Blues Crash — St. Bernard's Win Easily

CLOSE CALL FOR MARCELLIN
PROMOTION FOR O.M.'s, XAV's, ST. KEVIN'S,
WEST BRUNSWICK, ST. BERNARD'S JUNIORS

By GEORGE McTAGGART

University Blues collapsed in the second half of the First Semi-final against St. Bernard's last Saturday, and were beaten by nine goals.

Marcellin did not have things all their own way against Old Paradians, who were 16 points in front during the third quarter, but tired in the last.

Old Melburnians, Old Xaverians, St. Kevin's and West Brunswick together with St. Bernard's Juniors, winners of their respective Second Semi-finals, gain promotion to a higher section next season.

The Blues started well against the light breeze and led an inaccurate St. Bernard's by two points at quarter-time, and although they had most of the play in the second term, they spoilt their efforts with ineffective handball and short-passing which caused them to break down on the forward line.

On their play, the Blues should have been goals ahead at the interval but instead they were 11 points down.

St. Bernard's took charge in the third quarter when their forwards were given far too much latitude by a loose Blues' defence and they raced away to a lead of 38 points, and were in a commanding position at the last change.

The Blues couldn't make any impression in the last term and ended a disappointing display with a deficit of nine goals.

Old Paradians showed great improvement on recent form and worried Marcellin, but Parade tired in the last quarter and were beaten by 11 points.

Old Haileybury's slightly more accurate kicking gave them a 16-point win over Fawknor and Old Melburnians trounced Parkside to the tune of 104 points, kicking a mammoth 29-22 (196) to Parkside's 14-8 (92).

from Assumption, but Old Xaverians sneaked home by a point from AJAX.

ANZ Bank came from behind to score a surprise win over Old Mentonians and in another close one, St. Kevin's got up to beat LaTrobe Blacks by five points.

The more accurate Beverley Hills beat Footscray Tech. by two goals and West Brunswick continued their unbeaten run with a 28-point win over St. Bede's.

There were a couple of form reversals in the Juniors — North Old Boys crushed Monash University, although Monash had beaten them by 14 points a fortnight previously. But the biggest upset was St. Bernard's defeat of Thomastown. In the last home-and-home match Thomastown won by more than 13 goals, but kicked themselves out of it last week — 13-23 to St. Bernard's 16-9 — and were beaten by four points.

In the other Junior games, University Blues beat Ivanhoe and Old Paradians scored over Caulfield Grammar.

There were some close games in the Reserves — North Brunswick beat ANZ Bank by seven points and Beverley Hills beat University Reds by three. Fawknor thrashed Old Haileybury, who had won both games during the season, and Elsternwick had a big win over Assumption.

UMPIRE'S CORNER

By KEVIN MCKAY

At the final meeting for this season, our umpire's association elected a new life member.

Peter Feil was the man to receive this honour — one most certainly well earned. Peter, a most respected member of the umpire's association, was presented with his membership badge at the annual dinner held last Monday week.

We congratulate him on attaining life membership status and trust he will be with us for many more years.

I would take this opportunity of thanking Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton for once again assisting us throughout another year, although they are both very busy with affairs of the V.A.F.A., they always find time to help umpires.

The umpire committee led by Mr. Alf Keam have a most difficult task — they give so many hours of their time to umpires — attending meetings and spending Saturdays watching us in action and often attending our training nights.

To Alf and his committee our thanks and appreciation.

To Mr. and Mrs. George McTaggart — thank you also for your help with umpires' corner.

It would be remiss of me not to mention the greatly valued assistance given umpires and myself by the assistant umpire's coach John Posetti.

In his first year in this position he settled in very well and again gave loyal service to our association. John's vast knowledge of athletic training and umpiring has been of great benefit to all.

Brunswick players and members may be interested to learn that their former player Don Jones is now chairman of the "Queensland umpires' appointment Board" — Don, after playing with Brunswick umpired with us in the V.A.F.A. prior to going to "Banana Land".

A most welcome visitor to our training last Thursday was "Daryl George" a former top amateur umpire, now working in the "bush".

To all young sportsmen — would you like to become a football umpire? — you would?

Well take a good look at yourself and ask yourself some very pertinent questions.

A football umpire is tested to the limits of stamina and patience.

There's no place for the bad tempered or temperamental.

Former players usually make good umpires.

An umpire must be a man of character above reproach, conscientious and scrupulously fair.

Can you stand the training and discipline? Can you make the grade? You can, then here's my advice — contact the Victorian Amateur Football Association — right now —

You are the type we will require in 1977!

SOCIAL

To really round off our social calendar we will again be at the "Stoke House" St. Kilda on the night of the "A and B" sections grand finals.

This is the one night when we can really relax — don't miss out — the cost $8.00 per person.

PREVIEWING TODAY'S GAMES

A SECTION

Before we get down to business, Chris Hansen, Old Trinity ruckman and Victorian stalwart made a one horse race of the "A" section Fairest and Best Award with a massive total of 32 points, including nine first votes. What an incredible effort Chris! We all congratulate you.

This Saturday is not quite so bad, as neither team gets the mothball treatment.

De La Salle have achieved a great deal so far this season in finishing in the four after their recent promotion from B grade.

They could easily have formed the opinion that I have had scant regard for their chances throughout the season, but this is not so. It just took them a long time to convince me how good they were.

North Old Boys who have so far this season demonstrated a lack of familiarity with Elsternwick Park are really going to have their work cut to hold the evenly spread strength, play-on style and determination of De La Salle.

To put the icing on the season long efforts of Barry Lyons, the Halasa brothers and Alan Groills, we find Terry Crothers notching the goals of late.

Ruck strength and drive will be North Old Boys trump card however. Led by the shrewd and experienced Shane Maguire, ably backed up by Mick Welch, Mauro Boreich and Frank Leeack on the back line, I think the Royal Purples could have a slight edge at the final siren.

It is going to be close and North must get "out of the blocks", faster than they have been doing of late. — ALF KEAM.

B SECTION

Three teams good enough to go to A Grade. What a pity only two can go. But which team will miss out? Maybe the one stiff enough to sustain injuries.

Today's game is a class affair with the rich prize a return to A Grade. Both teams are even in every regard — 3 losses each, — each a win against the other, each well disciplined and well coached, each with strong leaders on the field.

Under normal circumstances I would pick a draw but Caulfield Grammar have four stars under a cloud and missing on match practice. They are John Griffiths, Barry Morphet, John Butcher and Glen Fletcher. For this reason I must select Scotch to win.

However, Old Scotch would do well to reflect that this doubtful player situation may well inspire Caulfield to win at all costs so as to gain a week's rest before the big one.

In previewing this game I am disregarding the last round performance by Caulfield as they had many out and very little incentive to win.

But what of the teams.

Scotch are very even but have one line of weakness that being the half back line, although I have been told that Nicholls will do his job.

Caulfield on the other hand, even without the possibility of injury are experiencing three areas of concern, the wings, the roving and the full back position.

The centre-line duel overall should go Scotch's way with King, Tallent and maybe Marx or Brown too talented for Caulfield's trio although the well deserved best and fairest Tony Lester will be a headache for Tallent.

Caulfield are happy with the form of John Long at Centre half back and Watson and Clark on the flanks and the fact that Bob MacDonald can be spared to fill another weakness.

Scotch rely on a changing forward pattern with Sherwen, Cox, Mason, Brown and Anderson and this should test Caulfield's defence.

At Caulfield's end, doubt exists about brilliant full forward Butcher but Greg Tootell as permanent forward pocket will take watching. If Butcher does not play don't be surprised if Buchanan (ex LaTrobe Uni) gets a bag of goals. He is talented.

If Scotch's half back line can hold Atchison and Fletcher then Scotch will surely win.

The rucks will be interesting. Griffiths and Morphet, if fit, will give great drive — but are they fit? Because of this doubt I feel that Kefford and maybe Clark aided by more skilful rovers Johnson, Marx and Melville, could dictate play.

Having considered all factors Scotch appear to have more players going well where Caulfield have some positional worries plus the dreadful curtain of doubt about fitness. Therefore it must be Scotch.

Such will be the game that I have decided to stay off Alf Keam's vintage reds until after the game as I do not want to forget any of the great passages of play.

However, on the other hand plenty of rough red will be required if Old Scotch win to drown out the conviction by the "Afgan" that he is a man of destiny born to lead teams into A grade. But don't forget Lawrence, Frank Goode was recommended to Caulfield by Barassi so watch out. Also Ray Walsh from Marcellin does not take kindly to "Men of Destiny". — JOHN BYRNE.

C SECTION

I predicted there would be many goals kicked in the Parkside-O.M.'s game, but I didn't think it would be so one sided.

Old Melburnians "talented trio" bagged 21 between them — Urquhart 10, Roberson 8, Cordner 3, that's a good start for any team and they booted O.M.'s into the Grand Final and B section in 1977.

Old Haileybury — down at three quarter time looked on the way out, but Mike Porter's rousing address brought the Old Boys out of their daze and they went on to take the game.

John Houghton showed he was back to form and other good players were Campbell, Cocks, Cracknell, Jessop and Mason.

"WE CARE"

Finals, as we all know are a different ball game and anything can happen in that 100 minutes.

The preliminary final at Monash between Old Haileybury and Parkside will be a good clash — to date the honours are one all. Now that they've found they have a top gear and "Driver" Porter to stir them up I am going for Old Haileybury to win this one and earn the right to play in the Grand Final. — ALEX JOHNSON.

D SECTION

As predicted last week Assumption failed to gain a second chance at the flag and AJAX were pipped on the post by Old Xaverians.

Congratulations Old Xavs on lifting yourselves up into "C" Section. It is good to see such a well-established club again on the move to the top grades where it has contested with so much distinction in years gone by.

What a poser today's Preliminary Final clash — Old Camberwell, four losses for the year, and AJAX only three. You can't get much closer than that — and who would have thought a few weeks back that AJAX would have to fight for promotion the hard way?

And sad as it may seem a bubbling, confident Old Camberwell will put a stop to AJAX aspirations today.

Old Camberwell are a "form" team having thrashed Assumption by 16 goals who one week earlier had crept home winners over Old Xavs by only a point. On that statistical comparison, Old Camberwell should take the premiership — but this is a premature conclusion.

AJAX, at long last, improved their accuracy last week — today they must reproduce their desperation. Bialek got 5 of 13 goals last week — Camberwell featured many accurate performers in their tally of 24.

I have a suspicion AJAX's over-all talent over the season will get it to the Grand Final. However, because Old Camberwell have not been faulted for weeks, their confidence will carry them to what I anticipate will be a narrow win, typical to a final's game.

And a warning to Old Camberwell — don't be over-confident — AJAX will be desperate! — JIM FIDGE.

E SECTION

Even with A.N.Z. and St. Kevin's both off the target, neither team was in much trouble in knocking me off, but with due deference to the splendid performance by A.N.Z. Bank to reach the final I am of the opinion that LaTrobe Blacks will be too solid and will go to D section with St. Kevin's. — SYD WHITFIELD.

F SECTION

Beverley Hills meet St. Bede's in the preliminary final. For the statistically minded we find that both teams have won their home game. St. Bede's won by 48 points in June and Beverley Hills had an advantage of 24 points at their last encounter on 14th August.

Beverley Hills have been a little more consistent in the last ten games having won 9 whereas St. Bede's have won 6, with 2 losses in the last three weeks. Just looking through the Amateur Records I notice that St. Bede's do not have a good record when playing away from home. Beverley Hills in the last ten games have only lost one away game and that was to West Brunswick which is understandable.

Those are the statistics and as I said last week:

Form and consistency point to Beverley Hills and they get my vote also. — KEITH FINDLAY.

JUNIOR SECTION 1

After last week's success, your scribe is hoping to maintain form both today and next week. Commiserations to those sides that finished the season last Saturday. No doubt they will be back next year hoping for better results.

Today's game is a battle of the students between University Blues and Monash University at Yarra Park.

Monash won both encounters during the year, the last time being only a fortnight ago.

The Blues will be riding high after their victory over Ivanhoe last week but that would have been a hard game for them and they may not have sufficient time to recover.

While Monash would also have had a hard game against North, they have shown throughout the season a better ability to recover.

I am selecting Monash to run out easy winners. — PETER NATHAN.

JUNIOR SECTION 2

The surprise results continue. They came not only in this section but throughout the V.A.F.A. last Saturday.

The Nathan crystal ball is surely needed by all tipsters. Did he use it to select St. Bernard's last week? Or was Peter's selection purely based on bias?

Purely bias, like your selection of Assumption, Norm. — Ed.

Today's preliminary final sees the game forecast by many to be that for the premiership. Until last Saturday Old Paradians were the only team to lower the brown and gold of Thomastown this season (16-13 to 10-15) on July 10.

The early encounter at Thomastown saw the home side record a very big win by 29 goals. Can one be guided by these facts today?

Yarra Park will prove more familiar territory to Paradians. However, Thomastown have by far the more consistent performances on the 'board.

Consistency has not been Parade's forte. Even as late as the last home-and-home game their desire and endeavour were questioned. These features will be needed to their maximum today.

Peter Peyton is sure to emphasize them in his pre-match oration.

Kevin Rogers will be out to prevent his side wasting the season's effort on two poor displays in the final series.

Thomastown's inaccuracy last Saturday was out of character with their home-and-home performances. Full forward Czerny has had a most successful season and is by far the leading V.A.F.A. goal-kicker.

Overall I favour Thomastown because they have the superior figures on the season's scores and because Parade have lacked their consistency during the season. — NORM NUGENT.

BALL BRIEFS

INELIGIBLE PLAYER IN RESERVES GAME

West Brunswick Reserves played an ineligible player in the Second Semi-final last Saturday and lost the match.

The final in F Reserve Section today will now be between Beverley Hills and West Brunswick, and St. Bede's go into the Grand Final next Saturday.

NO NEED TO POST 'EM

Club Press Correspondents are advised that it is not necessary to post Goal-kickers and Best Players to The Amateur Footballer during the Finals series.

These details are required to be phoned to the Press Correspondent on Saturdays for inclusion in Monday's papers, and the information is then used for The Amateur Footballer.

Ball Briefs, however, must still be posted — remember postage is now 18 cents.

AMATEUR SCORES IN LONDON

BALL BRIEFS

Bernie Sheehy and Colin Glover have done a great job in getting both sides into the finals. Thanks must go to them for their efforts.

Congratulations to De La Salle on making the second semi-final in both the seniors and reserves. It is the first time the club has made the A section four.

Ken Johnson one of Ivanhoe's determined defenders plays his 50th game with the club this Saturday. After one year in the Juniors Ken soon established himself in the reserves and has played in two consecutive Grand Final sides. His determination and dedication to the club and his coach have made him the player he is today. All going well we hope to see many more fine games from this keen member. All at Ivanhoe congratulate you Ken, and wish you the best of luck in your 50th game.

DE LA SALLE WARRIORS TAKE OFF FLAG

OLD TRINITY RUCKMAN TAKES AWARD

Old Trinity ruckman, Chris Hansen, has won this year's Best and Fairest award, scoring a mammoth total of 32 points.

Chris polled votes in 12 of the 14 matches in which he played, and included nine first votes in his tally. No votes were counted for the two games in which members of the Carnival team were not available, and he missed two other games besides.

His nearest opponents were Ray Shepherd, of Reservoir Old Boys and Monash Blues' Ross Booth, both of whom received 16 votes, Shepherd being placed second on a count-back. He received four first votes and Booth two. All three were members of the team which played in the Amateur Carnival at Adelaide in July.

Chris Hansen

Voting was much closer in B Section where Tony Lester of Caulfield Grammarians won by only one point from C. Stredwick (Ivanhoe), with Marcellin captain, Michael Power, one point further back in third place.

The award in C Section went to UHS Old Boys' captain, Alan Flavel, with 19 points. His clubmate, Max Johnston, won the award in the same section last season.

AJAX captain, Mike Ritterman, won his sescond successive trophy, as he won the award in E Section in 1975. This year, it was in D Section and was much closer — he won by only a point, with two others one point further away.

Winners in E Section (G. Butler of North Brunswick), and Junior Section 2 (M. Nugent of De La Salle), each polled votes in 11 matches, but votes were counted in all 18 rounds in these sections.
