old Mentone will need to take every opportunity they get this week, and unfortunately for the Panthers, the Blues defence does not allow many opportunities. I expect the Panthers to put up a good fight, but the Blues should comfortably win this one and stay undefeated.

Marcellin v Old Ivanhoe @ Marcellin College

Last meeting – Round 4: Old Ivanhoe (14.10.94) def Marcellin (13.11.89)

I expect this matchup to be the game of the round. Two midfielders in great form. Two forward lines with plenty of potential. Two teams hungry for a win. Their round four matchup was tight all day, and it took a monster last quarter from Mal Mitris to get Old Ivanhoe over the line. Marcellin is the best eighth placed team in any VAFA competition. The matchup of Jordan Perry and Jake Bradley will be a great one to watch in the middle. This game will be decided by Old Ivanhoe's forwards. Skok and Velluto have been down in form in recent weeks, and if they can get on the board early, I think the Hoers will walk away victors. However, without big Mirkov (recently drafted to Carlton in the mid-season draft), the Eagles' mids may find a way to get on top.

VFA youngsters taken in AFL Mid-Season Draft

The 2021 AFL Mid-Season Draft provided several highlights for the VAFA community – none more so than Old Ivanhoe ruckman, Alex Mirkov, being selected by Carlton FC with Pick 6. Mirkov joined Old Ivanhoe in 2018 and played 27 games in their Holmesglen U19's team before debuting at senior level this year while also playing two games in Carlton's Reserves. You can listen to Alex talking about his selection with the VAFA FTLOTG Podcast boys at VAFA.com.au. Further to Alex's selection, Beaumaris were celebrating the selection of two of their juniors, Jacob Edwards and Max Heath. Jacob and Max began their BFC careers 10 years ago in 2011, ironically enough in the same team, the Under 9 Black Tails. In the ensuing years they weaved in and out of each other's teams, interestingly not always in the Div 1 team, but it certainly became apparent that both Jacob and Max were developing a certain skillset and also – they were growing taller. In 2019, they both had a taste of Senior VAFA footy playing in the U19s for the BFC.

Susan Miller joins VAFA HQ

The VAFA is pleased to welcome Susan Miller to the team as Administration Officer. After completing her Bachelor of Arts at the University of Melbourne with a major in Media Communications, she held roles in marketing and sales before an extended stint in the travel industry. Over several years, she has dedicated time volunteering for numerous community organisations in a variety of fields. Outside of her love of footy, Susan is a keen swimmer and loves to cook.

VAFA clubs lead the way over PLAY4BCNA Round

VAFA clubs raised more than $19,000 for Breast Cancer Network Australia through their fundraising efforts over PLAY4BCNA Round on Mother's Day weekend.

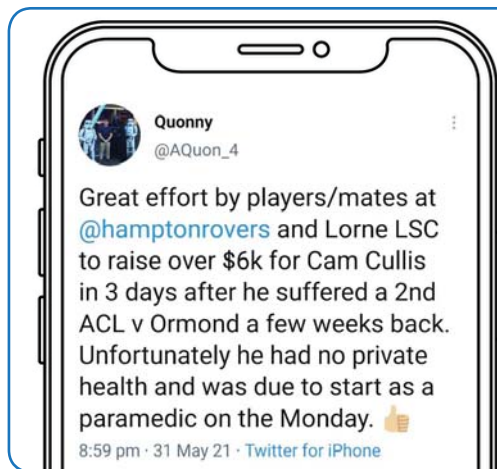

As illustrated in the Round 6 Amateur Footballer Record, clubs turned pink in an amazing show of support, with pink socks dominating social media along with match day luncheons, raffles, and donation tins.

The final tally of $19,569 is the highest of all participating leagues and associations and blew away the VAFA's initial collective fundraising target of $10,000.

From a club perspective, Canterbury raised a competition high $5268, followed by Old Brighton ($2343), Hampton Rovers ($2228), Old Ivanhoe ($1942), Richmond Central ($1710) and Prahran Assumption ($1606).

The VAFA congratulates and thanks all participating clubs and looks forward to building on the success of PLAY4BCNA Round into the future.

Just raising money for a mate

The Hampton Rovers community has rallied over the past few weeks, raising over $6000 for Cam Cullis after he suffered an ACL injury against Ormond recently. Without private health and due to start work as a paramedic, it was a rough situation for Cam but Rovers senior coach, Anthony Quon, announced the sensational effort on Twitter!

Anytime Fitness Women's Rising Star Nominee

Keely James (St Mary's Salesian)

Huge congratulations to St Mary's Salesian young gun, Keely James, who has been nominated as the Anytime Fitness Women's Rising Star for Round 7 following her standout performance for the Saints in their tight loss to Old Trinity.

What the club said:

"Keely first started playing footy in the U/14's at Oakleigh Dragons Junior Football Club, after coming from a netball background. She progressed through the age groups at Oakleigh and joined the Oakleigh Chargers in the NAB Youth League in 2021.

Keely came across to St Mary's Salesian this season as her local club and has very quickly become an important member of our emerging young brigade of senior players. Her elite kicking skills, her positioning and her ability to read the play are the building blocks of her game.

As a midfielder player, Keely's strength and hardness around the ball and her ability to shut players out are outstanding. She plays the game in the mould of a Bri Davey, Erin Phillips or Kiara Bowers. Her teammates love her ability to bring others into the game – always striving to bring out the best in herself and her teammates."

Men's Rising Star Nomination

Nicholas Bufalo (De La Salle)

The VAFA congratulates De La Salle's Nicholas Bufalo who has been nominated as the Round 7 Mecwacare Men's Rising Star.

Bufalo impressed with two goals in De La's win over Parkdale Vultures on Saturday.

What the club said:

"Nicholas went to De La Salle College and started playing in the U19s for De La in 2018. This year is his first year playing in the seniors holding his spot in defence.

He is currently on the Sandringham VFL list and his coaches describe him as playing like Christian Petracca (Melbourne FC).

His strengths as a player include a penetrating kick, dynamic line breaking abilities and he has been making big improvements in his defensive craft.

Nick is a quiet achieving, highly determined, driven young man."

Return bouts as Div 1 returns

Brunswick vs Whitefriars

The 2019 Division 2 Grand Finalists will meet for the second time this year after the Friars dismantled NOBS by 82 points in Round 5. While they haven't registered a win since, NOBS have put together two of their three highest scores of the season against St Mary's and PEGS and, more impressively, kept those two sides to 54 and 67 respectively – the two lowest scores against NOBS this year. The scoring machine that is Whitefriars kicked a season-high 157 points in their last outing against Old Peninsula but have twice been held to 68 points or less this season – giving the slightest hope to NOBS. Daniel Wood (22) is equal-first in the Division 1 goal kicking, while teammate Michael Nitas has slotted 15.

Old Camberwell vs St Mary's Salesian

These two sides met in Round 3 this season with the Wellers continuing their undefeated run (at the time) with a 47-point victory at Ferndale Park. It's safe to say the Saints have improved since the opening month, with three wins in their past three outings – including scores of 97 and 100 against PEGS and Oakleigh. The Wellers, who still sit on top of the ladder, have had the best part of a month to ponder their first loss of the season against Prahran Assumptions, and you'd be a brave man to tip against Riley Verbi, Ben Hart and James Allen as they look to re-enter the winner's column.

Therry Penola vs Old Peninsula

In a battle of seventh vs ninth, the Pirates will be looking to replicate their only win of the season when they defeated Therry Penola by 12 points in Round 2. Not only was it the Pirates' only win, their final score of 12.14 (86) was their highest of the season as they have been unable to kick a tally above 54 since. As far as scoring is concerned, the Lions haven't set the world on fire either, with three consecutive scores of 28, 48 and 49. Granted, their 49 against Kew came from a wayward 5.19, the Lions will be hoping to straighten up and put a three-game gap between themselves and the bottom two.

Prahran Assumption vs PEGS

Another interesting match-up, this fourth vs fifth battle will likely shape the final four as we enter the second half of the season. There are already two games between them, so a loss for PEGS and a three-win gap will make it awfully difficult to maintain touch with the four. Prahran enter this one full of confidence after knocking off Old Camberwell in Round 7, with Matt Clifford and James Musster running wild through the midfield. Pegs themselves ended a four-match losing streak in their Round 7 clash with Brunswick, and they'll be counting on Jackson Marr, Andrew McDonald and Blake Roach to continue their strong form.

Oakleigh vs Kew

There have only been two games since Oakleigh pulled off a sensational nine-point victory over Kew in Round 5 but the plight of these sides since then has been drastically different. While they put in the performance of the year to knock the Bears off, the Krushers have struggled to fire since and gone down to Whitefriars and St Mary's with scores of just 50 and 73. While key forward Aaron Cloke is equal-first with 22 goals, the Krushers are struggling to find other avenues as they rank sixth for points scored. As for the Bears, they've defeated Old Peninsula and Therry since last losing to the Krushers with scores of 109 and 95 – two of their three highest of the season.

Final four shaping in Division 2

Old Paradians vs Aquinas

Despite these two sides being at opposite ends of the ladder (3rd vs 8th), they may be better matched than their current positions suggest, with the Bloods going down to Parade by just 34 points in Round 5. In fact, outside of their Round 2 demolition of Bulleen Temp, the Bloods' 10.10 (70) against Parade was their second-highest score of the season. They've since struggled with consecutive losses to Ivanhoe AFC and MHSOB, but don't count out the boys from Aquinas after an extended break – particularly with the impressive form of Jacob Burdett, Joseph Morrison-Story, Lachlan Barnes, and Russell Foster. As for the Raiders, Marcus Nolan has put in an incredible opening seven rounds as they've suffered just the one loss to MHSOB. Anthony Cafari has been one of several standouts with 18 goals from his seven matches putting him equal-fifth in the Div 2 goal kicking race.

Manningham Cobras vs Glen Eira

Manningham Cobras will be the next side tasked with slowing down the undefeated Glen Eira Gryphons. The Cobras, who sit sixth with three wins and four losses, will be hoping for a far better showing than the last meeting between these two sides when they managed just 1.5 (11) and went down by 140 points. It was the only game this season where the Cobras have given up more than 100 points. On the flip side, the Gryphons have kicked 100 points in four of their games this year, with three of those 140 or more. Callum Drenth has been unstoppable up forward with 29 goals, while Todd Richardson, Daniel McDonald, and Francis D'Agostino should poll well after dominating across the ground.

West Brunswick vs Yarra Old Grammarians

The Westies and YOG's will meet at Ransford Oval in their return bout, with the Westies running out 77-point winners when they met in Round 3. The Westies have continued their impressive form with three wins from their four games since, including a 62-point win over Power House in their last outing. It's been a tough season for the YOG's so far, with their two wins seating them one above the bottom two. They will, however, enter with confidence after dispatching the Bullants by 84 points in Round 7. Calum Johnston and Rory Chipman have been standouts for YOG's this season while Abraham Jones, Stirling Reeve and Daniel Yacoub have each been named in the best five times for the Westies.

Power House vs Ivanhoe

Ivanhoe AFC will be looking to maintain touch with the top four when they travel to Ross Gregory Oval this weekend. The Magpies – fifth on the ladder - were far too strong for the House in their Round 2 clash at Ivanhoe Park, running out 95-point winners. Wayne Schultz has been unstoppable for Ivanhoe, as had Wes Mayne and Connor O'Brien. Sitting ninth with one win, the House will be looking to end a four-game losing streak and will rely heavily on the in-form Brendan Wright, Travis Scotland, and Ben Circosta.

Bulleen Templestowe vs MHSOB

It's a real David and Goliath operation at Ted Ajani Reserve, with the highest-scoring team facing off with the winless Bullants. The Unicorns have kicked 918 points this season at an average of 131ppg, while the Bullants have struggled in front of goal with 49ppg. Ashan Wijayakumara leads the competition with 33 goals from his seven matches while teammates James Tran and Will Suhr have been starring through the midfield. Paul Florance has returned to the Bullants with 12 majors from his six games, while Billy Wilson would be leading their B&F count.

WEST BRUNSWICK v. POWER HOUSE AFC

Round 7 - 22/05/2021

West Brunswick won by forfeit.

DIVISION 3 MEN'S

Sheridan Harris

It's been a relatively pleasing first half the year for Emmaus St Leo's, who came into the 2021 season arguably flag favourites after Division 3's top two from 2019 were both promoted. They sit third on the ladder with five wins and two losses, the latter of which came against fellow premierships contenders Parkside and Hawthorn by 6 and 34 points respectively. The Animals have won their last three games comfortably enough, setting themselves up for a fantastic last half of the season. This weekend, Emmaus St Leo's will be on the hunt for redemption as they welcome the Hawks to Bennettswood Reserve, aiming to make the ledger 1-1 for season 2021.

Parkside will be rueing their 52-point loss to Hawthorn in their most recent game after it meant they lost top spot on the ladder, but will be glad it's been the only real blemish on an otherwise stellar season so far. At 6-1, they're well-poised to attack the rest of the year and will take a lot of confidence from winning their first six games. On Saturday, the Red Devils will be aiming to get back onto the winner's list with a repeat performance as they make the trek to Kevin Bartlett Reserve to face Richmond Central. Parkside took the points when they played each other in round four, which was also played on the Snakes' home deck.

Hawthorn's season didn't start the way they wanted, going down to North Brunswick in a one-point thriller in the opening round, but since then, they've been virtually untouchable as they sit at the top of the table at the middle of the year. Three close games haven't done their percentage any favours, but comprehensive wins against Albert Park and Parkside have, with the latter allowing them to take first place on the ladder. With footy returning this weekend, the Hawks will be looking for their seventh win of the season as they travel to Bennettswood Reserve to face Emmaus St Leo's.

Richmond Central sit just inside the top four, one game clear of fifth spot at 4-3 with big wins against Albert Park, the Westbourne Grammarians and North Brunswick. Their most recent smashing of the Bulls sets them up with a good opportunity to begin the rest of the season on a high. On the weekend, the Snakes will welcome Parkside to Kevin Bartlett Reserve, keen to redeem themselves after their 16-point loss to them in round four.

It hasn't been the best year of footy for Albert Park, who currently sit winless on the bottom of the ladder. They came close in their most recent game against Westbourne but ultimately lost by just 11 points in what was probably their best opportunity to get four points on the board to date. This Saturday, the Falcons will be facing North Brunswick as they travel to Allard Park in search of their first win. Last time they faced each other, the Bulls came away with the win by a large margin, but the Falcons will still be full of belief, looking to their best players in Joshua Rennie, Sam Lee and Tyson Cattle.

Canterbury's 2021 season has been up and down as they sit just under top 4, with a 3-4 win/loss record. Their close loss to Emmaus St Leo's in their most recent game could have been a tide-turner given they were in it until the end where the Animals held on. The Cobras will restart their season against the Westbourne Grammarians when they travel to Westbourne Grammar, aiming to get back on the winner's list. Having both won and lost the two times they have travelled this season, this game will provide a good opportunity to see where Canterbury are at.

North Brunswick's season got off to a scintillating start after downing Hawthorn in a one-point thriller in round one but it hasn't exactly gone to plan since, winning just more game to sit 2-5 and sixth on the ladder. With footy returning, North Brunswick will welcome a winless Albert Park outfit to Allard Park this weekend, and are aiming for a repeat performance that saw them take down the Falcons by 95 points. The Bulls will need to take the four points to avoid a third consecutive loss.

The Westbourne Grammarians sit equal with North Brunswick on the ladder at 2-5 at this stage of the season, with the Bulls only above them by percentage. The Warriors' season didn't start the way they wanted to, their round one loss to Emmaus St Leo's the beginning of three consecutive losses. But they rebounded against North Brunswick, and then Albert Park most recently to head into the next part of the season on a win. This Saturday, Westbourne will welcome Canterbury at home at Westbourne Grammar.

Wickers looking to reclaim dominance in Round 10

Round 10 of Division 4 kicks off with a top four clash between South Melbourne Districts and St John's at Lindsay Hassett Oval. After starting the season with a one-point loss to the Elsternwick, the Bloods have been the best performed team since with six straight wins, including a Round 7 return victory against the Wickers. In fact, in their last three games the Bloods have beaten their fellow top four sides with a 111-point victory over the JOC's a standout. Jamie Brooker is the man to stop forward of centre with 25 goals from his five games. The JOC's will be hoping to turn the tables since their last outing against the Bloods, but it was that loss that sent them on a sharp downward trajectory with losses to Elsternwick (192) and La Trobe (89) since.

The Trobers bounced back into form in their Round 7 clash with St John's, putting to bed consecutive losses to the Bloods (61) and the Wickers (155). The end of uni holidays will only serve to strengthen the Bundoora locals as they take on the eighth-placed Box Hill North, whose standout performers thus far include Samuel Benetti-Baker, Matt Ogle and Patrick Lindsay. As for the Demons, they're coming off a one-point loss to Swinburne after winning their first game of the year one week prior against Eley Park Sharks. Peter Cassidy-Marsh has been leading from the front for Box Hill. Despite being in stronger form than they have all season, the Demons will be up against it this weekend.

Elsternwick will be looking to bounce back from their first loss of the year (vs South Melbourne) when they host Masala-Dandenong at EP. The Wickers were in total control of Division 4 before going down to the Bloods but will be keen on re-entering the winner's column against the sixth-placed Tigers after hitting the scoreboard 51 times when these two sides last met in Round 4. Since going down to the Wickers by 141 points in that Round 4 massacre, the Tigers have found form with two wins from their past three games – including a dominant 40-point victory over Eley Park in Round 7.

In the final match of the round, Swinburne University will host Eley Park Sharks at St James Park. The two-round match cancellation came at a terrible time for the Razorbacks as they had ended a five-game losing streak with back-to-back wins against Masala-Dandenong and Box Hill North. On the flip side, Eley Park has lost its last two games to the Tigers and Demons, with their most recent win a 63-point victory over the Razorbacks in Round 5. Jaydn Pridmore has been impressive for the Sharks, while David Rinaldo and Harry Faull are leading the way for Swinburne.

Lachlan Buck (Monash Blues)

The VAFA congratulates Lachlan Buck who plays his 100th game for the Monash Blues. As Captain of the Reserves team Lachlan has always displayed admirable leadership qualities, with an excellent tactical understanding of the game and a never-say-die attitude, he has dragged the Blues over the line on multiple occasions. The epitome of a team player and great clubman, Lachlan is always one of the first to volunteer for any jobs around the club.

Tyson Cattle (Albert Park)

Congratulations to Albert Park stalwart and former President, Tyson Cattle, who plays his 100th game for the Falcons this weekend. From humble beginnings playing in the paddocks at Lake King in Western Australia, Tyson followed brother, Nathan, across the Nullarbor to land at the Falcons back in 2014. Cattle slotted straight into the seniors on debut in Round 1 of the season, pushing the club into finals and achieving his first VAFA Division 3 Team of the Year selection.

100

Josh Gordon (Old Scotch)

The VAFA congratulates Josh Gordon on reaching 100 games for the Old Scotch Football Club. Josh joined the club from Scotch College in 2014, spending his first year in the under 19s, before moving into the senior ranks in 2015 where he has played at 2nd and 3rd XVIII level. Josh was an integral part of the Premier 'B' 3rd XVIII premiership team in 2017. We wish Josh all the best on reaching this milestone and many more games for the Cardinals.

100

Alex van Ryn (Old Scotch)

The VAFA congratulates Alex van Ryn on reaching 150 games for the Old Scotch Football Club. Alex joined the club from Scotch College in 2010, spending his first year in the under 19s, before moving into the senior ranks in 2011. Alex has played at 1st, 2nd and 3rd XVIII level, 55 of his games in the 1st XVIII, including the Premier 'B' 2017 Grand Final. Alex was an integral part of the Premier 'B' 2nd XVIII premiership team in 2019. We wish Alex all the best on reaching this milestone and many more games for the Cardinals.

150

Michael Myers-Snyders (Old Mentonians)

The VAFA congratulates Michael Myers-Snyders, who this week plays his 200th game for the Old Mentonians. Michael joined the Club as a 15 year old boundary umpire, but quickly gave up the whistle and commenced his playing career with the Panthers in the Under 19s. A dedicated and decorated member of the Club, Michael has represented the Club at all three levels and is the reigning Reserves' best and fairest, after an outstanding year in 2019. His commitment on g=field is matched by his dedication to the Panther cause off field. Well done Michael, and we look forward to many more fine games in the gold, black and blue.

Eagles unbeaten as William Buck Premier Women's returns

Marcellin vs Kew

When the season resumes, the Eagles will be looking to continue their charge towards a perfect season and extend their unbeaten run. Standing in their way will be Kew, who will carry belief that they can cause an upset, coming within one point of Marcellin last time these two teams met. Both teams boast some serious scoring power, with Cecilia Baldassarre (16 goals) and Shaylee Taylor (9 goals) leading the way for Marcellin, whilst for the Bears, it's the even spread between Krystal Shaw (8 goals) and Danielle Calautti and Tara Donnan (7 goals each) that has been impressive. There's no doubting Marcellin deserve to enter this game as clear favourites, however the outcome is far from certain.

St Mary's Salesian vs Old Trinity

It's 7th vs 8th on paper, however these two teams were starting to find some consistency in their performances before the breaks were put on the season. St Mary's will be looking for redemption from their clash with the T's back in Round 7, where it was an after the siren goal from Trinity star Georgia Stewart that stood between St Mary's and their first win of the season. St Mary's will look to shut Sally Peers down, and for Old Trinity, their focus will largely be on Alice Angley. This game shapes to be a genuine 50/50 battle.

West Brunswick vs Caulfield Grammarians

3rd placed Caulfield will be looking to stay in touch with the top 2, whilst 4th placed West Brunswick will be looking for some breathing space from those outside the top 4 when the two teams do battle at McAlister Oval. Notable goalkickers Irena Malliaras (Caulfield Grammarians) and Laura Holdsworth (West Brunswick) are set to go head-to-head as they both shape as important contributors for their respective teams in this match. The Fields will be hoping their impressive defensive unit holds together against a Magpies outfit that managed to put through 8 goals last time they took the field, whilst the Magpies will be keen to make this game win number four in a row.

SKOB Saints vs Old Xaverians

48 points was the final margin between these two teams last time they met back in round 6, as the Saints proved too strong. The Xavs girls will be hoping to demonstrate that they've found some answers to stop the even spread of goalkickers in the SKOB forward line, which boasts the likes of Sarah Cameron and Margaret Gleeson. If Sarah Anderson (Old Xaverians) can continue her red hot form she produced in the first half of the season, and Xavs can find more avenues to goal, expect this to be a closer result than last time.
