LAST WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS DE LA SALLE WIN BATTLE FOR SECOND Trinity Crash at Ormond — Out of Four

By GEORGE McTAGGART

De La Salle won the battle for second place when they finished too strongly for St. Bernard's in the game at Elsternwick Park last Saturday, and Old Trinity went out of the four when they failed against Ormond, who beat them by seven goals.

University Blues, with an overwhelming win over Monash Blues, moved into the four in place of Old Trinity.

University Blacks scored an exciting win over Coburg in an even game, scoring two goals in the last few minutes to finish eight points in front.

St. Kilda CBC won their fourth successive game, beating Collegians by nine points, and are now only one game outside the four.

Old Scotch trounced Old Paradians, who hold fourth place only on percentage from Geelong.

They're certainly consistent in C Section! The five home teams won a fortnight ago and last week the five visitors won — and it was the same five teams. To add to the coincidence — the same thing happened in the Reserves. Perhaps a computer could work out the odds against this rather remarkable occurrence.

These teams are the top five in both Senior and Reserve sections but are not in the same order in both sections — that would be just too much!!

Old Xaverians, after winning the first seven games, have lost the last two — they were thrashed by Assumption last week, after going down to AJAX the previous week, but they're still second on the list.

With half the season gone, and each team having met all its opponents, only six remain undefeated — Old Haileybury, AJAX, West Brunswick, North Old Boys Juniors, Thomastown Juniors and West Brunswick Reserves.

North Old Boys are leaders in A Section and Junior Section 1, Old Scotch are on top in B and B Reserves, St. Kevin's head E and E Reserves and West Brunswick Seniors and Reserves are at the top of their sections.

UMPIRE'S CORNER

By Kevin McKay

SOLID BUMPING — the rules of the game permit solid bumping, or pushing from the side.

Sometimes such bumps or pushes are very vigorous, but if they are correctly placed on the side or front of an opponent they are quite fair under the rules, and should not be penalised, providing the ball is within 5 metres.

There must be no jostling at the centre before the ball is bounced.

There must be no interference whilst the ball is about to be thrown in from the boundary.

Breaches such as deliberately kicking or forcing the ball out of bounds must be penalised EVERY TIME THEY OCCUR.

A mark taken on the goal line is deemed to be a mark.

The ball must be completely over the goal line in the case of a score, and also in the case of out of bounds.

If a juggled mark is started on the goal or behind line and completed over the line it is a behind.

A similar case on the boundary line the decision would be — out of bounds.

LAW 17 S states: "All breaches of the laws must be penalised whether the ball is dead or in play."

The effect of the law is over-riding — offences "must be penalised."

Here are some ways in which it can operate:

1. The field umpire about to bounce the ball to start play sees an offence — He does not bounce the ball, but, if it is to the advantage of the side, that is to say, the offence takes place within a team's forward area, he awards a free kick to the player offended against.

If a forward offends against a defender then he warns the offender and still bounces the ball in the centre.

2. A forward kicking for goal is felled after the ball has crossed the goal or behind lines and the "all clear" given.

The goal umpire signals the score; then the field umpire awards the player offended against, another kick.

If he scores again, that score also counts.

It is therefore possible to score two goals without the ball being bounced in the centre.

Most free kicks are easily defined and should not be overlooked unless the granting of the free kick penalises the side, then the call should be "play on."

It is emphasised that umpires should have a COMMONSENSE outlook on free kicks.

PREVIEWING TODAY'S GAMES

A SECTION

Just how good are De La Salle? The answer seems to be "Far better than I have been suggesting in my week-to-week crystal ball gazing" and they have finally convinced me by their decisive defeat of St. Bernard's who have been my yardstick.

University Blues are emerging not only as a well organised team, but also a well disciplined one and they should commence the second round of matches with a win over Old Trinity who seem to be losing a bit of their early momentum.

Although they have slipped down the ladder in the last three weeks, I believe that St. Bernard's have merely handed coach Gus Mitchell the opportunity to "dig the spurs in". They should return to the winning list at the expense of promising University Blacks.

Monash Blues looked quite a slow and dispirited side last Saturday and I intend to accept the advice of North coach, Shane Maguire and stay with North Old Boys.

A very even tussle should ensue between Reservoir Old Boys and Coburg who have both built up a record for inconsistency thus far. However, my inclination is towards Reservoir and I will not be surprised if I'm wrong.

Congratulations to Ormond who are asserting themselves at long last, but they are badly drawn against De La Salle this week. The job will prove beyond them and I feel De La Salle should win well.

Selections: University Blues, St. Bernard's, North Old Boys, Reservoir O.B., De La Salle. — ALF KEAM.

B SECTION

Who would want to be a full back in B Grade? Boy those forwards are running hot, but one full back having a great season is Drinan from St. Kilda CBC.

Today we start the run home and only 3 teams deserve consideration for Premiership honors — Scotch, Caulfield and Marcellin. It's too early yet to discuss the "change of tune" St. Kilda, but beating Scotch and Collegians is good form.

Marcellin and Old Scotch will be a great game, and if conditions are good will really tell us how Scotch will fare in the Finals, as Marcellin have everything — high marking and good forward play.

Marcellin's Mick Power is leading his team well with inspirational play and Jones and Paul Cullinan are having a feast.

Scotch as yet have not come up with any prolific goal getters but they do have the advantage of everyone contributing and Cox is having more good days than bad days. One ominous sign for other teams is the continuing improvement in Bruce Kefford's form. I select Scotch to win, because they have proven they can withstand most challenges.

Collegians will need to improve to defeat Geelong but once again Geelong are stiff — meeting a top team beaten surprisingly the week before.

Queen's Park will suit Collegians' style of play which is not unlike Geelong's and they should win even though Geelong will be keen to avenge their loss early in the year.

Ivanhoe, although disappointing against Scotch will nevertheless be too good for Melb. High — too fast and more consistent although Ron Silberberg is playing his heart out for Melb. and deserves a win.

Old Carey, although Yeo and Elliot are great triers, should not trouble up and down Old Paradians who need a win.

St. Kilda's solid back line and smart roving by Jennings must on form pose a threat to Caulfield but as Caulfield's main stars are winning votes, week in, week out, I predict St. Kilda's winning run will end.

The strength of John Griffiths will be too much, and the class of Tony Lester and Barry Morphet will stifle CBC's exuberance.

But beware all clubs — with relegation time coming nearer — the big upsets will start — Is Today the Day?

Selections: Ivanhoe, Collegians, Old Scotch, Old Paradians, Caulfield Gramm. — JOHN BYRNE.

C SECTION

All the tipsters are scratching their heads and are getting as keen as the players — Jim Fidge has even gone back to Night School.

Enter round two and the Four is well defined at this stage, perhaps, with Fawknor knocking on the door.

The game of "See-Saw" of whether the home or away sides will win is over and there's a mixed bag to come up this week.

The highlight will be a battle of tactics at Keysborough and providing the weather is fine, this game could be a preview of the Grand Final.

Old Melburnians have been acquitting themselves well with a brilliant forward line. They have the players to set them alight, however Old Haileybury know every blade of grass on the open spaces and are steady all round the ground.

Here's looking up your kilts — I'm going for Haileybury.

Parkside went on a goal kicking spree last week and even away at Alphington I predict another good win.

Hampton Rovers didn't perform all that well against Uni. High and will need to get some percentage up to hold their spot in the four.

Power House would have to find a new generator to win but I think they will blow a fuse and let the Rovers in.

Fawknor, at UHSOB ground will be close but Fawknor should be full of confidence on last Saturday's form and add another four points today.

Both Old Ivanhoe and Kew are battling and both face the "hot" seat. Old Ivanhoe have been disappointing to their supporters but the home ground advantage will get them out of trouble today.

Selections: Old Haileybury, Hampton Rovers, Parkside, Old Ivanhoe, Fawknor. — ALEX JOHNSON.

D SECTION

Congratulations ALEX JOHNSON I crashed heavily and you deserve the lead.

But I think the stewards should be called in to look at Old Xav's and Assumption and who would have picked Old Brighton.

Which makes today's choice even harder.

No, AJAX I never did indicate that you were a one-man team. I merely quoted a statistic on a player who is averaging more than your team average of 25 kicks a game. Please give him credit when it's due.

Tread warily however — you are still undefeated but it's a long way to go before you can claim to be "Champions and Premiers".

Old Brighton provided a turn up last week but even with this improved form I can't see them troubling AJAX.

Assumption, with second place the coveted stakes, will not allow this chance to slip against Old Camberwell today. Inconsistency is Assumption's biggest danger.

Don't forget that Camberwell's opponents last week Elsternwick, crushed Assumption two weeks back.

Elsternwick will strengthen its "four" chances by holding back National Bank while hopefully to my predictions Old Xaverians, on their last chance, can pull themselves out of the doldrums and account for Brunswick.

I say this with no great confidence, comparative form in recent weeks is that both have played AJAX with demoralising effects.

Old Geelong provide another riddle. "Nugget" can probably tell me. Did they consider Old Brighton an "easy call" and declare last week an "alpine weekend"? If not, why the form reversal?

Today they play State Bank. This is a really tough one — two points apart on the ladder and unpredictable from week to week. A tipsters nightmare but because June is traditionally a difficult month for Old Geelong, I'll lean towards State Bank playing on its home ground.

Selections: AJAX, Assumption, Elsternwick, Old Xaverians, State Bank. — JIM FIDGE.

F SECTION

Well it just goes to show you that the pen is mightier than the sword, La Trobe Reds proved this last week by downing Bulleen-Templestowe. Mind you they did their sums and discovered that the least number of scoring shots can win games providing they go in the right direction.

This week will see St. Bede's start on the right foot (?) for the second round by downing Bulleen-United.

La Trobe Reds and Footscray I.T. will be an interesting game; as I said last week Footscray usually prove me wrong but I will persevere and give them the nod.

Beverley Hills at home will win over Thornbury but only because they are at home.

Bulleen-Templestowe face the Uni boys for the second time in two weeks but this time they will have the measure over Uni Reds.

I have a soft patch for Glenroy but it does not do them much good and certainly this week they would need both Alan Jeans and Kevin Rose to mastermind a win over West Brunswick (mind you you won't get me down at St. Kilda Baths at 7.00 a.m. next Monday).

Selections: St. Bede's, Footscray I.T., Beverley Hills, Bulleen-Templestowe, West Brunswick. — KEITH FINDLAY.

This tipping business is proving to be more difficult each week in this Section. Nevertheless, this is not a game for excuses, and points are only obtained by good performances. I only hope that my second half will be much better than the first.

Monash University meet Old Scotch at home and should have an easy win, even though Scotch are a hard team to predict — a draw with Ivanhoe and then beaten by Hampton Rovers.

Hampton Rovers are at home to Ormond but despite the confidence gained from last week's victory will not be strong enough to win.

Power House were the improvers of the Section until they collapsed against Ivanhoe last week. They should be able to regain their confidence today by beating University Blacks, particularly if Graig gets amongst the goals again.

North Old Boys still undefeated, meet University Blues who are third on percentage. The Blues were unable to beat second team Monash last week and will not be able to match North's overall strength today.

The battle of the district sides takes place at Coburg. This is a must for Coburg if they are to be considered as a finals prospect.

However, Ivanhoe should prove too strong despite Coburg's home ground advantage.

Selections: Monash Uni., Ormond, Power House, North Old Boys, Ivanhoe. — PETER NATHAN.

E SECTION

Old Mentonians at home to Monash Whites should see the home side consolidate their position in the four.

A.M.P. will beat Common. Bank and must be flat out to pick up percentage. Perhaps A.M.P. should concentrate on winning the game first and worry about percentage afterwards.

Heatherton and St. Pat's are both in danger of the second "hot seat" and this game should ensure remaining in the section for the winners — Heatherton.

North Brunswick cannot be feeling very comfortable either having to face LaTrobe Blacks. LaTrobe should win, even with their in-and-out form.

The remaining game should be a very good match between A.N.Z. and St. Kevin's who have, between them, beaten or drawn with the rest of the section over the past month.

I, in response to the description of me in the F Section notes, select A.N.Z. to win.

Selections — Old Mentonians, A.M.P. Society, Heatherton, LaTrobe Blacks, A.N.Z. Bank.—SYD WHITFIELD.

Ten out of ten on the last two Saturdays. Now that we have the first round results to assist, Jim Fidge and Alex Johnson had better watch their D's and C's!!

West Brunswick, who are having their best season in a decade, have too much at stake to let Alphington take the points on Royal Park.

Alphington will not succumb by anything like the twenty goal margin of April 24.

St. Bernard's who make the long journey to Geelong should return to the winning list. Another defeat would lessen the "Buckley Street, Boys'" chances of a final's berth.

Reservoir Old Boys cross the Yarra to meet Kew. Reservoir are now two games outside the Four and will be anxious to further build their big percentage again at Kew's expense.

Now that Peter Peyton has his lines of communication open he will be anxious to guide Old Paradians to a victory over the big Caulfield Grammarians' side. I have to survey this game closely before going for the Caulfield side to take the points.

All conquering Thomastown visit Albert Park and the recently disappointing De La Salle. Earlier in the season De La Salle were giving promise of better things, but they have slipped of late. Thomastown, the section trend setters, should record their tenth victory, although by less than the forty-five goal margin of the first round.

Selections: West Brunswick, St. Bernard's, Reservoir Old Boys, Caulfield Grammarians, Thomastown. — NORM NUGENT.

SOCIAL NOTES

Geelong in its 50th year in the Association, tonight will be holding a Woolshed-barbecue etc., titled "Golden Oldies" to entertain another long-established club Collegians. Following the game the usual hospitality will be adjourned when a short trip is made to an excellent venue, the nearby "Rocklea" Stonehaven, the property of Mr. and Mrs. George Searle. A good night is assured; the unique title of tonight's function represents the era of the music rather than the establishment of the clubs or ages of some who may attend! Directions can be obtained from the Geelong clubrooms today. All Most Welcome.

LOOKING BACK

5 Years Ago — 1971

"O.G.G.'s" were lucky to take the points against Old Brighton with full-back Michael Crawford saving the day in the final moments.

J. Spiden, Nathan and McPherson starred for the victors, with J. Devine, R. Sanders and Hamilton best for Old Brighton.

100 games to Phil Riley (Ivanhoe), Colin Green (M.H.S.O.B.), Brian McNamara (St. Kevin's) and Maurie Beaumont (Assumption).

Caulfield Grammarians beat Coburg for the third time in a row — all the victories had been by 2 points. The win put Caulfield on top of "A" Section with 8 wins, while five teams were level in second place.

St. Bernard's stalwart Peter Nathan battled his way to 100 games with the club. One of the founders of the club, inaugural secretary, and a member of St. Bernard's first reserves premiership side in 1963, Peter came back, after a nasty accident in 1969 which badly impaired the sight of one eye, to achieve the elusive silver pewter. (Peter is now a member of the V.A.F.A. Executive Committee — Ed.)

10 Years Ago — 1966

Milestones were 150 games to John Vautier (Geelong), John Holt (Elsternwick), 100 to Steve McQueen (C'wealth Bank), David Shea (Coburg), Alan McKenzie (Hampton Rovers) and Alan Metcalf (A.M.P. Society).

Caulfield Grammarians applauded Ron Cabbie's courageous defence in a last-quarter passage of play when he won the ball against great opposition, turned into the clear, turned again and in dead silence put it through the middle—for Coburg! Luckily Caulfield were well in front.

Top true-boot artists were "A" Section—Harley (M.H.S.O.B.) 43, "B" Section—James (Ormond) 27, "C" Section—Guy Wilson (Geel.) 36, "D" Section—Gallagher (St. Pat's) 29, "E" Section—Ruddell (A.M.P.) 41, Junior Section 1—Carr (Ormond) 38, Junior Section 2—Saymor (C. Bank) 43.

St. Kevin's at the bottom of "B" Section, knocked De La Salle out of the four with a 12.9 (81) to 6.8 (44) victory. Semetas, Wallace and Martin starred for the winners while Nance, Broderick and Wilson tried to stem the tide for De La Salle.

25 Years Ago — 1951

The team to represent Victoria in the Carnival at St. Kilda C.G. on July 5 to 10 was: — Doug Arnold, Sam Birtles (Hampton Rovers), Duncan Anderson, John Jolley (Univ. Blues), Peter Cox, Bryce Thomas (Old Melburnians), Martin Bedford, Don Morone (Old Scotch), Dave Bills (Malvern), Kevin Clarke (Ivanhoe), Eric Donaldson, Geoff Harris (Ormond), A. Ferguson (S.S. Bank), Geoff Hibbins, Brian Judd (Collegians), Murray Mathieson (Geelong), Alan Mellors (Brunswick), Harry Meredith (Univ. Blacks), Phil McLaughlin (Old Paradians), Alan Padley (Kew), Alan Shiel, J. Thomas (Comm. Bank).

Comm. Bank congratulated Baden Casey on his 50th game — with 3 goals, he was one of the best afield.

Malvern (B Section) went down by 3 points to State Bank to suffer its first loss; final scores 9.7 (61) to 8.10 (58).

Elsternwick (D Section) set a new club record by being undefeated after the first round.

A Tribute to John Sotheran

Old Brighton Grammarians mourns the recent death of club delegate John Sotheran. John has been an active worker and club supporter for many years and has represented the club as its delegate to the V.A.F.A. and was a member of the Umpire committee.

In these capacities, John worked energetically on the club's behalf and took an active part in the administration of Amateur football.

But our warm memories of John extend further to school days where all our old boys will remember John's strict and fair discipline, his enthusiasm for sporting success and endeavour and above all, his great desire to befriend and help all those who had the very good fortune of making his acquaintance.

The Old Brighton Grammarians club has lost a great worker in John, but club members have lost an even greater friend. John Sotheran will be sadly missed. — IAN MULLETT.

NOTHING LIKE VARIETY FOR GEELONG CAPTAIN

Ian Davis, Geelong's captain, has had an interesting football career, although he is only 23. He had a quick rise to responsibility soon after joining his present club.

He played for Berrigan (New South Wales) in 1970, then went to Geelong (V.F.L.) club, where he played in the Under-19's and Second-onds.

He transferred to Geelong Amateurs in 1973 and was elected Vice-Captain the following year, a tribute to his ability and personality. This season he was elected to the captaincy.

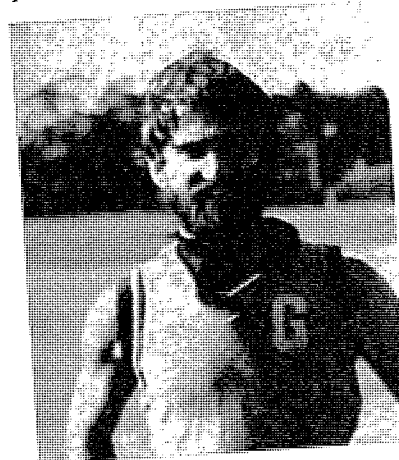

Ian (5' 11" tall and weighing 12 stone) made his Victorian debut last season, playing in the team which beat Tasmania, and is in the squad for this year's Carnival at Adelaide.

His regular place is in the centre but he can also hold down a position on the half-forward flank.

He is consistently mentioned among Geelong's best players and won the club Best and Fairest award last season after being runner-up in 1973, his first year with the club.

Although football is Ian's first choice, cricket, squash, tennis and golf are other interests of this sporting all-rounder.

IAN DAVIS

The ball officially approved for use in all V.F.L. matches since 1897.

"100 GAMES TO UNI. HIGH PLAYER"

All players, officials and supporters would like to congratulate David Nolte on reaching his century with Uni. High club, of which 52 games were played in Under 15 and Under 17. He won the best and fairest in Under 15 in 1970 and Under 17 in 1971, a good effort. David has played in many positions on the field, however, he is well known for his "insane" dashes from centre half-back or the back pocket. Congratulations David for reaching 100 games and we hope you will be around for your next 100 games.

CENTURY TO ANZ BANKER

All at ANZ Bank congratulate Trevor Dancer on playing his 100th game today. Trevor played his first game with the club in 1970 and apart from 1974 when he had other commitments he has been a regular and valued senior player. Trevor has the ability to read the game of football well and with accurate kicking he topped the "E" Section goal-kicking list in 1975.

*Drawn Game.
†Four points lost for Forfeit.

Tony Catanese plays his fiftieth game for Assumption Old Collegians today. He has made the senior side for four of these games. Always reliable as a half back or wingman, Tony has booted eight goals in his Amateur career. He is a dedicated club member who always makes himself available for whatever job needs filling. Away from football he manages to fit in University studies and to serve as Assistant Secretary of the Assumption Old Collegians' Association. Well done Tony. May you continue till your hundredth game in 1979.

Bulleen-Templestowe Centre man Tony D'Agostino departs tomorrow for a three month trip to Italy. "Dagga" has played 42 games with the club since joining the Junior team in 1974, when he was Best and Fairest for the year.

We are sorry to lose Dagga at this stage in the season. His determination and constructive field work in the centre and as a ruck-rover has resulted in many goals. We will also miss younger brother Mark, who has been a regular boundary umpire with the club for two years. All the best to both of you from the players and Committee.

100 AT ROVERLAND

Congratulations to Ian Rolls who will play his 100th game for Hampton Rovers today. Since joining the club, Ian has played most of his football on the forward line where his fine marking, strong kicking and clever team play have been a feature of his play. Well done Ian and we at Hampton along with your "missus" look forward to your next 100.

JACK FULLERTON Secretary for 25 Years

It is almost 25 years since JACK FULLERTON became Secretary of the Victorian Amateur Football Association, and the Association has made great strides in that time.

Jack has devoted more than 40 years to football, his first real achievement in the football world going back as far as 1933, when he represented Victoria in the Interstate Schoolboys Carnival.

He played with Collingwood Seconds for two seasons, 1935 and 1936, and still has a great love for his old club.

Then he journeyed to the country and played with Horsham in the Wimmera League in 1937 before returning to Melbourne in 1939.

Jack played all his football as an amateur, but after the war he gave up playing and started "blowing the whistle". He umpired in the Metropolitan Football League in 1945 before joining the V.F.L. the following year.

Although on the senior list, he did most of his umpiring in the major country leagues — Ballarat, Bendigo, Ovens and Murray. He continued as an umpire until 1951, and was appointed Secretary of the V.A.F.A. in September of that year.

Jack has seen many changes since he took over the secretarial reins — in 1951 there were 40 teams competing — this season there are 140.

The Junior Section was formed in 1939 as a separate body — the Victorian Junior Amateur Football Association—and operated as such until it was merged with the V.A.F.A. in 1953 and became the Junior Section of the parent body.

Then there was E Section, the Reserves and F Section, as the Association continued to grow.

Jack was Manager of the Victorian team in 1953 which boasted many very fine players, and literally "scooped the pool" at the Amateur Carnival at Adelaide.

Another feat of which he is

justly proud was the organisation of the demonstration match of Australian Rules football at the Olympic Games in Melbourne in 1956. He was also an assistant to Mr. Bill Holt, who was the Technical Director for the Olympic Games.

Jack had a good deal to do with the Association's acquiring Olympic Park No. 2 Oval as a central ground in 1957. The V.A.F.A. had the use of this ground until the end of 1960, but the installation of the greyhound racing track made the playing area too small.

His next triumph was the gaining of St. Kilda Cricket Ground as headquarters in 1965, but this, too, was to be short-lived as we had that ground for only one season.

But the Fullerton determination was not dimmed by these setbacks and Jack did much of the negotiating for the use of Elsternwick Park, which we gained in 1967.

Much has been done to improve the facilities at this ground, which we now call "home" and further improvements will be carried out on a gradual scale. Something more we can thank Jack for — it was his drive, enthusiasm and persistence which has played a big part in getting these things done.

Jack received the A.N.F.C. Merit Award in 1968 (the V.A.F.A., one of the four bodies affiliated with the Australian Amateur Football Council, is entitled to make a nomination for this award every fourth year). He was also honoured by being elected President of the A.A.F.C. in 1970.

Jack was instrumental in obtaining the use of the Melbourne Cricket Ground for the Amateur Carnivals in 1962 and 1973, just another achievement in the tremendous amount he has done for Amateur football in Victoria.

BUT — Jack freely admits that none of it would have been possible without the help and co-operation of his wife, Mrs. Norma Fullerton, who has been Assistant Secretary of the V.A.F.A. for the whole of the time that Jack has been Secretary.

And the members of the Association think very highly of the Fullertons, for they have both been elected to Life Membership of the V.A.F.A.

While Jack and Norma Fullerton are on deck, the Victorian Amateur Football Association is certain to flourish.

Ray was "Shepherded" back to R.O.B.'s

Ray Shepherd, Reservoir Old Boys' centre line player, stands at only 5' 8", but his lack of inches in no way measures his football ability.

Ray, who has just turned 21, has proved his ability and versatility since joining Reservoir in 1972.

He has played in the centre, on the wing, and even as ruck-rover, but he is hardly the build for this latter position, as he weighs only 12 stone.

He won the Best First Year Player award in 1972 and was second Best and Fairest the following year.

In 1974, Ray tried his luck with Collingwood (V.F.L.) and played in the Under-19's and the Reserves, but couldn't "crack" the senior side.

He was back with Reservoir Old Boys last season and is in the squad for next month's Carnival at Adelaide.

Ray plays cricket with Northern Socials in the Jika Association and includes squash and athletics among his other sporting activities.

The National Bank is doing its best to maintain the value of your dollar

This free book proves it.

Let's face it. You've worked hard for your money. And it's a bit disturbing to see its value being eroded away so quickly. That's why this free book "Your money and your life", is so valuable right now. It's 160 pages long (with some blank spaces for notes) and it would be good value at a couple of dollars. But seeing the book is free, it's a must. It's a practical home reference on personal money matters, like buying and financing a home, buying a new or used car, taxes, life assurance, probate. And a stack of other subjects.

Ask your nearest National Bank manager for a copy.

We don't claim to have an instant cure for inflation, but we can soften the blow with this book. And that's a good start.
