Brett Connell – VAFA CEO

Welcome back again, No Crowds & Do The Right Thing!

Welcome back is not a term we would usually associate with July, but such is the nature of the world we are currently living in. While we will return this weekend to VAFA football across the grades, there will be shades of a month ago when we returned to play with no crowds - yes that's us again for the next two weeks.

While we would all rather a return to 'normal' Saturdays and going to the football, we must remember that we are all required to do our bit so we can, by August 14/15 (fingers crossed), return to a somewhat 'old normal' and actually attend the footy.

Having said that, we do implore the VAFA community to respect the AFL Victoria Return to Play Protocols which do not allow for spectators at matches for the next (2) weekends, only those people required to run a matchday should be present onsite.

I know there will be people scoffing at this suggestion, but as we have seen recently, we ALL need to follow the state government orders so as to get back to 'normal' quicker – so please, do the right thing.

While we kick off our finals series this weekend with our women's competitions, it was with no joy that we had to make the decision to cease the women's season last weekend, effectively ending the year for many of our women's teams. Trust me, this decision was not made lightly.

COVID has disrupted all of our lives in so many ways, and this was just another disappointing outcome. While we planned for prospective scenarios via our COVID policy, we ultimately were left with no alternative other than to follow the policy in place and cancel rounds.

Another moot example of the disruptions are our finals eligibility rules which, via our current Constitution, require a member's vote and associated timeframes to be met.

Given snap lockdowns, this has been made impossible and left many players unable to play in this week's Women's finals and next week's Thirds finals. The new Constitution does not include such restrictions on rule changes, but alas this is not in place. Foresight is truly a wonderful thing.

Our goal now is to maximise the matchday opportunities afforded to us, knowing privileges can be swept out from under us at a whim. We return to normal matches as fixtures for the July 31/August 1 weekend and look forward to getting back out on the park. Rest assured we do sincerely appreciate the effect this had on our entire community, emotionally, physically, financially, and socially.

While COVID return to play and finals planning and re-planning have been our key focuses recently, we are still working away on key 2021 projects namely: 1) our new Constitution, 2) a new Affiliation Fee structure and 3) a large body of work being done on the Amateur Status/Integrity piece – the cornerstone of our Association.

There will be further updates as the weeks progress on these key 2021 projects. Despite the setbacks and other COVID-related focuses, we feel we can deliver on many of the above given the progress made to date, albeit some of the delivery timelines may need to be pushed out.

Enjoy your weekend and remember www.vafa.com.au for all this weekend's live scores.

The Gösta Lilliehöök of rounds in William Buck Premier

VAFA footy returns this weekend and, while I might be a slightly biased Premier scribe, the William Buck Premier Men's fixture promises to be the greatest five-leg event since Gösta Lilliehöök took out the first-ever modern pentathlon at the 1912 Olympic Games.

On that, while Ariarne Titmus and Kaylee McKeown's success in the pool has kept us entertained during Lockdown 5.75 million, we now have five blockbuster matchups that will not only pique our interest but will go a long way to shaping both ends of the ladder on the run home.

St Kevin's OB (1) vs Old Brighton (4)

The RSN Carnival Match of the Day will take place between the ladder leaders and their fellow top four constituents. The last time these two met (R2) ended in a three-point win to SKOB, with a five-goal haul from Tom Boyd and a BOG performance from young ruck, Riley Bowman, leading the premierships fancies over the line. With no Boyd or Billy Kanakis of late, SKOB's scoring prowess suffered slightly (they rank fourth), but it was flipped on its head in their last game against Scotch as they posted 19.16 (130) – their highest score of the season. Josh Wallis and Tom Jok have been standouts this season, while their back 50 once again ranks first with just 53.9 points against. After two impressive wins against Uni Blues and OM's following forced-cancellations-number-one, Brighton fell to Caulfield by 14 points in their last outing. It was the Tonners' third loss to one of the other top four sides, with their only win coming against Caulfield in Round 3. In saying that, Harry Hill, Dylan Verney, and the 30-goal welterweight, Will Lewis, have been at the forefront of everyone of their wins.

Collegians (9) vs Old Scotch (8)

With five games remaining, this is do or die for Collegians as they attempt to avoid relegation. With one win and an endless array of injuries to their name, the Lions will need to reduce the two-game buffer currently separating them and Scotch. The Lions enter on a seven-game losing streak but will be buoyed by their hard-fought 12-point loss to Xavs in Round 12. The return of Kalem Post over the last two games has improved their ruck stocks infinitely, while David Mirra continues to stand up and dominate. While they have that two-game buffer, Scotch suffered their second-worst loss of the season last round when they went down to SKOB by 78 points. With Uni Blues, Bernard's, Brighton, and Caulfield to come, this is the one the Cards would have set their sights on. Brodie Easton has one hand on the club B&F while Gene van den Broek has strung together three games since returning from injury.

Old Xaverians (2) vs Caulfield Grammarians (3)

Outside of SKOB, the Fields are the form side of the competition after they secured their seventh straight win against Brighton before the break and leapfrogged them into third spot on the ladder. They are hot to trot. They've scored more than any other team in the competition with an average of 98.4 points, while their midfield of Will Edwards, Dane Crognale and a rotating roster of contributors ensures constant delivery to said forwards. If there's one team that can bring about the downfall of the hot-to-trot Glenhuntly locals, it is the team that is in the finals sweet spot – ranked second for offence (94.6) and second for defence (56.9). They had two tough wins over their past two games against St Bernard's (21) and Collegians (12) whereby they posted their two lowest scores of the season. Marcus Stavrou, Dan Robinson, and Haydn Troiani have starred for Xavs and will lead them again as they try to get one back after falling to the Fields by six points earlier in the year.

Old Melburnians (6) vs Uni Blues (5)

Two teams sitting outside the top four, this matchup is as important as any with both sides trying to keep their finals hopes alive. For OM's a loss on Saturday will end any chance they have, while for the Blues, they need to reach into their bag of premiership credentials and find some consistency with a second straight win. The Blues snapped a two-game losing streak against Trinity in Round 12 and temporarily stopped the bleeding of consecutive 100+ scores against. Ayce Cordy returned from injury and made an immediate impact, while Jack Stephens continues to rack up B&F votes. OM's were not without their chances against the Snow Dogs but ultimately fell by 11 points. Similarly to Collegians, OM's have been hurt by injuries, but it hasn't stopped the sensational recent form of Gus Borthwick and Nick De Steiger.

Old Trinity (10) vs St Bernard's (7)

I care not how many years it's been because every time these two sides meet it is the 2015 Grand Final Rematch. What a day, what a game. Back to this decade and the Snow Dogs will look to continue their strong form (two wins from their past three) which included that 21-point loss to Xavs. A win for Bernard's will officially end any relegation discussion as they try to climb the ladder on the back of the incredible form of Jordan Farrell, Charlie Vague, Jarrad Walters and Ben Overman. Oh, and Adam Bentic who seemingly hasn't missed a trick since returning. The T's were valiant in their last match against Uni Blues, one week after winning their first of the year against Scotch. While they need to find avenues to goal (56.9ppg), the form of Tom Mason, Christos Manoussakis and Alex Emery has been a real highlight.

PREMIER B MEN'S

Jake Morris

Let's try this again, shall we?

Another midseason hiatus threw a spanner in the works of an already disjointed 2021 season but as football returns for the third time this year, the Premier B men's competition remains a race from relegation, with the top-4 almost certainly set in stone as we head for home.

Beginning with ladder leaders and arguable premierships favourites University Blacks as they return to the field for a clash with Williamstown CYMS, who currently reside in fifth position, three games back of fourth. Winners of four straight by an average of over 70-points, the Blackers enter this contest on a high but come up against an unfamiliar foe, as they are yet to face the CYs so far this year, with their most recent clash occurring in round nine 2002.

Williamstown ended their three-game skid with a handy 11-point win over Bedes prior to play halting but will need to build on that this weekend as their window into the top-4 is looking bleak. Led by Dan McCullough and Nick Hey up forward, the Blackers should have little trouble putting a big score on the CYs back six who rank eighth in scores conceded so far this year. Look for the ladder leaders to make another statement.

University Blacks by 58-points.

The unquestioned match of the round will feature the absolutely scorching Old Haileyburians and the always dangerous Beaumaris at Banksia Reserve for what is shaping up to be a classic. Winners of nine straight, the Bloods have steamrolled through the competition so far this year but have yet to face the elite defensive unit that the Sharks possess, posing a new challenge for Daniel Ward and company. Beaumaris have won five straight but are still yet to gain a win over a fellow top-4 side, with their only two losses so far this year coming against Uni Blacks and De La Salle. Nevertheless, the boys from Banksia still manage to keep their opponents to a league low 43-points a clash, with opponents scoring more than 55 just once so far this year. This one will truly be a clash of the unstoppable force and the immovable object with the Bloods scoring prowess clashing with the Sharks vicelike defensive unit. I am leaning Beauy in a tight one, but this truly could go either way with this settling in to be a finals preview in just over a month's time.

Beaumaris by 4-points.

It's been a long time between drinks for De La Salle and AJAX, as the unfamiliar adversaries go head-to-head for the first time since round sixteen 1982, in what was AJAX' last season in what is now known as William Buck Premier. Fresh off having their six-game winning streak snapped at the hands of Haileybury, De La return to the park to fix their inaccuracy woes in front of goal that costed them dearly in round twelve, eager to bounce back and solidify their rightful placement inside the four. The Jackas continue to tread water in sixth position, three games out of the finals and a game ahead of the relegation zone. Though a loss here will all but rule themselves out of featuring in September, keeping themselves out of the bottom two would still mean a successful first season back in Premier B for Adam Andrews and company. Despite the vile and racist attacks on the clubrooms at Gary Smorgon Oval in the past week, the footballing community stands together with AJAX and condemns any sort of behaviour. It must stop.

De La Salle by 44-points.

A loss here for either side and it will officially be curtains on season 2021 as St Bedes/Mentone Tigers welcome Old Carey to Brindisi Street Oval in a cut-throat clash. Dropping four-straight, the Tigers have suffered heartbreak defeat after heartbreak defeat and find themselves staring down the barrel of a relegation into Premier C for the first time since 2006. Thankfully for Bedes, clashes against the Panthers, Jackas and Roys await, all winnable matches that could push them away from the bottom two. Carey's first season back in Premier B continues to produce disappointing results as the Panthers, like Bedes', sit uncomfortably close to the dreaded relegation zone and potentially breaking unwanted record, returning to Premier C for the first time since 2007. Despite both sides struggling mightily, Carey have had greater issues getting on the scoreboard for most of this year and I see that has the deciding factor in this one.

St. Bedes/Mentone Tigers by 15-points.

Rounding out round fourteen will be Fitzroy, coming off an important victory over AJAX, welcoming the winless Parkdale Vultures to Brunswick Street Oval. The Roys' fended off the fast-finishing Jackas prior to play stopping, etching their third win on the year and jumping ahead of Carey into eighth spot on the table. The Vultures continue to fight week in and week out to grab that elusive victory, always trying to play spoiler as their difficult season heads into the final straight. As long as the Roys' don't come out expecting a win and play hard from siren-to-siren, there shouldn't be any issues for Luke Mahoney and crew to get the four-points and drift further from a return to Premier C.

Fitzroy by 66-points.

Victory worth its weight in gold in Premier C

After the last lockdown extended the double bye one more week, Premier C football is back. With only five matches left to play in the season, each win is worth its weight in gold.

Old Ivanhoe vs. Mazenod @ Chelsworth Park

Last meeting – Round 3: Mazenod (6.9-45) def by Old Ivanhoe (14.10-94)

In what is one of many great games this week, the Hoers will host the Noddors in a crucial third vs. fifth match-up. Last time these two met, Old Ivanhoe ran away with the game early taking a subsequently insurmountable lead of 34 points into half time. Skok, Velluto and Mitris all chipped in with eight goals combined to allow the Hoers to run away 49-point winners. There is little chance this game goes the same way. Mazenod has been in incredible form, winning five of their last six behind great team defence (opposition average score of 55 over the last six games) and the standout play of star mid Samuel Michael. The Hoers, on the other hand, have not been in bad form either – having now won their last five games. Old Ivanhoe is a big side, boasting important key position players in all areas of the ground. This game should be close with potentially the winner going to third spot. I expect the Hoers' height to be too much in the end.

Old Geelong vs. UHS-VU @ Como Park

Last meeting – Round 4: UHS-VU (4.12-36) def by Old Geelong (15.11-101)

Last time these two met, Old Geelong was up by 70 at 3QT and the game was well and truly over early. After a couple of good wins against Preston, the Vultures have dropped their last two games and are looking to rebuild some form. Ben Dimattina and Patrick Brookes are ones to watch, but they may have an uphill battle travelling to Como Park this week. The Oggers have won their last four, and in that stretch, John Simson and Scott Dixon have been prolific. Perhaps a more worrying sign for the competition, Christian Hatzis has kicked 19 goals over that four-game stretch – including against top tier defences in Ormond and Mazenod. There may be just too many spot fires for the Vultures to try and put out this week and I expect Old Geelong to win comfortably.

Ormond vs. Marcellin @ E.E. Gunn Reserve

Last meeting – Round 3: Marcellin (6.15-51) def by Ormond (10.12-72)

The Eagles will still be thinking about missed opportunities from their round 3 match-up with Ormond. Holding a 27-point lead at half time, Marcellin could only manage one goal to Ormond's nine in the second half as the Monders completed a terrific comeback behind the dominant display of big man Steve Tolongs who kicked five goals. Despite a horror start to the season, the Eagles are only two games out of the finals, and with a percentage of 114, nothing is out of the question. Marcellin has won their last two and they boast a star-studded midfield including Patrick Howe, Jeremiah Antypas and Jordan Perry who have all been in great form this year. Will it be enough is the question. Ormond, after losing three straight, pulled off the upset of the year breaking Monash's undefeated streak in a massive win at home. If the Monders can find a way to hit the scoreboard as they could early in the year, they can beat anyone anywhere. The battle of Max Kennedy vs. Jordan Perry and Jack McCartney vs. Patrick Howe should be great to watch. I expect the Monders to win in a close one at home.

Monash vs. Preston @ Frearson Oval, Monash University

Last meeting – Round 1: Preston (9.6-60) def by Monash (22.13-145)

You would not know it by looking at the final score, or their current ladder positions, but Preston actually led Monash by two points at half time in round 1. At 3QT, however, the Blues were up by 38 points and the game was over. Jackson Curic kicked five goals that day for the Bullants, who are still seeking the club's first ever win in the Premier sections. Back-to-back thrashings after two losses to UHS-VU does not put Preston in great stead for this week's match-up against the ladder leaders, however, anything can happen in footy and maybe Curic can whip up some more magic. Monash will be heavy favourites entering this week, especially after they lost to Ormond before the break. Something tells me that big Mac Cameron, Daniel Easson and Nick Argento will seek to put this one away early.

Old Mentonians vs. Hampton Rovers @ Keysborough Playing Fields

Last meeting – Round 6: Hampton (11.11-77) def by Old Mentonians (11.15-81)

Sitting at 4-1 at the time, Hampton was expected to steamroll their way through the 2-3 Panthers who had just come off blowing a six-goal lead to Marcellin the week before. Old Mentone had other ideas that day, pulling off an incredible upset beating the Rovers by four points. Jai Florent, who was prolific winning the VAFA Rising Star that week, said it was the best Old Mentone win he has been a part of. It has been a tough slog for both teams since that game. The round 6 loss set the Rovers on a five-game losing streak as they now sit at 4-6 are now in a must win position if they want to play finals this year. Chris Perkins and Christian Carnovale have been great for the Rovers in their losing streak, but they will need some help this week if they are going to win. Old Mentone has won just the one game since round 6, but that win was a 95-point pumping of Preston just before the break. Angus Grant kicked eight in round 12, and there will be a heavy load on his shoulders again. This game is as 50/50 as it gets, but I see the Rovers getting back on the winners' list.

TAC Rewards Program Extended

The TAC Club Rewards Program is offering cash to clubs who help keep their community safe.

With the recent lockdowns, the deadline for applications has been extended to the 16th of August to allow your club greater opportunity to get involved and win $10k.

The TAC Club Rewards Program is for community football and netball clubs and encourages ongoing participation to help us eliminate deaths and serious injuries on our roads. It takes all of us working together to achieve this.

So as the heart of each community, we're asking football and netball clubs to lead this movement, by rewarding the ones who are passionate about our mission and demonstrate that commitment with up to $10,000 in funding.

We'll promote your club and its stories, and in turn, together we'll encourage others to play their part in making Victorian roads a safer place for all of us.

So go on, team up and share the road safety message to win. Head to VAFa.com.au for more information!

Women's Coaching Month Q&A

Erini Gianakopoulos (MUWFC)

When did you started coaching?

Officially in 2003 when I had a year off from playing due to injury. Unofficially, have been an armchair expert since I was a kid.

What do you love about it?

I'm a bit of a football nerd so I love the tactical and strategic aspects of footy. As a Head Coach of a club, you're responsible for the program and direction of the entire club which is a high-pressure role but I love that, and I think it brings out the best in me as a coach.

What do you want to achieve?

I think any coach's role is to help set their club up for the future and leave it in a better place than when you first walked in the door. I want to play my part in regenerating MUWFC so we're celebrating our 50th in 25 years' time. If I can do that, it'll take care of my own development needs and coaching pathway.

Any highlights that you have experienced this season?

How much time have you got?!

From first gamers in our Thirds to seeing MUWFC players earn VFLW selection, and everything in between. Overall, just seeing the current players create and build their own MUGAR DNA and culture has been exciting to watch, particularly given it's been a really important time in our club's history post transitioning our VFLW side over to North Melbourne. Off field it's been the way our club has grown closer and looked after each other through times of adversity. Of course, when players finally embraced my excel spreadsheets, that was also satisfying.

How would you like female coaching to grow?

I'd like to see more females back themselves into coaching roles. No doubt many hold back as they don't believe they're up to it, but they are! I think we need to get better at selling ourselves and our football knowledge. In saying that, I think the sport still has a cultural shift required to create the right and supportive environment for females to take on roles and develop. I guess when we get to the stage where it's just 'coaching' not 'female coaching' then we've done our job.

Barnett scooped up in AFLW Draft

It was party time on Tuesday night for Old Trinity and their former ruck star, Imogen Barnett, who was taken by Collingwood with pick 33 in this year's AFLW Draft,

It's a monumental achievement from Imogen who last played in the VAFA just two years ago and claimed the William Buck Premier Women's Best & Fairest while also representing the Big V.

Barnett (28 votes) was instrumental to Trinity's success throughout the home and away fixture, ranking second in the competition for hit outs, first for marks, third for inside 50's and averaging 18.2 disposals per game. Despite missing 3 games throughout the middle of the year, Barnett posted 8 matches with at least 16 disposals, 33 hit outs & a goal.

The VAFA congratulates Imogen and wishes her every luck in the AFLW.

Brought to you by

Vale Gary 'Lumpy' Rosewarne

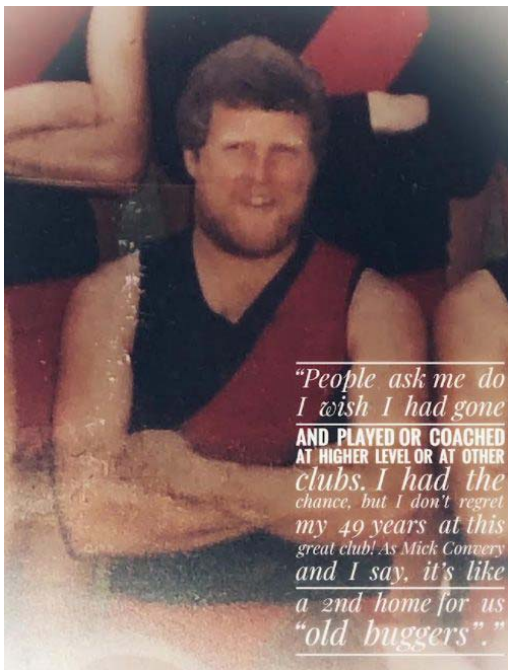

The VAFA extends its deepest condolences to Elsternwick AFC and the family and friends of Gary Rosewarne who recently passed away. 'Lumpy' was a champion of the Wickers and of the VAFA as described below by Elsternwick:

"Gary joined Elsternwick Amateur Football Club in 1970, playing 17 games, and kicking 50 goals in Elsternwick's only Under 19 team in the last 80 years! He then played 289 Senior games and 5 Reserves games with Elsternwick, kicking 395 goals. Gary qualified as a member of the VAFA '300' Club.

Gary was an extremely talented footballer as attested by his many playing awards: Competition Leading goal kicker, VAFA "E" Grade 1973, Club leading goal kicker 1973, 1975; Club Best and Fairest winner: 1976, 1980, 1981, 1982, 1989, Competition Best and Fairest winner, VAFA "E" Grade 1982.

Gary also had a very extensive coaching career, being Elsternwick AFC Senior coach in 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1985, 1986 (Runner-up "E" grade), 1987, 1988; 1995, joint senior coach 2013 (Runner-up D3 grade).

When not coaching the Club, Gary has taken the role of the senior person in the Club's football department for many years. He has also been a member of the Club Committee and was Vice President for some years. At the time of his death, Gary was EAFC Director of Football and a member of the EAFC committee."

Anytime Fitness Women's Rising Star Nominee

Bianca Keogh (Marcellin)

Congratulations to Marcellin's Bianca Keogh who has been named the Round 12 Anytime Fitness Rising Star nominee.

Bianca was instrumental in the Eagles' impressive 56-point win over Old Trinity on the weekend and has been named in the best four times throughout the season.

What the club said:

"Bianca played her junior football at Montmorency JFC before joining her older sister at Marcellin this year. She comes from a very sporting family, loves the opportunity to compete and to play with her sister Brianne (fellow Senior player).

Bianca plays like Jamie Lambert and Trent Bianco. She has very clean hands, great vision and is a tough all-round competitor. Around the club, Bianca is known for being a great teammate and an extremely hard worker at both training and on game day."

Men's Rising Star Nomination

Angus Grant (Old Mentonians)

The VAFA congratulates Old Mentonians forward, Angus Grant, who has been named the Round 12 Mecwacare Rising Star after he slotted eight goals in a sensational BOG performance against Preston Bullants on the weekend.

Grant debuted at senior level in Round 1 and played every game for the Panthers since.

What the club said:

"Angus (Gus) Grant graduated from Mentone Grammar School in 2019.

Angus played school firsts football in 2018/2019 and (3) games of U19 football at Old Mentonians in 2019, joining the Club as a father/son recruit. This season, Angus is currently on the Frankston VFL development academy list and Sandringham Dragons list, as a 19-year-old.

Angus arrived at Old Mentonians' preseason extremely fit over the summer and he is renowned for his hard work and training ethic. He loves his football and is always striving to improve with every training session. The preseason work and training ethic displayed were the real driving force behind why he made his senior debut for the Old Mentonians in Round 1. Angus has played every senior game this season. Displaying genuine leadership both on and off field, Angus is a respectful young man.

Being a one-eyed Carlton supporter, Angus would love to be compared to one of his idols, but I am sure he wouldn't mind being compared to a player with the versatility of a Mark Blicavs or Nik Cox. Angus has the flexibility to play multiple roles, ruck, key back / key forward and/or wing. He has impressed everyone with his courage, competitiveness, skills and footy smarts. After a string of very good performances, it is fantastic for Angus to receive his nomination after his strong performance and (8) goals last weekend."

DIVISION 1 MEN'S

Nick Armistead

Double chance up for grabs in Division 1 Men's

Like the other three divisions, there are now four games remaining in Division 1 after the loss of two additional rounds recently. Although it is of no surprise, with just a month of home and away footy left and barring any disasters, it basically solidifies finals for Old Camberwell, Whitefriars and Kew, all of which are 9-1. Prahran Assumption currently occupy fourth spot on the ladder with a healthy two-game buffer over St Mary's Salesian in fifth.

Old Camberwell vs Prahran Assumption

Nine wins tends to be enough to make finals most years and, given the shortened season, will almost certainly get the Two Blues there. Currently sitting with seven wins, it seems as though the footy gods – who can often be so cruel – want them in finals as well with the Two Blues having missed games against Whitefriars and Kew on BOTH occasions where rounds have been cancelled. They must now face the Wellers again, however, after inflicting their only loss of the season in Round 7. The Wellers won't have forgotten that loss quickly after they kicked themselves out of the game with 8.22 (70) to Prahran's 13. 8 (86). Riley Verbi and James Allen have been standouts in an otherwise even Wellers outfit, while James Musster and Matt Clifford are the one's to watch for Prahran.

Old Peninsula vs Brunswick

The less games we play, the harder it gets for NOBS to secure that first win we're all so desperately after – well, maybe not their opposition but the rest of us are hanging out for it. NOBS were impressive in their past two games with hard-fought losses to St Mary's (16) and Old Camberwell (19). Their best chance might well be this weekend against the ninth-placed Pirates after the first matchup between these two sides was cancelled. Despite losing against Kew in their last outing, the Pirates are in much better form and even defeated the Two Blues in Round 11.

Therry Penola vs St Mary's Salesian

In a battle of 5th vs 6th, a win for the Saints will keep their finals chances alive. Five wins from their past six games, the Saints were in serious form prior to the break and will need to win every game from hereon to maintain touch with Prahran. Thomas McDermott will look to add to his 24 goals while D'Arcy Grant continues to give the club B&F a red-hot crack. The Lions are three games outside the four and will need everything to go right in the run home. But there's no better way to kick things off than a win against the side one spot above you, so expect to see standout performances from Jacob Gough and Kane O'Halloran.

Oakleigh vs PEGS

While the mathematics wizards among us will argue there's a slim chance that PEGS can make the four, we can all agree both these sides will be playing for pride in the run home. They are yet to play against each other this year, but neither were in great form prior to the latest byes, with the Bombers losing three straight and the Krushers losing five. The Bombers went close to Kew (4) and Prahran (13) in two of those losses so will enter this one as favourites.

Whitefriars vs Kew

One of these two sides will suffer their second loss of the season and, if the Wellers beat Prahran, the loser will fall to outright third on the ladder. The last time they met was back in Round 1 when the Bears came out four-point winners and inflicted the Friars one and only loss of the year. With a top two spot and a double chance up for grabs, expect to see Kristan Height (WF) and Jack Delbridge (Kew) leading from the front.

ROUND 14 TIPS

- Old Camberwell v Prahran Assumption
- Old Peninsula v Brunswick
- Therry Penola v St Mary's Salesian

DIVISION 2 MEN'S

Joe Pignataro

Division 2 Men's top 4 blockbusters

As we swing for home in the final rounds of the home and away season, due to COVID enforced breaks the top 4 might just be set should results go the way of Old Parade and West Brunswick in 3rd and 4th while Ivanhoe AFC need everything to go right in the remaining 4 rounds. We're back though, and Division 2 is showcasing two massive top 4 clashes.

At the bottom of the table, Power House will be fighting for survival this weekend when they travel out to Aquinas. The last time these sides met was Round 1 of 2016 in Division 3 with Power House getting the points, Aquinas will be eager to inflict more pain on the boys from Ross Gregory Oval. However, should Power House record their second win of the season (their 1 and only was a 3 point win over the Ants in Round 3), they'll move to equal points with Yarra Old Grammarians who face a tough battle this Saturday that they themselves will not be taking lightly coming up against Bulleen Templestowe.

For the Grammarians, they won't want to be complacent as they push for the 4 points having lost 3 games in a row and a win this Saturday ensuring they remain out of the bottom 2.

Ivanhoe AFC need to win themselves to stay in touch with the top 4, as it stands, they're 3 games and 10% behind Old Paradians in 4th. Losing their last 2 matches against top 4 sides, the task has been made slightly easier with 3 of their remaining 4 games coming against sides below them on the ladder. They'll roll the dice and have one last push to get to September in 2021.

The fate of their season may well be decided in Round 17 when they face Old Parade in an old-fashioned 8-point clash but first they need to overcome the Manningham Cobras this Saturday. The Cobras will get out the tape on how they snuffed out Ivanhoe earlier in the season to get a 7-point win with coach Frank Salanitri hoping the same formula this time around will give them the 4 points.

Old Paradians could see themselves as fortunate to have not met Glen Eira and West Brunswick this season as their fixtures were interrupted by COVID. However, as it stands right, they will consider themselves thankful there's a 3-game gap between them and Ivanhoe AFC given their run to the finals from here. This weekend they'll meet ladder leaders Glen Eira for the first time (away at Packer Reserve), before games against West Brunswick (3rd), Ivanhoe AFC (5th) and MHSOB (2nd) all before September comes around.

Glen Eira, the Division 2 favourites, their scoring prowess has been restricted in recent times but they managed to break their drought by hitting the scoreboard on 32 occasions last time they played on July 3. And they'll be looking for more of the same this weekend at their home track where they average 115 points per game.

MHSOB have won 9 games in a row since their Round 1 loss to Glen Eira, and this week they'll travel out to Ransford Oval to face off against 3rd placed West Brunswick. A win will give them an 8-point gap on the Magpies before games against Glen Eira (1st) and Old Parade (4th) come around in their final month. The Magpies will have to quell the influence of Ashan Wijayakumara - the Division 2 goal kicking leader - who they are yet to see in 2021 due to their Round 8 clash being cancelled.

After losing their season opener, the Magpies have lost just once since, and it was to the Gryphons by 98 points. Since then, they've been breathing down the neck of the Unicorns and this weekend have a genuine chance to go equal points and really make the conversation for the double spot very interesting in the run to the finals.

It's a fascinating Round 15 of the Division 2 season coming up, no doubt every player has spent hours and days (recently) looking through the VAFA ladder predictor, seeing the ramifications of every result. One thing we're sure about though, regardless of results, we're just happy to have the footy back!

Div 3 Men's returns with finals all but locked

With VAFA-footy returning this weekend, those familiar with the Division 3 Men's will be aware that the home and away season has four games left, and it all begins this weekend. The top 4 is set, with Hawthorn, Parkside, Richmond Central and Emmaus St Leo's all certain to play finals this year, bar some absolute miracles as Canterbury sit in fifth on the ladder, 12 points behind the Animals whose fourth position rests solely on their percentage. But while the remaining games will play out with teams aware they're playing finals, where exactly they finish at the top is going to be surely left to the final round. Before they get there though, round fifteen looms on the horizon and its match-ups make for more than interesting viewing.

Ladder-leaders Hawthorn will be on the hunt for a win as they travel to Kevin Bartlett Reserve to take on Richmond Central. Round twelve was the last time we had any VAFA-footy, and it was an interesting one for the Hawks after surprisingly drawing at 33 apiece with fellow top 2 team Parkside at Pitcher Park to make the ladder more of a riddle, while at home, the Snakes systematically dismantled the Westbourne Grammarians by upwards of 100 points.

North Brunswick's season continues with a trek to Bill Woodfull Oval to face a still-winless Albert Park. The Bulls have had more than ample time to rue a missed opportunity after going down to Emmaus St Leo's in their last outing in round twelve, despite taking the lead into the final term, while the Falcons were gallant in their five-goal defeat to Canterbury.

It's another trip to the other side of the city for Emmaus St Leo's, with Westbourne Grammar their destination for the second time this season as they take on the Westbourne Grammarians. It probably hasn't been the most joyous break for the Warriors, who went into the unscheduled footy hiatus off a 135-point loss to Richmond Central, but it's happier times for the Animals headed in on a win, weathering a North Brunswick storm to take the four points in round twelve.

Canterbury gets to stay at Canterbury Sportsground as they welcome Parkside to their home deck for round fifteen. The Cobras suffered a small scare in their most recent outing but still managed to take home the win against a winless Albert Park outfit, while the Red Devils will be looking to get back onto the winner's list after drawing with top-of-the-table Hawthorn in a very low-scoring affair at Pitcher Park.

DIVISION 4 MEN'S

Nick Armistead

4 to go in Div 4 Men's

10 games down, four cancelled, four to go in Division 4 Men's... hopefully.

With VAFA footy returning this weekend, it gives us a chance to watch those sides fighting for a finals spot with great interest.

Sitting in fifth spot and one game outside the four, Masala-Dandenong will need an upset in the final month of the season in order to taste finals for the first time in the club's short history. There's no better place to start than the in-form South Melbourne Districts this weekend when the two sides meet at Lois Twohig Reserve. The Tigers were on a two-game winning streak before the Covid cancellations struck, with wins against Swinburne Uni (30) and Eley Park Sharks (7). Declan Fowler has been a standout in his nine games with 40 goals and has been named in the best five times. Stopping the Bloods will be a task unto its own though after they secured a 90-point win over La Trobe in their last outing and made it nine wins on the trot. Sitting in second spot, the Bloods have dominated since going down to Elsternwick in Round 1 with seven players kicking 10 goals or more, including Oliver Dufficy with 26.

It's a battle of 3rd vs 4th with La Trobe Uni hosting St John's OC in Bundoora. These two sides have met twice throughout the season with a 1-1 record after La Trobe's dominant 89-point win in Round 7 followed by the JOC's four-goal victory in Round 11. The Trobers have lost two on the trot while the JOC's have put up two impressive performances against the Wicks and Bloods either side of defeating the Trobers in Round 11. Aaron Thornton has been a force up forward for St John's with 37 goals, while Samuel Benetti-Baker has been named in the best six times for La Trobe. It's a flip of the coin this one, with the Uni relying heavily on players returning to Menzies, Glenn or, to a much lesser degree, Chisholm.

With three wins, it's unlikely Eley Park Sharks will feature in finals this year but if the past 18 months has taught us anything, you certainly never say never. Two games outside the four, the Sharks can't afford a slip up and will fancy their chances against the seventh-placed Swinburne Uni this weekend. The Sharks have secured two strong wins against the Razorbacks so far this season, with a 63-point win in Round 5 followed by a much-tighter 16-point affair three games ago. Despite his team sitting sixth for points scored, Jesiah McGarvie has once again proved a handful for defenders with 26 goals for the Sharks alongside Jaydn Pridmore who has been named in the best in eight of his 10 games. Swinburne should be considered unlucky over the past three games with losses by 16, 30 and 1 – all somewhat winnable. David Rinaldo has been a standout in his eight games with 6 TIB.

In the final game, we have the ladder leaders taking on the cellar-dwellers when Elsternwick travel to Box Hill North. The Wicks have been on top of the ladder since Round 2 and haven't looked back if not for the one loss to the Bloods along the way. They've since won three in a row, including a 153-point thumping of the Demons in Round 11. They've had four players kick 20+ goals so far this season, with Nick Lowrie leading all comers on 49. The Demons claimed their second win of the season before we broke for the bye, defeating Swinburne by one point. Peter Cassidy-Marsh had one hand on the club B&F after being named in the best seven times from his 10 games.

MILESTONES

VAFAs congratulates the following players on reaching these incredible milestones. Well done!

Stephan Scorse (North Brunswick)

The VAFAs congratulates North Brunswick's Stephan Scorse on reaching 50 games. A no nonsense footballer, his attack on the ball is second to none. His skills have continued to develop as he plays more games for the Green & Gold.

Robert Fawcett (La Trobe University)

The VAFAs congratulates La Trobe's Robert Fawcett on reaching 50 games in Round 12. "Taps" first joined the Trobers in 2015 playing with the Under 19's in the Colts Division. A regular member of the Reserves until 2017, Rob returned to La Trobe this season and made his Senior debut in Round 5. A quiet and consistent trainer who always prepares well, he has developed into a reliable defender. Well done "Taps" on representing the Club for 50 games to date!

Andrew Robilliard (Glen Eira Gryphons)

The VAFAs congratulates Glen Eira's Andrew Robilliard on playing 250 games. The boy from a Cobden dairy farm played a number of senior games in his early years before becoming a key component of the Reserves midfield in more recent seasons. A-Rob stepped into the joint playing Coach role of our Thirds term for 2021 and has dominated at that level. A genuine star club man, we look forward to having A-Rob around our club for many years to come.

Finals fever hits VAFA Women's

Semi Final 1 – Marcellin vs SKOB Saints

We hit the restart button on VAFA footy and what a weekend to do so, with a spot in the VAFA William Buck Premier Women's Grand Final up for grabs, when the undefeated Marcellin take on SKOB Saints at Marcellin College. Interruptions to the last 6 weeks of footy did not affect the form line of either team, as the closest anyone has come to the Eagles in their last 4 matches was a very comfortable 28 points, whilst the Saints recorded a dominant 68-point win last time they played. The scoring power of both teams has been on display all year and the competition's two leading goal kickers, Marcellin's Cecilia Baldassarre (22 goals) and St Kevin's Sarah Cameron (19 goals) will go head-to-head this weekend. With finals footy played at a higher intensity that often results in low-scoring affairs, it may just be which star forward can make the most of their limited opportunities. The last time these two teams took the same field was all the way back in Round 2. In a seesawing affair, Marcellin overcame a halftime deficit to record a thrilling 3-point win. These two teams have been a class above all season, and if their Round 2 matchup is anything to go by, we are in for a cracking game of VAFA Women's footy.

Semi Final 2 – Caulfield Grammarians vs West Brunswick

Caulfield Grammarians and West Brunswick will fight it out to keep their seasons alive when they do battle at Glen Huntly Oval. The Fields will take in confidence from their two outings against the Magpies during the season, winning both matches comfortably. Laura Holdsworth (14 goals) has been a force up forward for West Brunswick all season, and Amy Dunn's consistency for Caulfield has also been impressive, with 12 goals next to her name from just 8 games. Caulfield boast a star-studded midfield, so it will be important for the Magpies to not let the Fields dictate terms from the middle. If the Magpies can break even in the midfield, they will look to lock it in their forward line and put pressure on the back six of Caulfield. However, the Fields will back their midfield, led by Irena Malliaras, to win the contest in tight and get the ball into space to add some speed on the game. West Brunswick have put together an impressive second half of the season, but expect the class of Caulfield, with the likes of Cheree Peters and Malliaras, to prove the difference in this game.
