Editorial

MATCH - WINNING QUARTERS — ACCURACY THE KEY EDITOR'S ERROR AMENDED

by JAN HOWARD

First of all, my apologies are extended to Collegians. Last week's editorial named Old Melburnians as the only undefeated team in B Section. This is of course incorrect. A win, a bye and a win to Collegians means that they too are undefeated — they are in fact heading B Section at the moment. To the President and Members of Collegians please accept my apologies.

University Blues seem to have recovered some of their equilibrium at the expense of North Old Boys. North led at the first change but a ten goals to one second term from the Blues saw them eight goals up at half time. North were not able to get back into the match thereafter and the Blues went on to a fifty-two point victory.

Old Scotch confirmed that they are a force to be reckoned with this season after their resounding ninety-six point win over Ivanhoe. The chance for Ivanhoe to re-establish itself as a strong contender comes today when they confront the Blues at Warringal Park.

University Blacks had a good win over St. Bernard's to kick them off for the season, and are now riding in sixth position. Their clash today with Old Scotch will give all a good opportunity to see how good they are. If they can win, then they cannot be discounted as a potential threat.

De La Salle continued their winning run with an eight goal victory over the hapless Marcellin. After leading by four points at three-quarter time Marcellin were overrun in the final term — managing only one goal to De La's ten. It is to be hoped that Marcellin have not forgotten how to win in a tight struggle.

The game between Ormond and Caulfield Grammarians saw Ormond emerge victorious — thus recording their first win. Only an eleven goal final quarter saved them however. My spies tell me that Ormond were a bit "Scratchy" and that although they won well they were not convincing. It appears that more work still is required for them to consolidate on this performance.

In B Section (as mentioned earlier) Collegians and Old Melburnians are still undefeated. Today's clash should be worth watching. Both recorded convincing victories last week over Old Trinity and Coburg. Form predicts a close tussle today, and perhaps the home-side advantage may be the deciding factor. At present, "location" seems to be the only difference between the two teams.

Old Paradians notched up win number two at the expense of Fawkner — again the final quarter was decisive with only a goal separating the teams at the beginning of this term.

Much to the delight of our B Section tipster Parkside recorded a healthy win over Monash Blues and lifted themselves into third position. Perhaps the bye for them is ill-timed but it is good to see that they have organized a game against Bulleen United — both sides must benefit more from a proper game than from an intra-club "scratch match".

Old Brighton and St. Kilda C.B.C.O.C. are still riding on the crest of a wave in C Section, after wins over Geelong and Hampton Rovers. Though St. Kilda just made it. How Hampton Rovers must be regretting their solitary behind (kicked in the third quarter). Fourteen goals one behind is remarkable kicking — but fifteen goals straight would have seen them tie.

A.J.A.X. led Kew comfortably all day to record their second win, as did Alphington (after a slow beginning) over Old Carey. However, Old Ivanhoe kicked seven goals in the last quarter to come from 3 points down to win well over Old Xaverians.

Power House should have put in a solid week of kicking practice after their defeat at the hands of Old Camberwell. They certainly had the chance to win — kicking two goals six behinds to Old Camberwell's four — one in the last quarter and having 33 scoring shots to 24 over the game. Accuracy certainly pays dividends.

West Brunswick still remain unconquered after a two goal win over M.H.S.O.B. Today they have the opportunity of avenging last year's Grand Final defeat when they welcome Heatherton to Ransford Oval. Heatherton scored convincingly over St. Kevin's last week, though, and will be keen to make it two in a row.

Elsternwick's "resounding" win over Country Colleges saw them rise from tenth to sixth position. More goal-kicking practice required at Colleges!

State Bank moved into fourth position with a good win over U.H.S.O.B. who are yet to gain points.

The E Section match of the day — North Brunswick and Bulleen-Templestowe — must have been a beauty, with Bulleen-Templestowe emerging victorious by the narrowest of margins. — Again accuracy won the day.

Other winners were St. Bede's (still undefeated); A.N.Z. Bank; Beverley Hills and Old Geelong — all of whom scored comfortably.

Unfortunate events discovered during last week, will make North Brunswick more determined than ever to win today over Beverley Hills. We admire the Club's honesty and wish them luck in future weeks.

Three undefeated teams remain in F Section: Thornbury, Commonwealth Bank and Therry C.C.O.B. Each scored well last week, together with Bulleen United. The bye enabled Footscray I.T. to open its account — may be they can go on from here now.

In Junior One North Old Boys, University Blues and Old Scotch are undefeated (Scotch must have received a fright from Ivanhoe); but Ormond and St. Bernard's are pressing these three closely.

Perhaps the non-round of the season was experienced by Junior 2: a forfeiture and an abandoned game on the same day. The completed games saw solid wins to Old Haileyburians, West Brunswick and De La Salle.

In closing — a reminder to all Clubs — check that your players are correctly registered before the game. Round One saw 11 unregistered players — this "oversight" cost two sides vital match points and all sides concerned lose percentage points. Games are too hard to win just to be given away through carelessness. Registration Secretary, Cliff Bastow, appreciates prior checks — they save him time in the long run, as he does not spend time searching for names that are not there.

PREVIEWING TODAY'S GAMES

A SECTION

Four out of five last week was a bit of an improvement, but once again St. Bernard's proved to sort themselves out, but there are still a number of unanswered questions. The biggest question right now is just how good are Old Scotch? A well respected Amateur football personality told me last Saturday that whoever beats Scotch will win the flag. However I think I'll wait a few more weeks before I jump on the fast growing bandwagon. The other big question mark lies over Uni. Blues who are undefeated but are still to meet their main opposition.

At the other end of the list there are a few unfamiliar names. Who would have predicted that three of last year's finalists North, St. Bernard's and Ormond would have won only two games between them.

This week's games are a tipsters nightmare. Match of the day I suppose, is at Elsternwick Park where Uni. Blacks will attempt to bring Old Scotch's winning run to an end. I've said all year that Blacks were a better side than they had been showing and last week they proved me right with a solid win at St. Bernard's. Costello and Booth have returned after injuries and with Al Fisher controlling the centre they will give Scotch their biggest test thus far. Scotch on the other hand can't be faulted. Marx is picking up a million kicks in the centre, Sherwen and Mason are playing well on the forward line while Bates and Tallent are doing a fine job on the ball. This should be a great game of football as both sides are strong in the air and like the open spaces of Elsternwick Park. Blacks will stay with Scotch for most of the game, but lack of fitness will tell in the end.

De La Salle and St. Bernard's meet in a replay of last year's Preliminary Final. De La are cruising along nicely without setting the world on fire. They struggled to get on top of Marcellin in the first half last week, but moved into top gear after half time and won easily. St. Bernard's will be desperate to add to their meagre tally of one win. They folded disappointingly last week and I can't see them improving enough to beat De La.

Uni. Blues travel to Warringal Park to meet Ivanhoe without star recruit Mike Yeo. Blues will miss his drive, but if they are to be a top side they can't rely on one or two players. They played one quarter of brilliant football last week when they slammed on ten goals in the second term against North, but played indifferently for the rest of the game. They will need to play four quarters to beat the young Ivanhoe side. Ivanhoe had a disappointing day last Saturday when they were crushed by Scotch, but it would appear to be no disgrace to be beaten by Scotch at the moment. Blues will win if they haven't let their recent successes go to their head.

North Old Boys play Ormond at home and both sides will be desperate for a win to keep themselves within striking distance of the leaders. I have seen them both over the past two weeks and of the two Ormond impressed me more. They are getting more value from their big name players than North. I didn't realise just how far North had slipped till I saw them last week. Admittedly they had ten players missing from their Grand Final side and most of them will be back before too long. But players such as Maguire and Hall are not performing at all and the whole side is playing without confidence. Ormond will win a desperate struggle.

Caulfield and Marcellin are also desperately trying to get off the bottom. The next two games are make-or-break ones for Caulfield and if they lose to Marcellin and North they can say goodbye to A Grade. Both teams stayed with their opponents for a half last week and then faded. The fact that Caulfield are a 5-goal better side at home has swayed me to their camp, but it will be close.

So its without much confidence that I pick Old Scotch, De La Salle, Uni. Blues, Ormond and Caulfield. — PETER BRUKNER.

B SECTION

Today's big clash will be Old Melburnians against Collegians at the Corder Oval, Fawkner Park. OM's have done everything asked of them so far, and their club must feel very confident. Collegians are just the team to apply enough pressure to stay with the leaders so this will be a top game to see. I'll stay with the big fellows and go for Old Melburnians in a close one.

Fawkner are at home to Coburg today. Both sides although beaten last week showed enough good form to suggest they have turned the corner. Fawkner at top strength are a great side and although they still have a few out I think they can put enough of their game together to notch up their first win in "B" Grade.

Old Trinity take on Old Haileybury in what should be a very even game. This one is a real toss up. Old Haileybury seemed a little under done when I saw them two weeks ago, and last week's rest would have done nothing to improve the situation, so I will go for the home side. Old Trinity to win.

Monash Blues play host to Old Paradians this afternoon. I like the way Old Paradians are moving along this season. They have been very consistent and are going along nicely so I pick them to run out winners over the Blues. Monash only put in the one really good quarter last week, which suggests they need a few more hard runs before they will reach their peak.

Parkside have the bye and will have a work out against Bulleen United who have the same situation in "F" Grade.

I suggest all "B" Grade sides who have a bye consider solving the problem in the same way. This enables two Amateur sides to benefit each Saturday.

SELECTIONS: Old Melburnians, Fawkner, Old Trinity, Old Paradians — BRIAN LAUDER.

Trumps last week as I deserted my own club and slammed home five winners. Sorry "Nugget", but it's a long season.

Last week I was impressed with the "big man" strength of Old Brighton, particularly David Warnock and Gedye. Also speedy rover Jones was a very busy player.

Today, I think the all-round strength of Old Brighton will carry it through against Hampton Rovers, but with the reservation that it perhaps conditions itself for a solid four quarters.

Old Ivanhoe makes its first visit to Queens Park to do battle with home team Geelong. Ivanhoe have been more impressive, to date, than Geelong but I expect today's clash between these teams to be the tightest of the round.

Geelong trailed by 9 goals last week at quarter time but came home with a whirlwind last quarter that all but captured that elusive first win.

If Geelong can play as well for the full four quarters it will win; but much will depend on the under-rated Greg Nielsen, the steady David Silver and active forward Alan Jamieson. I select Geelong — with a little "tongue-in-cheek".

A.J.A.X. may not be able to win "notices of motion" at administration level (although not through any lack of endeavour by their energetic David Burston) but the club has certainly emerged as a premiership front-runner.

"Reg" Elliott will be again disappointed with me as I desert Old Carey — but AJAX will prove too strong on the day.

My old mates at Old "Xavs" — I shed a tear because what could be better for Amaraur football than a Geelong-Old "Xavs" Grand Final?

This is a challenge for any tipster — two great clubs, Kew and Old Xaverians, both perhaps basking a little uncomfortably in past glories.

Kew, because the game is at Kew, steal my guess for today.

Alphington and St. Kilda Old Collegians present a poser — both undefeated and brimming with confidence. I haven't seen Alphington but their performances on paper are impressive to date. St. Kilda I have seen, but on that day its opposition was sadly out of touch.

I lean towards St. Kilda — if only because it has more experience to blend with its winning form.

SELECTIONS: Old Brighton, Geelong, Kew, AJAX, St. Kilda C.B.C.O.C. — JIM FIDGE.

D SECTION

Congratulations to the Five Home Clubs for promptly phoning their scores last week. How about a repeat effort today by the other five sides? It is certainly a big assistance to all concerned with section publicity.

Today State Bank await Elsternwick who will have gathered vitality from last Saturday's big win. On Oval 4, aided by local knowledge and the desire to consolidate their top four position State Bank should take the points.

Country Colleges Blotted their copy books last Saturday. The editor's lot is not a happy one (indeed! — ed) nor is that of this tipster. Melbourne High has the more impressive track records this season. The College forwards need to be taught "how" to kick goals. Melbourne High has only visited the Western Oval once before, in 1973, for a three point victory. It is my prediction the visitors today will maintain their Royal Park record.

Feathers will fly on the Ransford Oval as the two "Maggie" sides meet. West Brunswick have made the adjustment to 'D' Section and are heading the ladder. Heatherton saw victory last Saturday. However I predict West Brunswick to reverse the 1977 E Section Grand Final Result and defeat Heatherton today.

St. Kevin's now find themselves in the lower section of the ladder. Co-leaders Old Camberwell are their visitors today. Old Camberwell seem to have captured the consistency, so often missing from their play in seasons past. Their big men are potentially match winners. If I can rely on form Old Camberwell, will take the points.

Disappointing University High School Old Boys journey south to Power House on the Ross Gregory Oval twenty seasons ago this would have rated as the V.A.F.A. "Match of the Day". Today, however, Michael Perry will be anxious to adjust his "machine" which spluttered to a premature halt last Saturday. Stalwarts like Tom Cross and Rick Sykes will be all out to tune the side to a big victory which I predict will come their way.

PREDICTIONS: State Bank, Melbourne High School Old Boys, West Brunswick, Old Camberwell Grammarians, Power House — NORM NUGENT.

E SECTION

Had the punters stayed with me their results would be good. Nearly picked the field getting one second place, but only by the smallest possible margin of one point. No doubt North Brunswick were very disappointed and my prediction was right that it would be the match of the day.

North Brunswick to meet Beverley Hills this week will be another test of strength for North, but in spite of an away ground disadvantage I feel they will beat Beverley Hills.

Bulleen-Templestowe playing at home against A.N.Z. will have the upper hand, but it was pleasing to see the Bank boys get a convincing win on Saturday: their first for the season.

Brunswick is not strong enough yet to worry Old Mentonians at home, but their game is improving as the season progresses.

St. Bede's are riding high with a very successful string of victories and A.M.P. will not be strong enough to stop this run.

The two "drop-outs" from "D" Section meet for the first time in E Section. Old Geelong journey out to Latrobe and the improvement Old Geelong have shown should give them a victory. Old Geelong inaccuracy in front of goal could cost them a game if it does not improve, in three matches they have kicked 74 behinds.

SELECTIONS: North Brunswick — Bulleen-Templestowe, Old Mentonians, St. Bede's, Old Geelong — NUGGET STEPHENS.

F SECTION

Footscray I.T.'s to entertain Monash Whites and should derive a great deal of pleasure and four points out of the meeting. FITS haven't done as well as we might have expected so far this season but this should give them a bit of a lift.

Thornbury showed Clayton a trick or two at Cain Park last week and should be able to handle Commonwealth Bank, even on the Harry Troit Oval. The Berries have enough big blokes to play straight down the middle and so avoid the hard work of playing around the flanks of this ground which is as wide as it is long. I like Ron Smith's team discipline.

Clayton should have enough size and skill to account for Uni. Reds, especially at home. They didn't have enough of either against Thornbury last week and also lacked a bit of real desire among the smaller brigade. Stop watching the football replays: cut out the fancy tricks because they need real skill to carry out successfully.

Therry C.C.O.B.'s are still a side of good players rather than a good team and will have a real tussle with National Bank. Perhaps this is a case where one can count on the home ground advantage to carry the day. — Sounds better than saying I've tossed a coin.

Bulleen United has the bye today.

Winners: F.I.T.'s, Therry C.C.O.B., Thornbury, Clayton. — SYD WHITFIELD.

JUNIOR 1 SECTION

Highlights of the third round included an exciting four point win by Old Scotch over Ivanhoe and a narrow two goal victory to University Blues over previously undefeated Ormond.

North O.B. continued on their winning way whilst Monash Blues notched their first success for the season over the gallant Hampton Rovers.

St. Bernard's Collegians proved too strong for the luckless Geelong team in a one-sided game.

Round four features a clash between Ormond and St. Bernard's Old Collegians at Ormond. Both sides have lost one game and will be desperate not to fall further down the ladder.

I'll stick with St. Bernard's to defeat the home side in a close tussle.

Geelong faces a very strong and determined Old Scotch on their own "dung heap". Everyone (except Old Scotch) would like to see them get their first win but I fear Old Scotch will carry the day.

The high spot of the round is the match between Ivanhoe and North O.B. at Ivanhoe.

North O.B. have had a comfortable series of wins but Ivanhoe are a dogged and determined side particularly on their home ground.

I'm tipping North O.B. to maintain their winning form but I know that they will realize they've played a football game at the end of the four quarters.

UNI Blacks and Hampton Rovers will meet in a battle of attention as both teams must be keen to open their account.

I believe that Hampton Rovers will be successful on the day.

Two university teams in Monash and University Blues will meet at Monash University.

Uni. Blues greater strength and ability should enable them to get the four points.

SELECTIONS: St. Bernard's, Old Scotch, North O.B., Hampton Rovers, University Blues: — MICHAEL ARNOLD.

There is certainly no doubt in my mind that the words "forfeit" and "abandon" should be withdrawn from the English language. At the time of writing, I have not been acquainted with the facts, but the circumstances with Fawkner must be extraordinary as they had a preview of the hassels caused by forfeiture last season. So far as Kew is concerned, there is no doubt about it, they are my jinx side!

Coburg, under the control of maestro Stan Matthews play Therry C.C.O.B. Stan is a great guy of small stature coaching a relatively small side and there is no doubt that he can get his boys set to win many a game. There is a strong whisper, this week, that one unnamed "star" has spent all week practising kicking for goal. Therry won on forfeit last week and may be lacking match practice, so I am going for Coburg at home.

Caulfield Grammarians picked up four "abandoned" points last week and travel to Fawkner for what promises to be an interesting game. The home side have yet to open their account and, like Therry, will be short on match practice. Caulfield only had about half a game last week but, I fancy, this will be enough for them to win.

My "horror side" Kew meet West Brunswick, who won their first game last week. To date my record of not being able to catch Kew is 100% success. Today, Kew have the home ground advantage and will most certainly have all cylinders firing for a win after the abandoned game last week. Despite all of this, I am selecting West Brunswick.

M.H.S. Old Boys travel south to meet Old Haileyburians. My information is that the High boys are a much improved side compared to last year. On the other hand, new side Haileybury have some tall timber and, at home, should prove the better side.

The final game to be previewed for this Section takes place at Bundoora where Old Paradians meet De La Salle O.C. The visitors have a winner in full-forward Green and, as long as his team-mates get the ball up to him, De La will continue on their winning way.

SELECTIONS: Old Haileyburians, De La Salle O.C., West Brunswick, Caulfield Grammarians, Coburg — PETER NATHAN.

BALL BRIEFS

150 TO OLD BRIGHTON WINGMAN

Congratulations to Old Brighton's Owen Mills who today plays his 150th game; a great achievement and one 'Snow' has been keenly anticipating over the past few weeks.

Owen has had a distinguished career at Brighton and his dashes down the wing and his long left-foot kicking have driven Brighton sides into attack on innumerable occasions. A man with great natural ability, one can only ponder on just how good a player Owen may have been had his employment permitted him to practice as often as the Coach would have liked. Nevertheless, his legs show no sign of giving in and only a slight indication of slowing up and certainly all his skills remain. Congratulations, Owen, and best wishes for a memorable game.

OLD IVANHOE DOUBLE CENTURY

Godfrey "Goffa" Stevens played his 200th game for Old Ivanhoe Grammarians last Saturday against Old Xaverians. Goffa has played nearly all games in the firsts as top knock ruckman. Many opponents from F to C grade have found his manoeuvrability at centre bounces hard to counteract.

Goffa, senior vice-president of the Club, has been a great supporter and player for the Club and we look forward to many more years great support. Well done, Gof.

CENTURY TO OLD BRIGHTON VETERAN

All Old Brighton players and supporters congratulate Andrew Mullett who today plays his 100th game for the Club.

Over a long career that has been punctuated by untimely injuries and a three year spell in the bush, Andrew has regularly displayed considerable courage and football skills which have been an inspiration to his fellow players. His quickness of thought on the field has often embarrassed opponents and less gifted team mates, and it is a football tragedy that his 'dicky' legs no longer allow him the mobility to utilise all his skills. Off the field

Andrew has been a keen supporter and willing helper, as his years as press correspondent and registration secretary testify, and his enthusiasm for Brighton's success is infectious. Congratulations, Andrew, on what we know will be a successful 100th game.

Steve Maule has made a comeback with North Old Boys and played his 50th game in doing so. Steve was formerly a top-class half-back flanker whose courage, fine marking and big kicking made him an automatic Senior player. After a retirement, Steve has made a comeback and is playing very well in the Reserves. Many good games are expected. In fact Steve has played more than 50 amateur games. Two or three seasons ago he interrupted his retirement and spent a season with University Reds. Congratulations, Steve.

CLOSE OF AN ERA

A very important era ended when Reservoir Old Boys ended their association with Amateur football. It was evident to me, because of the environment and problems that existed with the running of the Club, that it was doomed. I blame myself because I left them, when, in fact, they needed me to give the required discipline.

I also blame the Club, for the many spectator incidents, as we are responsible for our supporters and their actions.

Also, I blame the V.A.F.A. for the many trivial incidents, that happen in all Amateur clubs, being exaggerated by officialdom. I know — I was part of them.

An exodus of players and officials to a Diamond Valley Football Club was "the last nail in the coffin" for Reservoir.

Let us remember them for their A Section and B Section Best and Fairest Winners; for their Interstate representatives and for the many finals that they played in.

We believe, at all levels, they tried to comply and what we want them to be remembered for is the many great games they played.

(Signed) Laurie Aghan.

LOOKING BACK

BY NOEL RUNDLE

FIVE YEARS AGO — 1973

Caulfield Grammarians (27.17) played brilliant football to annihilate Old Paradians (3.11) who turned in a miserable performance. Griffiths, McNicol and G. Fletcher (7 goals) were best for Caulfield while Lyons, Hart and McLaughlin struggled for Old Paradians.

One hundred games to John Skerry, Peter Hartigan, Ian Harris, all of Alphington, Rick Porton, Neil Malone (M.H.S.O.B.) and Ron Baker (Ivanhoe).

'A' Section captains were Greg Tootell (Caulfield Gram.), Graham Warfe (Coburg), Guy Wilson (Geelong), R. Booth (Monash), Shane Maguire (North Old Boys), Ross Duke (Old Paradians), Roger Wood (Ormond), Barry Amott (St. Bernard's O.C.) and B. Cottrill (Uni. Blues). Who captained Ivanhoe?

On the bottom in 'B' after 3 rounds, De La Salle (4 years later — an 'A' Section premier-ship — Ed.).

Kew ('B') kicked 7.2 to Uni. Blacks 3.4 in final quarter to run out winners and record their first victory.

TEN YEARS AGO — 1968

Ormond paid tribute to the passing of the grand old man of the club, Les Smith, foundation president in 1931.

Les Gordon, veteran Power House captain-coach, played his 300th game — the last 200 had been consecutive. Frank Snell (Kew) and John Booth (Old Paradians) were appointed coaches of teams to play Tasmania and South Australia respectively.

Melbourne High and Uni Blacks drew — 9.14 apiece. Another thriller was Kew v Old Scotch, with Kew 33 points ahead at the last change, and scoreless in the last quarter, hanging on to win by four points. Best were Paterson, Findlay, Goonan (Kew) and Mackay, R. Beaurepaire and P. Clark (Old Scotch).

TWENTY YEARS AGO — 1958

Members of the Permit Committee were Fred Coldrey (chairman), W. Gallacher, F. Hamilton, George McTaggart and K. Phillips.

Old Scotch recorded their first win over Old Melburnians for eight years with a convincing 21 point victory. Parry, Wilson and Law were best for Old Scotch with Pinkus, Turner and Morris serving Old Melburnians well.

Parkside maintained their unbeaten record in 'C' section when they fought back in second half to beat National Bank by 19 points. Best were Barry, Dite, Dempster (Parkside) and Dunn, Strickland, Wall (National Bank).

U.H.S.O.B. extended congratulations to coach George Murray — a proud father.

Amateur results were being broadcast on Saturday nights on 3UZ with scores repeated again on Sunday morning by John Russell (John is now 3UZ's leading racecaller — N.R.).

Who was the best player for Port Melbourne in their one point win over A.J.A.X.? (Will that 'A' Section coach stand up? — N.R.)

One hundred games to Allen Morris, Old Scotch vice-captain, club best and fairest in 1957, and runner-up in 1952 and 1953. Allen had been by his example an inspiration on and off the field.

'B' Section captains were Phil McLaughlin (Old Paradians), D. Hoffman (E. S. & A. Bank), Rex Jones, (Power House), Michael Roet (Uni. Blacks), Noel Stokes (Kew), NOEL RUNDLE (Old Geelong Gram.), Geoff Paul (M.H.S.O.B.) and Laurie Austee (Hampton Rovers). Who captained Commonwealth Bank and Geelong?

THIRTY YEARS AGO — 1948

Old Melburnians and Uni. Blacks, both undefeated, met in the match of the day.

The Dark Blues kicked a goal against the wind in the last quarter to win by 4 points — stars for the victors were Evan Macgregor and Ted Corder while for the Blacks Denis Corder and Kevin Dillon gave great service.

Hampton Rovers notes read: "Our star was Peter Lucas, whose debut was a gem" (Peter is secretary of Collingwood Football Club in 1978).

BALL BRIEFS

DOUBLE TO KEW CAPTAIN

A great achievement for one of Kew's great players in Terry Hayes who played his 200th game last week. Terry has been at Kew for 14 years and in that time has won the club best and fairest a record number of four times. At 5'10" and 11½ stone, Terry has played most of his football in the centre and later on in his career as a rover. Kew has never seen a more courageous man and his dedicated attitude is an inspiration to all who know him.

As well as being a member of Kew's 'B' Section premiership team in 1966, Terry has had the honor of being chosen in the Victorian amateur side in 1974 and being appointed captain of the club in 1977 and 1978.

Terry also does a lot of work off the field for the club. He can be considered the unofficial recruiting officer for the club and is presently a member of the committee. Everyone at Kew congratulate Terry and hope the club can show their appreciation by giving him a win today.

TWO AT U.H.S.

Congratulations to Chris Schulz who played his 100th game for U.H.S.O.B. against West Brunswick. Chris has been at the club since the successful Under 17 days (1970). He is a great asset to the club and has given great service.

Well done, Mal Poulter, notching 50 games for U.H.S.O.B. A dogged defender, Mal is renowned for his strong marking and rugged play.
