North in Third Successive Grand Final Powerfull Finish Too Much for "DE LA" Old Scotch Back in "A" Section - At Last!

By GEORGE McTAGGART

North Old Boys finished much too strongly for De La Salle in last Saturday's Second Semi-final, and the win puts them into their third successive Grand Final.

They were runners-up to St. Bernard's in 1975 and beat that side for the premiership last season.

Old Scotch beat Reservoir Old Boys in the B Section Second Semi-final and have at long last won their way back into the top section, after a long spell in B Section.

Parkside, Old Brighton, West Brunswick and Bulleen-Templestowe who won the Finals in their respective sections, gained promotion to a higher grade in 1978, and Geelong, winners of the Junior Section 2 Final, will play in Section 1 next season.

Neither De La Salle nor North took advantage of the fairly strong breeze in the first half, and at the interval the difference was only two points, in favour of De La Salle.

North, who held their opponents well in the first quarter, looked to be gradually gaining the upper hand late in the second term when they edged away to a 10-point lead, but "De La" hit back with 2 quick goals just before half-time to take the lead again.

But the third quarter belonged to North. They were able to open up the game, which had been rather scambly in the first half, and the standard of play improved.

North started the last term a point in front, but a quick goal by De La Salle gave them the lead again.

Then North unwound a strong finishing burst and rattled on 6 goals to score a decisive 35-point win.

Old Scotch gained an early lead over Reservoir Old Boys, and led throughout, but they tired in the last quarter as Reservoir made a determined bid for victory.

Scotch's "score on the board" stood them in good stead, however, and they held on to win by 27 points.

Parkside made better use of their opportunities on the forward line to beat AJAX by 15 points — each side having the same number of scoring shots.

So Parkside gain promotion after finishing in fourth position on the ladder, and there only on percentage.

Another "double chance" side in St. Kevin's also failed to gain promotion, when they crashed badly against Old Brighton, who won by nearly 10 goals.

West Brunswick, who kicked themselves out of it in the Second Semi-final, made the most of their second chance by scoring a 15-point win over North Brunswick.

Bulleen-Templestowe, overwhelmed by St. Bede's in the Semi-final, qualified for another "crack" at them with a 5-goal win over Thornbury.

Top Junior side, Ivanhoe, who lost only one home-and-home match, but went down by a goal to St. Bernard's in the Semi-final, beat North Old Boys by a similar margin in the Final.

But they nearly kicked themselves out of the running, scoring 1-8 in the first quarter, and finishing with 9-21. North were also off the target, with 9-15.

Geelong' straighter kicking gave them a 7-point win over De La Salle (14-7 to 12-12).

In the Reserves, University Blacks beat De La Salle by 4 points, the same margin by which St. Bede's beat Commonwealth Bank. Beverley Hills beat West Brunswick by 10 points, but Ivanhoe, Hampton Rovers and Old Brighton won their matches by comfortable margins.

PREVIEWING TODAY'S GAMES

A SECTION

Ever-green, LES. MURRAY may still be the difference between a North double flag and perhaps a St. Bernard's or De La revival. And the form of North last Saturday certainly was indicative to its all-round consistency throughout the year.

But while North would appear the hottest "A" Section favourite for years, the flag still has to be won and not without some spirited "Irish" resistance.

The accuracy of the St. Bernard's forward line paved the way for that side's dedicated return to premiership calculations a fortnight ago.

With many big names injured the responsibility has been arrested by an enthusiastic bunch of youngsters and this development must not be underrated.

Henry Nadzielski and Mick Powell, are most promising forwards and their lack of experience is offset by their ability, and they are enthused by the tremendous personal effect skipper Greg Wade has on his side together with co-state player Peter Rackham.

Last year, St. Bernard's beat De La Salle, by a marginal number of points in the dying stages of a most exciting Preliminary Final. Can history repeat itself?

Barry Lyons, De La Salle's stalwart skipper, is perhaps "under a cloud" and this to my mind becomes a paramount consideration in assessing that team's immediate future.

Rover Terry Crothers is certainly a key and if St. Bernard's let him "off the hook" he could tear their backline apart.

Peter McDonnell is in dashing form in the De La Salle defence and he will provide plenty of resistance to any St. Bernard's forward manoeuvres.

Mick Bourke, Richie Halasa and Brian Bourke are tried performers and they comprise part of the well blended all-round evenness of this De La Salle line-up.

Its interesting to note the years performances of both teams — De La Salle 14 wins from 19 starts and St. Bernard's have 13 from the same number of starts. Can St. Bernard's level the score? I'll take St. Bernard's because of Mitchell's proven finals record.

SELECTION — St. Bernard's — JIM FIDGE.

B SECTION

Well done Scotch, you've bought your ticket to 'A' Section and can now sit back and watch with interest, Ivanhoe and Reservoir Old Boys wage a war of attrition for the right to order a flag, and accompany you into the silk department.

Despite three losses this season to Old Scotch, I earnestly believe that Reservoir are in this preliminary final with a big chance. They have split the results so far with Ivanhoe and both games have resulted in tight finishes.

Neither side can claim an advantage on each other in the high marking, long kicking game, but they both are well endowed with mobility and slick disposal.

Every square inch of the big Collingwood ground will be used by Charlie Stredwick and Chris Stewart of Ivanhoe and the equally pacy and talented Ray Shepherd and Jim Horne of Reservoir.

Both teams are directed by very shrewd coaches. It is here I see an advantage for Reservoir's Barry Evans who does not have the added problem of picking up the odd kick, a task which will keep Ivanhoe's Bill McWhinnie quite busy, thank you.

It will be a top game, worth going any distance to see. Whilst the result is almost certain to be a cliff hanger, I can see Reservoir coming home the winners, and extending the season by one more week.

SELECTION — Reservoir Old Boys — ALF KEAM.

C SECTION

Well done Parkside you've made the Grand Final and 'B' Grade — maybe you've done it the hard way, and, with your tails up you could worry Fawkner.

Both teams last week had equal scoring shots, however Parkside's straighter kicking put AJAX out of business. Bad luck AJAX, you worked hard throughout the year.

I know there is no consolation prize, however my congratulations on what I would term "a good year".

Keep your players together and I'm sure you will be there again in 1978.

Fawkner, a good finals side, will need to produce all their experience and know-how today — Parkside have plenty of Finals up their sleeve but often fail to clinch the big one. Another flag would be well deserved, but it's hard to see them tossing Fawkner, the season's top team. Considering all aspects I'll go for Fawkner — by a whisker.

My Selection — Fawkner — ALEX. JOHN-SON.

D SECTION

Congratulations Alphington and Old Brighton in making the Grand Final this week and their promotion to "C" Section in 1978.

Grand finalists are always difficult to select but I have the feeling that Alphington may have the edge on Old Brighton. Whatever the result I am sure it will be a hard fought out match. Best of luck to both sides.

Selection — Alphington — KEITH FIND-LAY.

E SECTION

Not a great deal in last week's game, West v North, with West gaining promotion to D Section.

I have had a number of experiences with my mob having to saddle up for a second lash at winning the flag and sadly, never quite making it.

I've no doubt that West will give it all they have but Heatherton should have all factors summed up.

They had the opportunity of assessing the pros and cons last week and should win a close game.

SELECTION: Heatherton — SYD WHIT-FIELD.

JUNIOR SECTION I

A great clash is expected today from the two sides, Ivanhoe and St. Bernard's, who have emerged as the most powerful and talented in this section. Both sides are worthy contenders for the coveted premiership flag.

St. Bernard's suffered two thrashings at the hands of Ivanhoe during the season but were able to turn the tables on them two weeks ago in the second semi-final and squeezed in by one goal.

It was a fine effort, full of determination and courage and some fine teamwork. Ivanhoe have earned themselves great respect for possessing the same points but with the greater pressure that is exerted on all players during finals games they have not responded as well as they should have.

Last week Ivanhoe's forward line, which amassed an amazing total during the season, was way off target with only 9 goals from 30 scoring shots.

If the St. Bernard's backmen can exert the same intense pressure as they did at their last meeting and which North Old Boys did last week they could just about win this one too.

However, one of Ivanhoe's stronger points is their backmen who always give their opponents a torrid time. This will be a great clash and I must stick to the most consistent side throughout the season and select Ivanhoe to win.

SELECTION — Ivanhoe — CLIFF BAS-TOW.

F SECTION

The season's two strongest sides receive recognition today when they meet in the Grand Final.

Bulleen Templestowe this season have emerged from the F Section wilderness where they have won only eight matches during their first two seasons in senior football. They are a young club on the rise in the V.A.F.A.

St. Bede's who joined the V.A.F.A. in 1972 have earned promotion back to E Section from whence they were relegated in 1975.

St. Bede's advertising indicates they view this season as the start of their rise to A Section. They must realize this climb is cluttered by forty clubs all of whom have the same goal. Good luck to St. Bede's however for their public optimism.

In the three encounters this season St. Bede's have emerged with the better record. At home on May 14 the Combine won by ten points despite inaccurate kicking. At Boda Park on July 16 St. Bede's recorded a 46-point victory.

Two weeks ago they had 77 points to spare over the Combine as the final siren sounded in the Second Semi-final.

Patterns which emerge from these games for today's deliberations, include the rock dominance of Mick Roberts for St. Bede's. On each previous occasion the big fellow has ranked in their best.

Combine coach Barry Murphy will have to position himself to shark knock outs to try to nullify Roberts play. All Bulleen-Templestowe supporters hope Barry will repeat last week's great game.

My spies tell me St. Bede's defence was very tight in the Semi Final. Their half back line acted as a spring board for their attacking moves.

The Combine forwards are not at their best when pressured into quick disposal. Walker has proven his ability to goal against St. Bede's. However today I expect his opportunities to be limited. Tenace and Craig Sheridan who have been prominent Combine forwards have not been able to score heavily against St. Bede's on earlier occasions.

On the other hand St. Bede's forwards led by Allen, Collins, and Turner have consistently goalled against the Combine defenders.

Peter Fogarty, on a wing, has proven a problem during the season and today he can help St. Bede's have a winning centre line.

My research has prompted me to select St. Bede's who seem to have had the measure of Bulleen-Templestowe during the season. I must be truthful; had I stuck a pin into my Amateur Footballer I would have picked the Combine! Will logic or luck triumph?

Selection: St. Bede's — NORM NUGENT.

JUNIOR SECTION 2

Congratulations to Hampton Rovers and Geelong on their promotion and also to all other clubs who earned promotion to a higher Section. While the break "up North" was most enjoyable and relaxing, it is certainly great to be back home. The frustrating part of the holiday was that you cannot get the main V.A.F.A. results until Monday lunchtime, when the Melbourne daily papers arrive.

Today's game should be a great football spectacle, particularly as Geelong are improving at the right end of the season — a contrast to De La Salle, who started well but faded away.

Hampton lost only two games during the season, to Reservoir and De La, sides that have been beaten by Geelong in their two final games to date.

Hampton have the name players, with James and Cole dominating on the forward line and being the leading goal kickers in this section. They are ably assisted by Thompson who won the section fairest and best with a magnificent total of 34 points, second highest total for the whole association.

While Hampton may have considered their seniors unlucky, the real bad luck story rests with Geelong seniors, who are to be relegated from B Section on percentage, after having won seven games, and actually being only three games out of the four.

No doubt coach Ken Larsen would feel happier if he had interstate representative Stephen Wells, who I am told is still a junior, in the line-up.

The shrewdness of Ken Larsen versus the cunning of Ron Wilson, coach of Hampton, poses as an interesting battle. Will this be a case of a champion team beating a team of champions?

SELECTION — Geelong to win (I hope!) — PETER NATHAN.

UMPIRE'S CORNER

Today we feature one of the hard-working but seldom praised officials of the VAFA, Peter Feil, who is the Secretary to the Umpire Committee.

Despite Peter's substantial responsibilities as the General Manager of the Southern Cross Hotel, he still somehow finds time to carry out his onerous duties as Secretary to the Umpire Committee.

Apart from attending regular meetings of this Committee, Peter co-ordinates the Saturday viewing activities of the members of the Committee and also has the enormous task of preparing the umpire's appointments.

It would be fair to say that the umpires have been more than satisfied with the manner in which the appointments have been made this year and for this Peter is to be congratulated. This is especially so having regard to the difficulties that the Association has had in obtaining enough umpires virtually throughout the whole season.

Peter was an ideal choice for the position as Umpire Committee Secretary as he umpired for eleven years in the VAFA, umpiring a number of finals and up to B grade matches in home and home games.

He has been a magnificent member of the VAFA Umpire's Association and was rewarded for this contribution with life-membership in 1976.

Peter first came to prominence when he accepted the position of Social Secretary of the Umpire's Association in 1973. He was then elected as Vice-President the following year and automatically acceded to the Presidency in 1975.

He was an excellent President in a difficult year and his marvellous sense of humour and of responsibility are qualities for which he is universally respected by clubs, officials and all umpires.

Peter is particularly well-known for his performances as master of ceremonies at the Umpires' Association Annual Dinners and anyone who has the pleasure of attending such functions will attest to his rapier-like wit and to his extraordinary musical talents.

Peter's greatest asset is his ability to dedicate himself absolutely to any job that he takes on. A recent incident exemplifies this.

In the last home-and-home round Trevor Rowe severely injured his ankle 10 minutes into the first quarter of the Ormond v Coburg game. There were no emergency umpires left and it appeared that the game would be drawn and the points shared. When Peter heard of this he offered to umpire the game and in fact did so. From all reports he acquitted himself admirably and his efforts certainly appreciated by the players and officials of both clubs.

The umpires certainly hope that people of the calibre of Peter Feil are involved in the administration of the VAFA for many years to come, as the Association will surely be the better for it.

A TON TO THE 'HUN'

Bill Schwarzenberg today plays his 100th game for St. Bernard's. Bill would have reached this goal some time ago but for many injuries, a few retirements and a couple of indiscretions. He has played in many positions on the back and forward lines and in the ruck and always gives his utmost for St. Bernard's especially in the 'A' Reserves Premiership in 1975. Keep up the good work Bill. All at St. Bernard's wish you well.

TRIBUNAL

ST. BERNARD'S MAN TAKES BEST AND FAIREST

St. Bernard's centreman, Peter Aughton, narrowly won this season's Best and Fairest award, on a countback from Coburg winger, Harold Royal.

Each polled 19 points, but Peter's 4 firsts gave him the award, as his rival received only 3 firsts.

Tony Lester (Caulfield Gramm.) winner of B Section in 1976 was a point away in third place, polling 5 first votes.

The award in B Section went to Reservoir Old Boys rover Ray Shepherd (26 points) who scored by 9 points from his ruckman club mate, Mike Bates, second on a countback from Geelong's Steven Wells.

Ian Rice (Collegians), Ian Davis (Geelong) and John Anderson (Old Scotch), were next at one-point intervals behind this pair.

Alan Flavel (Uni. High) won the C Section award for the second successive year. He received votes in 12 matches — 4 firsts, 4 seconds and 4 thirds.

Uni. High seem to have a mortgage on the C Section trophy — Max Johnston won it in 1975.

Pat O'Dwyer, of Assumption, had an easy win in D Section, with votes in 13 matches, but G. Myers (Commonwealth Bank), the F Section winner, polled votes in 14 matches, including 10 firsts for a total of 37 points.

Junior Section 2 winner, M. Thompson (Hampton Rovers) also received 10 first votes and a total of 34 points.

LOOKING BACK

by NOEL RUNDLE

5 YEARS AGO — 1972

Parade's shocking inaccuracy, 3.14 to half time against Caulfield Grammarians 6.7 almost cost them the game which really went their way when they kicked four goals in as many minutes in the third term to go on to an easy victory.

A great performance by Parade who had won the 'B' Section premiership in 1971 and would now meet 1971 'A' Section premiers, Ormond in the grand final.

In 'B' Section University Blacks contributed their defeat with poor shooting 11.22 while Ivanhoe kicked 18.10 to earn the right to meet Geelong in the 'B' Section grand final.

Ireland, Hughes, Dickson (Ivanhoe) and Balter, MacCallum, A. Costello (Blacks) were best.

Reservoir shocked Assumption with 10.4 to 1.1 in second quarter to go on and win the 'C' Section premiership and retain their unbeaten record.

Devlin, Bates, R. Shepherd (Res.) and Lewis, Duro, Phillips (Assump.) were best. Parkside with a 1-point win over Old Brighton gained the 'D' Section premiership. Ridd, Sammut, Graham Dryden (P'side) and Watkins, Mullett, Templeton (Old Brighton) were best.

10 YEARS AGO — 1967

Caulfield Gramm. (14.12) defeated Melbourne High (12.14) to enter the Grand Final against Old Paradians. Best for Caul. Gramm. were Ward, P. Hore, Pyman, Baker, Vorrath, Williams and for M.H.S. Fairbank, Neilson, Turnbull, Needham, Harley, Gilbert. North Old Boys (11.7) kicked 6.4 to 0.1 in the last quarter against Ormond (7.10) to play University Blues in the B Section

Grand Final and enter 'A' Section in 1968. Grand final results in other sections were as follows:—

'C' Section: Alphington 9.18 (best Boyle, Harris, Scott) d Monash Univ. 6.17 (Windust, McMaster, Rogers).

'D' Section: St. Pat's O.C. 12.7 (best — Sullivan, Ball, Fry) d Hampton Rovers 9.13 (best — Stroud, Mackenzie, Rorey).

'E' Section: Assumption O.C. 14.18 (best — Heath, O'Keefe, Beaumont) d Tooronga-Malvern 8.9 (best — Graham, Bean, Anderson).

Congratulations were due to North Old Boys — they had gone from 'E' Section to 'A' Section in a minimum time, progressing one section each year.

25 YEARS AGO — 1952

Univ. Blues 16.9 easily beat Commonwealth Bank 11.9 and won the right to meet Ormond (who they defeated in second semi) in the Grand Final. The finals system in use gave the team which finished on top by a clear game the right to challenge.

M.H.S.O.B. repeated its Final defeat of Ivanhoe and won a close game, 6.11 to 5.7 to take the 'B' Section premiership.

Elsternwick 9.9 (63) defeated the inaccurate East Malvern 7.13 (55) to win the 'C' Section Final.

Old Scotch, 7 goals down at three-quarter time, came home with the wind at Brighton Beach Oval and kicked 8.4 in the last quarter to one point and defeated Ormond by 9 points to take the Junior premiership.

ELIGIBILITY OF PLAYERS FOR RESERVE AND JUNIOR SECTION FINALS

The attention of clubs is drawn to the restrictions which apply concerning players eligible to take part in Final matches in the Reserve and Junior Sections.

The Rule relating to eligibility of players in Reserve Section Finals reads:—

A player who has been a member of a senior team of any club in nine or more matches during the home-and-home matches in any season shall not be eligible for inclusion in the reserve team of a club taking part in a final match in the same season unless both the senior and reserve teams are participating in a final match on the same day.

Provided that no player shall be eligible for inclusion in a reserve team taking part in a final match in any season unless such player has been a member of such reserve team in at least

TWO home-and-home matches during the said season.

JUNIORS

A player who has been a member of a senior or reserve team in more than five matches during any season shall be ineligible for inclusion in a junior team taking part in a semi-final, final or grand-final match in the SAME SEASON UNLESS he has been a member of the junior team for more than five matches in the same season.

In the event of a draw in the second round of either the Reserve Section or the Junior Section, all players eligible to play on the day of the draw shall be eligible to play in the re-match, notwithstanding the Seniors not playing on that day unless such player played in the Seniors on the day of the drawn game.
