Brett Connell – VAFA CEO

Club Development & Sustainability focus – strengthening our future

The recent appointment of Sean Walker to the VAFA Club Development role has seen plenty of activity in this space since he began.

Not only have numerous VAFA Clubs taken up the Tackle Your Feelings workshop opportunity, but there have been numerous club visits and also planning meetings with AFL Victoria in relation to how the VAFA CDM and AFL Vic Development roles will complement each other.

The major body of work has been the creation of the Club Development Health Check, the Health Check is designed to identify areas of success and challenge across our VAFA network of clubs within their “off-field” practices.

The data and responses collected from the Health Check will then act as a key evidence base to implement a variety of support opportunities for all VAFA clubs as well as tailor support to individual clubs and its stakeholders.

Our key focus is to identify gaps across clubs and where the VAFA can support and assist, which may take the form of clubs with similar challenges coming together to hear from experts, workshop strategies, share their experiences and tailor solutions which enable clubs to plan for future sustainability.

Part of the support and assistance to be provided will come from external expertise, but there will also be a reliance on seeking VAFA Club “peer” support and assistance to help one another by sharing best practice across key areas of the club business.

The Health Check covers topics such as Governance, Inclusion, Facilities, Coach Development, Recruitment, Marketing, Sponsorship and Finances, all key pillars for club success.

Our goal is to have 70 “healthy” VAFA clubs by the end of 2022

The VAFA have asked each club to submit a single collective response and believe the best environment to complete such questions would be in a setting that allows input from a variety of committee members such as a committee meeting.

Clubs have been requested to complete the survey by Friday July 16 which will then allow us to collate the data and begin planning in relation to how we support clubs with gaps in their operations.

Our goal is to have 70 “healthy” VAFA clubs by the end of 2022, your input, support and buy-in will go a long way in helping us to achieve this goal.

Together we achieve more.

See you at the Footy.

Mini finals before the mini byes

"Apart from Old Xaverians in 2016, no side from outside the top four after Round 11 has won the William Buck Premier Grand Final over the past decade," – J. Pignataro (2021).

Despite hosting the VFA FLTGT Podcast and the RSN Carnival Match of the Day Broadcast, it's rare that one listens to any statistical analysis from Giuseppe Jr. Granted, it's often difficult to hear him over Brian Waldron's groans of disapproval and occasional ranting, but I must admit, the former Big V NZ mascot has a point here. An exceptionally good point.

When the final siren sounded at the Uni Oval on Saturday, the odds of the reigning premiers going back-to-back plummeted as they dropped to fifth spot and one game outside the four. Of course, there is the decennial oddity of 2016 when fifth (Old Trinity) played sixth (Old Xaverians) and it was, amazingly, sixth who ended up winning it all. That year, however, only two games separated first from seventh on the ladder after R11 – whereas St Bernard's (7th) are currently five games behind SKOB (1st). See, oddity.

If we are to look at it from a more current perspective, over the past three seasons, the top four after R12 has not changed. So, if you thought the two games involving Uni Blues and Caulfield this weekend couldn't get any bigger, recent history suggests the side who is sitting in fourth spot at 5pm on Saturday evening is finals bound.

The two games in question: Old Trinity vs Uni Blues and Caulfield Grammarians vs Old Brighton. We'll call them mini finals. Yes, I'm dubbing two R12 games as mini finals. Audacious. But you know, stats.

The Blues will enter their R12 clash with the T's as favourites after defeating them by 63 points in R7. It was their only win from the past four games, with losses to the Fields, Brighton, and Old Scotch on either side. That R7 victory, whereby they posted their only score over 100, was against a T's side that had not yet tasted victory in 2021 and the Blues have since lost by 46 and 47, respectively. Speaking to Ayce Cordy on the Saturday Warm-Up, he will be doing his utmost to return from a hamstring injury that has sidelined him for the past two games, while they'll be without Jay Kennedy-Harris after the former Dee tore his peck in the first half. On a more positive note, Tom Young ran important mileage into his legs through the Reserves while Rhys Hultgren put his hand up for a Seniors recall with a standout performance.

While Saturday did not go to plan for the Blues, the same can't be said for Old Trinity after they registered their first win for the season. It had been a tough couple of months for the green and gold as they parted ways with their senior coach and blooded young players with an eye to the future. Saturday was but a glimpse of what T's fans have in store as they outlasted – and out-kicked– Old Scotch en route to a 10-point victory. Harry Thompson, who is joining this week's FLTG Podcast and is always worth a listen, was best afield for the second week in a row while fellow 'vets' Ed Weatherson and Christos Manoussakis led from the front. There's not a whole heap of in-between for the T's defensively with four games of 118+ points against coupled with three of 62 or less. What the win does do is keep the T's and Lions within touching distance of Scotch and Bernard's at the bottom end of the ladder.

The Caulfield vs Brighton match is a genuine blockbuster and can be heard across the RSN Carnival airwaves this weekend. The Fields will be looking for a seventh consecutive win and, just as impressively, their sixth score of 100+ points from their past seven. They're a machine up forward, we know that, but it was their midfield that lifted against the Blues last weekend as Will Edwards and Dane Crognale dominated the clearance and possession battle. They were everywhere, kick-starting everything. Add the class of Jack Wallace and Nick Baltas coming up against Harry Hill, Tom Fisher, and Nick Pavlou – my, oh my. Lastly, before I perpetually salivate over the Tonners, the idea of Jared Risol and Will Lewis going head-to-head is enough to get give any VFAFA a reason to tune into Tommy Flanagan's commentary.

The Tonners came from 10 points down against a gallant OMs on Saturday and ran out 25-point winners on the back of a 10-goal-to-four second half. Referring to Will Lewis as 'Lennox' in R7 was seemingly one game too early but he has since been putting opposition defences on the canvas with hauls of nine and five over the past two games. He's stood up in the absence of Jack Watts and become the dominant forward in William Buck Premier. Of course, it helps with the Brighton midfield streaming towards him. And that midfield all starts with Lachlan Filipovic who is having an outstanding season in the ruck. As if Hill, Fisher and Pavlou needed anymore assistance, Filipovic too has taken his game to another level.

There are still seven rounds remaining in William Buck Premier, but the importance of this weekend's games can't be understated. To hear the live call of the Caulfield vs Brighton clash + all the Around the Ground scores throughout the day, tune into RSN Carnival from 1pm Saturday.

Jackas jump above the pack as top 4 keep pace

Another strong goal-kicking performance from Nick Hey and Daniel McCullough has led the University Blacks to a comprehensive 56-point victory over St Bedes/Mentone to keep their crown as ladder leaders entering round twelve. Piling on 14-majors to 6 after quarter-time, the Blackers etched their third win a row to leap into their clash with Parkdale Vultures this weekend in fine form. The Vultures have been incredibly gallant since returning to play a fortnight ago, pushing Carey in round ten and refusing to roll over against Beauy last weekend, showing some real grit as the long grind of season 2021 continues. The Blackers took down the Vultures by 65-points in round five with James Sansom booting four in a win that elevated Uni to a 5-0 start. On the backs of the aforementioned McCullough, Hey, as well as captain Jordan Quaille and Darren Mumford, the last fortnight has shown the Blackers incredible ability to score the ball with ease, this should be enough to lift Uni once again as they stay on track for a return to William Buck Premier in 2022.

University Blacks def Parkdale Vultures by 112-points.

Arguably the match of the round will feature the scorching Old Haileyburians welcoming a blistering De La Salle to Princes Park for a matchup featuring two sides that have collectively won 14-games in a row by an average of over 54-points. Winners of eight straight, the Bloods took down the Roys' by 44-points on the weekend with Jackson Ross bagging five. While De La have claimed six-straight, with the always reliable Adrian Indovino and Tom Chalkley (in his first senior game of 2021), both kicking three to run out 35-point winners over Carey. The last time Haileybury did not come out on-top this year was in round one against none-other than De La, brewing a potential revenge game for Daniel Ward and company. Matt Colak and Nick Bufalo both kicked two apiece for the Blues in that clash while Ryan O'Meara starred to help his side fend off Haileybury. Both sides have been tearing the competition to pieces all season long and it's almost impossible to separate them statistically, with a potential September matchup almost certainly crystallising as the year progresses. Despite dropping a whopping 178-points on Willy CYMS in round ten, I believe Haileybury have the more consistent scoring attack and barring any major outs during the week, should get the chocolates by the slimmest of margins. This should be a cracker.

Old Haileyburians def De La Salle by 4-points.

Building their own winning streak to keep pace with the Blackers and Bloods is Beaumaris, who sit just one game outside the top-2 after their 37-point win over Parkdale in round eleven. Resting Chris Grigoriadis and Riley Mihalovic, the Sharks did not get the percentage boosting win they were after but still got the win, notching their fourth straight to remain circling the top-2. Cooper Ryan kicked three in his first career senior's appearance while Jordan Smith stood tall with three as well. Their opponents this weekend in Old Carey were thoroughly outclassed by De La last round, going down by 35-points. Continuing to barely hang onto eighth spot and avoiding the dreaded relegation zone, Carey have dropped four of their last five and are doing themselves no favours to keep their heads above water. Facing each other a mere five weeks ago, the Sharks run over Carey by 26-points at CSC, with a familiar result forecasted here. Look for the Sharks to continue to dominate play and not give their opponents any forward entry, a trait they've possessed all season long, defending Banksia comfortably.

Beaumaris def Old Carey by 43-points.

Breaking away from the peloton of spots six through nine was AJAX, as they upset Williamstown CYMS by 17-points to make it two-from-two in-clashes against their former Premier C counterparts. A day out for Toby Lipton with six majors elevated the Jackas to fifth on the table and at least for now, two-games clear of relegation with seven rounds to go. Their matchup this weekend comes against Fitzroy, who find themselves in ninth spot with just two wins next to their name, eager to get back on the winners list and escape from the bottom two. Nino Lazzaro, Jack Hart, Ted Clayton and Rory Patterson all kicked two as the Roys reduced a 76-point three-quarter time deficit to 44, a much more respectable result against the hottest team in the competition in Haileybury. The Jackas escaped Brunswick Street by a singular kick in round three, with first-gamer Harry Sheezel the hero with four in a remarkable effort. Another tough one to predict, with Fitzroy possessing a far-more potent forward line with Hart and Lazzaro, while the Jackas defensive unit led by Richie Simon and Justin Berkowitz, concedes far less than the Roys. I am leaning towards Fitzroy in a nail-biter despite AJAX's fantastic result last weekend, but this should be another tight one.

Fitzroy def AJAX by 4-points.

Our final clash for round eleven will pit two sides sitting smack-bang in the middle of the aforementioned peloton in St Bedes/Mentone Tigers and Williamstown CYMS, with the opportunity to launch themselves into an unlikely second half of the season run towards the top-4 at stake. After winning back-to-back games in rounds five and six, the Tigers have been heading backwards since, dropping three on the trot with their round ten loss against Uni Blacks their largest defeat since round sixteen 2018. The CYs haven't fared much better, dropping their last three with their defeat at the hands of AJAX on the weekend coming as somewhat of a shock. It's fair to say both sides need a jolt to resurrect their seasons. Matthew Montebello's squad captured the 4-points in round four by 33-points, with Nick Ebinger starring with four-majors in his one and only senior game so far this year. This should be another tight contest that will come down to how successfully the CYs can repel the Tigers scoring attack, with the always dangerous James Mangoni and Matt Caia always causing issues. Bedes in a close one.

St Bedes/Mentone Tigers def Williamstown CYMS by 14-points

Nodders make it five straight

Mazenod makes it five on the trot as they ran away 30-point winners against Ormond last weekend. After an even first quarter, the Monders absolutely took over in the second with nine scoring shots to two. However, Ormond only converted two of those nine scoring shots and though they were up by 23 points, felt as if they should have easily been up by at least six goals. Their momentum was halted when just before the major break when their star CHB, Jeremy Simon, had a gruesome injury that paused play for some time. The Monders never recovered, and the Nodders came out in the second half looking like a new team. The final two quarters were dominated by Mazenod in all aspects, as they held Ormond to only two points the entire second half running out winners by five goals. Liam Welsford continued his stellar form, but it was the multi-faceted attack of the Nodders, with nine individual goal kickers, that got them over the line. Ethan Hanley and Sam Stait were terrific all day for the Monders whose injuries continue to pile up. Their run does not get any easier, as they host Monash who are still unbeaten and will smell blood this week. In a massive game of 2nd vs 3rd, Mazenod will host Old Geelong who is also in red hot form.

Old Ivanhoe cruised to victory against the in-form UHS-VU to the tune of 62 points at Chelsworth Park. Up only 24 at the half, the Hoers took over in the third booting 6.2 to 1.2 putting the game well and truly away heading into the fourth. Benjamin Dimattina and big man Fraser Allen continued their respective purple patches for the Vultures, who just struggled to find a consistent scoring option up forward once again. Seamus Gibbs was best on ground for Old Ivanhoe who continue to get great games from key position players Jaryd Robertson and Mal Mitris. The Hoers, who have finally moved into the top four, host Hampton who despite beating them by 28 points in round 1, are struggling having lost four in a row. UHS-VU will host Marcellin in, perhaps, a must win game if they want to stay in Premier C this year.

In the most even 25-point loss one may see, Monash got their revenge on Hampton at Frearson Oval. The first was all Blues, who leaned on their elite midfield performers Daniel Easson and Nick Argento to give them a 26-point buffer. The second, however, was all Hampton, though in the most inaccurate quarter in Premier C footy this year, kicked 1.9 to Monash's 1.1 and only cut the deficit by eight points. The second half was much of the same, with Carnovale on top in the middle but the Rovers unable to capitalise finishing the game kicking 4.16 and letting themselves down at every turn. Joe Cosgriff was elite down back for the Blues and Oscar Roberts was great for the Rovers. Monash will look to capitalise on a Monders team who has lost three straight this week. Hampton, after losing four straight themselves, will look to return to form when they travel to Old Ivanhoe.

Marcellin put to bed any talk of relegation with a crucial win over Old Mentonians by 30 points. The first quarter mirrored much of their round 5 matchup, a tight game with both defences holding strong. Scoring out of the midfield seemed the best option for both teams with forwards failing to fire. Tied at the half, the Eagles made the third theirs. The great play of Matthew Capetola (who was best on ground) broke the game open for Marcellin who kicked 6.1 and put the game away. Lewis Oliver and star recruit Lachie Mirams were terrific for the Panthers who fall back to eighth on the ladder. Old Mentone will host Preston in a must win game with UHS-VU trying to fight their way out of relegation. Marcellin will look to do the Panthers a favour when they travel to Brens Oval to face UHS-VU in a massive game for both clubs.

In our final game, Old Geelong thumped Preston to the tune of 102 points. The Bullants played some really good footy in the first but were perhaps a little lucky only to be down by five points given the Oggers kicked 2.6. From there, it was all Old Geelong who finished with a whopping 39 scoring shots. Christian Hatzis showed no sign of slowing down as he booted home five goals (15 over the last three games). Big man Joe Griffiths found some form kicking four in a best on ground performance. Jay Phelan was Preston's best in a long day for the Bullants who are still winless. Preston will travel to face Old Mentone this week and they will see this as a potential opportunity to get their season back on track. Old Geelong will travel to face Mazenod in what will be the match of the round. The two form teams of the competition, and I will say it for the second week in a row, if you have some spare time on Saturday – get down to Central Reserve.

ROUND 12 TIPS

VAFA Umpires celebrate 550 games!

Anthony Simpson & Brendan Corcoran entered VAFA immortality over the weekend when they umpired their 550th games in Division 2 (Aquinas vs Bulleen-Temp) and Division 3 (Albert Park vs Richmond Central), respectively.

Brendan began umpiring in 1992 and he has run the boundary in Premier and Premier B GF's, two rep games and he is a Life Member of the VFAUA.

"I enjoy the challenge of umpiring and the running aspect of the sport and I recommend the VAFA to others as it is a safe place to umpire. I plan to continue umpiring indefinitely and hope to hit 600 career games."

As for Anthony, he started with the VFAUA in 1993 and his career highlights include standing the goals in two Premier C grand finals. Asked what keep him umpiring, Anthony said "my dad Graham umpired with me in my first game, my brother Peter, nephew Matthew, sons Michael and Joshua and cousin Shannon all umpired with me at some point".

"I would encourage anyone to come at Umpire at VAFA it is a fantastic association to be with."

Westbourne's Hud-Sons celebrate Paul's 200th

It was an all-Hudson affair at Westbourne Grammar on Saturday, with the whole tribe celebrating Paul's 200th game for the Warriors. Here they are lined up alongside each other at three-quarter time of the Reserves game while Dave was playing before Chris and Paul got ready for the Seniors match. As the Warriors said in their Insta post, "Christine and Jim snuck out of the canteen to get a quick family photo".

VAFA Holmesglen U19's Footy Festival

The VAFA held its first-ever Holmesglen U19's Footy Festival on Sunday, with all five Premier games played at Elsternwick Park – Oval 1 and Homes/Todd Oval. On-field, Old Brighton, Beaumaris, Williamstown CYMS, Old Xaverians and Caulfield Grammarians claimed wins, with the latter two sitting on top of the ladder. As for off-field frivolities, Holmesglen ran handball and kicking competitions throughout the day, adding to the festive atmosphere, music and well-timed sunshine.

Mental Health Awareness Round

The VAFA thanks all clubs who recognised Mental Health Awareness Round last weekend, with a sea of blue and red armbands and socks sweeping across the Association. Together with VAFA partners Thick & Thin and Tackle Your Feelings, MHA Round aims to encourage conversation, reduce the stigma, and show support for those 1 in 5 people who suffer from mental health issues. As part of the program, both Kew FC and Uni Blacks took part in a TYF sessions last week. Social media was buzzing with photos of participating clubs; including, De La Salle, Kew and MUWFC (pictured here).

Monders Double-Up on Charities

Last Saturday, the Ormond AFC supported two charities: Jane's Army & Sockit2MND.

For the third year in a row, Ormond players and supporters rallied behind Jane's Army, the group remembering JANE BARNES who tragically lost her life to leukaemia on 8 April 2018, aged 26. Jane is the daughter of Club and VAFA legend, Russell Barnes and his wife, Jude, and is sister to Michael (captain of St Bedes/Mentone Tigers) & John. Ormond sold-out its supply of Jane's Match beanies and stubby holders, and combined with some cash donations raised more than $1,800 for Jane's Match, which will be donated to Jane's favourite charity, the Maddie's Vision Foundation.

The Ormond Thirds and U19s rallied together at EE Gunn Reserve for a fabulous tribute to Danny Martinez who lost his life to MND 4 years ago - he was a very close family friend to the McPhee family, who are a big part of our U19 team through son, Harry. The Thirds and U19s players donned the distinctive light blue Socket2MND socks to raise awareness of MND and to raise valuable funds ($1,221).

Ex-Melbourne Football Club champ, and now socket2MND Ambassador, Russell Robertson, addressed the crowd before Danny's brave son, Matthew, run up through the 'players race' to a thunderous applause to perform the U19 coin toss. It was fabulous to have Danny's wife, Rose, in attendance, and of course their son, Matthew.

Big shoutout to the Thirds opposition, Richmond Central, and the U19s opposition, Parkside, and the umpires, for being active participants in the short ceremony prior to the U19s match.

Anytime Fitness Women's Rising Star Nominee

Caley Ryan (Beaumaris FC)

The VAFA congratulates young Beaumaris star, Caley Ryan, who has been named the Round 11 Anytime Fitness Rising Star.

The 17yo was named BOG for the third time this season as she led the Sharks to a thrilling four-point win over Old Camberwell.

What the club said:

"Caley is 17-year-old year 12 student and has played for the Sharks since Under 9s. Caley played in our 2019 U18 premiership as a 15yo. Caley played her first senior games in 2019 as well including our two finals.

Her three older brothers gave Caley no choice but to play footy for the Sharks from a young age.

Caley plays like Toby Green full of cheeky confidence and great skill and toughness. Her reading of the play and strong marking are her stand out attributes.

Caley is renowned for being loud and proud around the club. Before games on a Saturday, if you can't hear her singing high school musical at the top of her lungs during a warm-up, she probably hasn't arrived yet.

We're very proud of Caley and can't wait to see what her future holds at the Sharks."

Mecwacare Men's Rising Star Nomination

Matt Presutto (St Kevin's OB)

The VAFA congratulates St Kevin's OB, Matt Presutto, who has been named the Mecwacare Men's Rising Star for Round 11 following his best-on-ground performance and two goals against Collegians.

Presutto has had an outstanding season to date and has been named in the ladder leaders' best players in five of his past six games.

What the club said:

"Matt got a taste of clubland in 2018 when he played 3 games for SKOB U19's while still a Year 12 student at St Kevin's College. The following year he played 4 more games in the U19's before being elevated to the Premier Reserves. Unfortunately, after 2 promising games, Matt caught the VAFA travel bug and played no more that season. After an impressive pre-season before lockdown in 2020 and further improvement in 2021, Matt was selected for the Premier Division side in Round 1 and has not missed a trick since, playing all 9 Premier Division matches this year.

Matt is a very calm and composed winner of the ball and an exceptional distributor off the half back line. Not surprisingly, his favourite AFL player and a model for his own game is Caleb Daniel of the Western Bulldogs. He is well liked around the Club as a team player who gets the job done. He is relatively unassuming and goes about the business of training and playing with no fuss. Matt is regarded as a potential future leader in the Club."

Pirates claim upset against Prahran

Old Peninsula caused the upset of the round in Division 1 Men's when they defeated Prahran Assumption by three points at Harry McDonald Oval. Despite kicking just five goals from 22 scoring shots, the Pirates were sensational as they held off the fourth-placed Two Blues with two goals to one in a thrilling final term. Angus Groves and Thomas La Brooy were outstanding for the Pirates while Brett Macaulay kicked two of their five goals. It was the Pirates' second win of the season, but they've now drawn equal with Oakleigh (8th) with two wins. Jack Matherson and Matthew Clifford were the best for Prahran as they still sit comfortably in fourth spot with a two-win buffer over the Saints in fifth. The Pirates will have a fresh challenge this weekend as they travel to Victoria Park and face the wrath of the Bears after losing to them by 56 points in Round 6. The Two Blues will look to bounce back against Therry Penola after going own to them by three points last time around.

After losing their first four games of the season, St Mary's Salesian have climbed into fifth spot on the ladder following their 16-point win over Brunswick on Saturday. The Saints trailed by nine points at the first break before kicking into gear with five goals to two in a match-winning second quarter. Louis Holmes and Thomas McDermott top-scored with three goals each for the Saints, while William Coten was best afield for the second week in a row. Ben Wilson and Maxwell Naughton were standouts for NOBS as they edge ever closer to their first win of the year. The Saints will try to edge closer to the four when they face Oakleigh in a very winnable game, while the task for NOBS seemingly gets bigger as they take on the Wellers.

Kew made it four wins in a row and eight for the season, but it wasn't without a significant fright, as they edged past PEGS by four points at Victoria Park. The Bears kicked five goals to four in the opening term and led by one goal which would end up being the highest margin at any break throughout the day as both sides went goal for goal until the final siren. Michael Henderson was named BOG for the Bears for the second time in three games, while Michael Hannan (4) and Peter Couvalias (3) were the main contributors in front of goal. The three votes though will likely end up with Riley Simmons after he kicked eight majors for the Bombers and almost single-handedly dragged them over the line. The Bears continue to apply pressure to the Wellers in top spot as they look to make it two from two against the Pirates, while PEGS face Friars after losing by just three points in Round 4.

The ladder-leading Old Camberwell had very few issues in their Round 11 clash with Therry Penola, running out 60-point winners at Gordon Barnard Reserve. The Wellers trailed by one point after a tight first half but knuckled down and piled on 13 goals to three in the second half. Ben Hart was a clear BOG for the Wellers on the back of his five-goal haul, while Josh Holding and Riley Verbi slotted three each. Jacob Gough and Kane O'Halloran were the best of the Lions and chipped in with two goals apiece. The Wellers should have few issues in their Round 12 match-up with NOBS, as the Lions face an inconsistent Prahran.

Whitefriars continued their hot run with an eighth consecutive victory, this week defeating Oakleigh by 70 points at Whitefriars College. Five goals to one in the opening term set the scene for the Friars' day out as they went and booted another 14 goals to six thereafter. James Connellan was unstoppable in front of goal and finished with nine in a dominant performance, while Jordan De Zilwa and Thomas Johnston were also standouts. Ethan Faragher and Jett Murphy impressed for the Krushers. The Krushers need to return to form and will have a small chance to do that against the Saints.

DIVISION 2 MEN'S

Joe Pignataro

Back-to-back heartstoppers for Aquinas

Aquinas is fast becoming the close-finishing kings of Division 2. Seven days after holding out Old Parade by two points at Garvey Oval, they've held off Bulleen Templestowe by the same margin as the Ants were on the hunt for their first win of the season.

Trailing by eight points at the main break, Jacob Burdett was the focal point up forward with four majors taking his season tally to 11. Stalwart of the side Lachlan Barnes was named best afield. On the Bulleen side of things, it was great to see them take to the field as they were forced to forfeit their Round 10 match, they found their way with two goals each to Cowell, Harisiou and Florance the latter being named their best player.

The winless Ants face Manningham this weekend, while Aquinas will aim for their third straight win against the undefeated Glen Eira.

Speaking of Glen Eira, they didn't have it all in their control as they found their way to a 10-point win over Ivanhoe AFC. Although a 19-point buffer at three quarter time was a comfortable enough margin to give the Gryphons their ninth straight win to start the season.

Ash Close moved to outright leader in the sharpshooters adding three more goals to his tally of 36 while Todd Richardson was named in the Gryphons best for the sixth time this year. Since Round 2, Ivanhoe are on a W L W L W L W L streak, so expect them to be chasing the W this weekend against West Brunswick.

West Brunswick will enter next week's game at home full of confidence having won their last three and cementing themselves in third spot on the ladder after beating Manningham by 19 points. The margin could've been a lot greater had the Magpies kicked straighter in front of goal and not taken the foot off the accelerator after leading by 44 points at three quarter time.

Pat Sawaya has joined the club this year and led the way in front of goal with three majors of his own. Tyler Cottrell, in his third game this year, was the best player on the ground. For the Cobras Konrad Bendrups kicked two goals. Each time he's hit the scoreboard this year he has kicked dual goals (Round 1, Round 2 and now Round 11). Luke Morris was named in the best for the fifth time this season and would be right up there in best and fairest calculations.

The Cobras have the opportunity to get back on the winners list this weekend after 3 straight losses when they face Bulleen Templestowe at Ted Ajani Reserve.

Old Paradians remain in 4th spot after finishing 36 points the better of Power House. It was a much-needed win from the boys from Garvey Oval after their heartbreaking two-point loss to Aquinas last week. They were slow to get out of the blocks in the opening term but extended their lead with six goals in the second quarter. Blair Healy hit the scoreboard with three goals for Parade and Greg Page has found some form in the last couple of weeks being named in the best again. For Power House, it was left to too few with Luke Stubbs and Brendan Wright featuring in the best again.

Power House host MHSOB this weekend at Ross Gregory Oval while Parade will travel out to Yarra Old Grammarians home deck with the aim of winning two in a row.

The final game from Round 11 features Yarra Old Grammarians and MHSOB, with the boys from Yarra never really getting their game going. 10 goals to one at three quarter time signalled a tough day at the office for the Grammarians with their first goal coming in the opening term. If not for inaccuracy in front goal, the margin could've been a lot bigger in Melbourne High's favour finishing with 13.19.97 for the day. Kane Smith kicked 4 majors with Ashun Wijayakumara losing his spot at the top of the sharpshooters tally only managing two goals.

MHSOB will be aiming for their 7th consecutive win this weekend with the aim to sure up a spot in the top 2 while for Yarra Old they'll be looking to get back on the winners list having tasted success just twice this season.

Hawthorn clip Cobras in Wings Match, Red Devils outlast Bulls

Parkside held onto the narrow lead it had at every break to beat North Brunswick by 8 points at Pitcher Park. Some wayward kicking by the Bulls had them down by 9 after kicking six behinds in the first quarter, with the home side then having their own problems in front of goal to be in front by just 11. The arm-wrestle continued as the Red Devils were challenged but ultimately left the field winners. Patrick Notaro (5) had a day out in front of goals for North Brunswick, as Nicholas Trehwella took top honours. With Parkside still without Simon Mackie, the majors were scored by Lewis Balcombe (2), Shane Doherty (2), Jack Hamilton (2), and Peadar Hanley (2), to name a few, while Matthew Holden (1) was named their best.

Ten individual goalkickers for Emmaus St Leo's helped them comprehensively beat Westbourne Grammarians. In wet and windy conditions at Westbourne Grammar, the Animals took a 24-point buffer into the quarter-time break, which they extended out to 31 by halftime. Defensively, Emmaus St Leo's stood up very well in the second half, limiting the Warriors to just two behinds, while they piled on nine goals to take home the win by 91 points. Nathan Bird (3) starred for the Animals, while Harry Davis (2), Michael Davis (2), and Sam Barrah (2) all rode shotgun, with the latter taking top honours for his efforts. Benjamin Johnson (1) and Kelsey Rameka (1) were amongst Westbourne's best as Paul Hudson topped the list.

A fourth-quarter fightback from Canterbury made what could have been a massive score line differential relatively respectful as they went down to Hawthorn at Box Hill City Oval in the Hawks' annual Wings Match for mental health. The ladder-leaders took a 32-point lead into the main break, but came out firing in the third term to all but seal the deal, kicking seven majors to the Cobras' two to be 67 points ahead going into the final quarter. Six goals to the away side then meant that both sides were still fighting to the end, but ultimately the Hawks left the field 52-point winners. After kicking Canterbury's first three goals, Martin Astbury finished with five, while Arun Panjwani (4) did his best to keep his side in it and Evan Lowden was named best-on. For the winners, William Meehan (4), Will Ryan (3), Harry Rand (3), and Lachlan Chapman (2) were four of the eleven individual goalkickers as Thomas McKay (1) took top honours.

A fast-starting Richmond Central all but secured their win against Albert Park by the first break at Bill Woodfull Oval on Saturday. Seven goals to zero in the opening quarter saw the Snakes up by 47 points at the start of the second term, where they piled on another six, going into halftime in front by 86. The Falcons then stemmed the bleeding slightly, slotting their three goals in the second half but overall, it was a Richmond Central affair as they ran out 126-point winners. Billy Browning-Briese (4) was the Snakes' best player, while Dane Roy (3), Thomas Rivers (3) and Jack Bilson (3) all played a guest-starring role, with Bilson now topping the divisional goalkicking tally. For Albert Park, Tyson Cattle (1) took top honours in his 100th game as Justin Mahoney (1) and Thomas Cattle (1) rounded out the goalkickers list.

Emmaus St Leo's will look to continue their good form when they travel for the second weekend in a row, this time to Allard Park where they will face a North Brunswick side hoping to get back on the winner's list. A narrow loss to a top-2 side will have the Bulls hungry for redemption, while the Animals head into this game fresh off a good win away from home and intent on solidifying their top 4 spot. Albert Park's search for their first win of the season continues at Canterbury Sportsground, with their next opponent in Canterbury also looking for a win after going down in round 11.

Richmond Central will welcome the Westbourne Grammarians to Kevin Bartlett Reserve after a percentage-boosting win, while the Warriors will be licking their wounds after going down at home. The Snakes sit at fourth on the ladder, but with the top four teams likely settled at this stage of the season, percentage is everything. It's a battle of 1 v 2 on the ladder this weekend as Hawthorn travel to Pitcher Park to face Parkside. The Red Devils' narrow win against North Brunswick didn't do very much for their percentage, but the Hawks' round 11 win saw them strengthen their hold on top of the ladder as they're now one game clear.

ROUND 12 TIPS

North Brunswick v Emmaus St Leo's

Canterbury v Albert Park

Richmond Central v Westbourne Grammar

Top two assert dominance in Division 4

The ladder leaders stamped their authority all over Division 4 Men's yet again this weekend with two dominant performances.

The first, Elsternwick AFC, retained top spot on the ladder following their 153-point win over Box Hill North at Elgar Park. The Wickers dominated from the outset with 10 unanswered goals in the first half before flying home with 11 majors in the fourth quarter. 10 players shared in the spoils for the Wickers with Nick Lowrie and Dylan Jones top-scoring with five goals each. Jones was also named best afield alongside a standout display from David Marchese. Ritchard Keane fought valiantly for the Demons in the face of the onslaught, and he was assisted by David Edwards who kicked both of his side's two goals. The Wickers will celebrate their Past Players Day this weekend and, in doing so, try to put on a winning performance against the JOC's. It was a 192-point massacre the last time these two met, so the Wickers will be full of confidence. The Demons will be searching for the second win of the season after losing to Swinburne by one-point last time around.

The other grand final fancy, South Melbourne Districts, did their chances no harm after they defeated Eley Park Sharks by 145 points at Lindsay Hassett Oval. The Bloods led by 52 points on the back of an eight-goal-to-one first half but broke the Sharks with 15 goals through Q3 and Q4. In just his third game, Oliver Dufficy kicked eight goals and took his season tally to 19, while Michael Dufficy slotted six. Andrew Yeo and Matthew Knox continued their ultra-impressive form for the Sharks and were named in the best for the third game in a row. It's a battle of 2nd vs 3rd for the Bloods as they take on the Trobers, while Eley Park will look to bounce back against the Tigers.

The St John's form slump seems to be a thing of the past after they snapped a four-game losing streak with a 24-point win over La Trobe University. The JOC's impressed last week in their narrow loss to South Melbourne but came our firing against the third-placed Trobers and led at every change throughout the afternoon. Rohan Scott had a day out for the JOC's with six goals, while Nicholas Terrill was once again in sensational touch. Bryce Dowler returned for his first game in over a month with five goals for the Trobers as they still sit in third spot on the ladder, narrowly ahead of the JOC's in fourth.

Masala-Dandenong claimed their third win for the season with a commanding five-goal win over Swinburne University. Leading by just two points at half time, a match-winning nine-goal haul from Declan Fowler led the Tigers to a six-goal-to-one second half. Fowler was named BOG for his dominant performance, while Matthew Decarne found plenty of it. Trent Ryan top-scored with three goals for the Razorbacks alongside Oliver Morris who was named their best.

MILESTONES

VAFA congratulates the following players on reaching these incredible milestones. Well done!

Sarah Delbosc (Hawthorn)

The VAFA congratulates Sarah Delbosc on 50 games for Hawthorn. A significant milestone for both Sarah and HAFC as our first Women's player to reach the 50 game milestone. "Keech" has captained since our inaugural season including two Premierships, which along with a B&F in 2019 are her individual playing highlights. She is known for giving directions from the backline, revving the team up during the breaks and wearing her heart on her sleeve, especially in regard to her love of her team mates. Congrats Sarah on your 50 games, hopefully a few more in the tank yet!!

Trent Pengilly (Hawthorn)

The VAFA congratulates Trent Pengilly on 50 games for Hawthorn. Trent has been a loyal servant to the club over many year, renowned for being a great runner and has a lethal left foot. Trent is an ever reliable teammate and is a key feature of our teams running through the midfield to set up opportunities for many a forward, and loves snagging a few goals himself every so often. A reserves premiership in 2018 in one of Trent's more memorable experiences from his 50 games so far. We look forward to your next with anticipation 50 Trent!

50

Dylan Entwistle (Glen Eira Gryphons)

The VAFA would like to congratulate Dylan Entwistle on 50 games for Glen Eira Gryphons. The boy with the Rockstar model looks and plenty of 'stickers' to boot is a popular member of our club and deserves this on field achievement.

Jeremy Gonis (Glen Eira Gryphons)

The VAFA would like to congratulate Jeremy Gonis on 50 games for Glen Eira Gryphons. A recent U19s graduate and son of former club goalkicker star Jim Gonis, Jeremy is making his way in open age football and developing into a handy key position player. We look forward to Jeremy being part of the Glen Eira family for many years to come.

50

John Tiernan (North Brunswick)

The VAFA congratulates John Tiernan on reaching 50 games for North Brunswick.

One of our Irish contingent, John is your typical Irishman player. Sometimes unpredictable but always competitive, he goes as hard as any player at Allard Park. Now reaching the veteran stage JT is a valued and well-liked player at The Bullpen.

50

Matt Colak (De La Salle)

The VAFA congratulates Matt Colak for reaching 100 games for De La Salle. Matt is a graduate of the U19s who stepped straight into senior football after a TAC cup season with the Oakleigh Chargers. After a big pre-season, Matt has cemented his place in the senior team and is now fulfilling his undoubted potential. A big mobile ruckman, Matt is a reliable kick for goal with a great set of hands and regularly hits the scoreboard. He has been a key part of a rejuvenated De La Salle team this season and is seen as future leader of the club.

Jarred Harry (Ormond)

The VAFA congratulates Jarred Harry for reaching 150 games for Ormond. Harry graduated from Ormond U19s at the end of 2006. He came runner up in a Reserves Best and Fairest and was the Reserves Vice Captain for a season. He has also won a Thirds Best and Fairest and has played in two Thirds Grand Finals. Harry has also assisted in many areas off the field. Congratulations from everyone at Ormond on reaching this significant milestone.

150

Tyson Parker (De La Salle)

The VAFA congratulates Tyson Parker on reaching 200 games for De La Salle. Tyson played his first VAFA game in 2007. He is true utility having played almost every position on the ground and has represented almost every team at the club. He is four-time premiership player - U19s in 2008 and 2009 and Reserves in 2011 and 2012. Tyson made his senior debut in 2011 and was staple in the seniors and reserves for many years. A fantastic clubman who is now in the veteran category, he lies his trade these days with great effect in the Thirds.

Are the Eagles unstoppable?

Marcellin vs Caulfield Grammarians

Is there any stopping a 9-0 Marcellin outfit? A dominant second quarter from the Eagles put a gap on the scoreboard that Caulfield Grammarians were simply unable to reduce, as they went down by 28 points. The Fields will be happy with their defensive efforts, holding the ladder leaders to just 4 goals, but an inability from the attacking end to hit the scoreboard proved their undoing. This was largely thanks to the defensive efforts from Eagles defenders Charlotte Grieve and Maddie Di Cosmo, whilst in just her second senior game, Lucja Boyd Singer showed she belonged at the level with 2 impressive goals. The midfield battle was tightly contested, with Iffy Donellan and Shanae Carter leading the way for the Fields, but it was Lily Pisasale who was able to take advantage of the service teammate Tess Ramsay provided in the ruck. The Eagles are now just 2 games away from an undefeated home and away season, whilst Caulfield will look to rebound in order to cement third position on the ladder heading into finals.

Old Trinity vs West Brunswick

With Old Trinity fighting for survival in Premier Women's and West Brunswick desperate to lock away their spot in finals it was always going to be a tightly contested four quarters at Hudson Oval. The result belonged to the Magpies, walking away with a critical 9 point win that all but wraps up their spot in the top 4 for season 2021. In a low scoring affair, not a single point was added to either score in both the second and third quarters. Both teams found the scoreboard in the last quarter, but Trinity were simply unable to reduce the Magpie lead, despite inspiring efforts for Isabella Aikman and Vanessa Murphy. West Brunswick were led strongly by Belina Huynh and Kristy De Pellegrini, whilst Ellie Jones was impressive in her senior debut. Trinity's form has turned for the better in the last month of footy, and that will need to continue for them to have a chance of avoiding relegation.

St Mary's Salesian vs Old Xavierians

When the final siren sounded at Greythorn Park on Saturday, a William Buck Premier Women's drought had been broken, as St Mary's Salesian registered their first win of season 2021 with an inspiring 29 point victory over Old Xavierians. There was plenty at stake for Xavs, who needed to win to keep their finals hopes alive. However, they were held goalless in the second half and despite solid performances from Abbey Harangozo and Gabrielle Henderson, it was two goals from Keely James and a best on ground effort from Nicola Burns that powered St Mary's to victory.

Kew vs St Kevins

Another week, another even spread of goal kickers powered St Kevins to an impressive 43 point win over Kew. It was the cliché 'four quarter effort' from the Saints, as they put through 2 goals each quarter. 3 of those goals belonged to Jessica Joyce and for the 8th time this season, there was another 2 goals next to the name of Sarah Cameron. Michaela Harding was a ball magnet for Kew, and for the Saints Ellie McLinden once again provided great run off half back. The highlight of the day for the Saints would have been the return of their skipper, Sophie Straford from long term injury.
