CAULFIELD KNOCK NORTH OUT OF PREMIERSHIP FIGHT

Kew too strong for Old Trinity Narrow wins to Fairfield, Power House

By GEORGE McTAGGART

Caulfield Grammarians finished too strongly for North Old Boys in the First Semi-final last Saturday, and knocked North out of the fight for this year's premiership.

Old Trinity could not match Kew in the second half and faded out of the picture.

Both C Section Semi-finals produced exciting finishes to high-scoring games — Fairfield beat Old Melburnians by three points and Power House "pipped" Parkside by two points.

It was even closer in the Old Haileybury - Fairfield Reserves game, which ended in a draw. The game will be re-played today.

Caulfield and North gave nothing away in a tight opening in which the back lines of both sides were on top, and the scores were level at quarter-time (2.2 each).

North broke away for a couple of goals against the breeze early in the second term and looked like getting on top, but Caulfield fought back well, although they missed many opportunities through inaccurate kicking for goal.

Caulfield took charge shortly before the interval, and kicked three quick goals to go to a 20-point lead, a handy advantage at the half-way mark.

North were unable to break through effectively in the third quarter and added only 2.4 while Caulfield kicked two straight goals and led by 16 points at three-quarter-time.

Caulfield kept the pressure on in the last term despite North's strong resistance, and went further away to run out winners by 37 points, and go into the Final next week.

Kew jumped away to a 4-goal lead over Old Trinity in the first quarter but Trinity hit back to be only a goal down at half-time.

Then Kew added 5.7 to 1.3 in the third quarter and held Trinity off in the last to score by a comfortable 33-point margin.

Old Melburnians led Fairfield narrowly practically throughout, except where it really counted, and went down by 3 points in an exciting finish.

They were 14 points ahead at quarter-time and three-quarter-time but Fairfield finished a little too strongly for them.

Power House slammed on 10 goals in the opening term against Parkside to lead by 50 points at the first change and it looked as if it was only a matter of how much they would win by.

But Parkside fought back strongly and gradually reduced their leeway — to 31 points at the interval and 16 points at three-quarter-time, and then shot to the front shortly before the finish.

Power House still had a little in hand however and kicked 2 goals to win by 2 points.

State Savings Bank beat LaTrobe Blacks by 11 points in a high-standard, high-scoring, see-saw game.

LaTrobe led by 3 goals at quarter-time but the Bank side kicked 7 goals in the second term to lead by 14 points at the interval.

LaTrobe hit back with 8 goals in the third quarter and were 23 points up at the final change, but Bank were equal to the task and added another 7 goals in the last quarter to take the game.

Marcellin offered little resistance to Alphington in a rather disappointing, one-sided game, and Alphington were not troubled to win by 15 goals.

Poor shooting for goal robbed Elsternwick of their chance to beat AMP Society, who scored by 3 goals although they had seven less scoring shots.

Elsternwick were a point in front at half-time but A.M.P. kicked 5 goals in the third term.

Old Ivanhoe were in front throughout against Old Camberwell and were in a sound position at the interval, with a 34-point lead. It was a great third term with Camberwell kicking 7 goals and Ivanhoe 6, but Ivanhoe held on to their lead and won by 32 points.

LaTrobe Reds were no match for St. Bede's who went to a 29-point lead at half-time and finished more than 9 goals in front.

Fawknor had little difficulty in beating Monash Whites who were more than 10 goals behind at the finish. The first quarter was fairly even but after that it was all Fawknor.

In the Junior Section games, Monash University beat North Old Boys by 19 points and Ormond were much too strong for University Blues, winning by 12 goals.

Beverley Hills' straight kicking (13.4) gave them a 7-point win over Old Paradians and Coburg beat Parkside by more than 9 goals.

Apart from the draw between Old Haileybury and Fairfield, most of the Reserve games were won by decisive margins, the only exceptions being St. Kilda CBC's 7-point win over Parkside and St. Kevin's 8-point victory over Old Geelong.

Power House, Alphington, Old Ivanhoe and Fawknor, and Coburg Juniors, winners of the second semi-finals in their respective sections last week, have gained promotion to a higher section next season.

SNOW'S STORM

Dunno wot 'apened to me story larst week and the week befur — reckon George McTaggart was sore on me gettin' me team inter the four, an' jest left it out.

Wooden put it past (No comment—Ed.)

'im yer know.

Well, we did make the four, an' wot's more we won the last 'ome-an-'omer by over 12 goals an' got up inter second possie.

An' that's not all — no fear, not by a long shot — we won the second semi an' now were in the grand final — wacko!

Gee, but the semi was a real nail-biter though, we's got in front with only about five minnits ter go, an' I thought we wus 'ome an' 'osed.

Then the dum clucks relaxed an' the other mob was quick to see it an' they got in front and then it was levvul peggin's and I thought it wus gunna be a draw.

But me boys rise to the occasion and "Johnno" kicked a goal an' naturally was the 'ero of the club.

An' a course, I come in for a lotter praise too, an' I'm the proudest man in Australia at present.

Terday, I'll jest be lookin' on an' assessin' the form of the mob we'll come up against in the grand final.

Tell you'se all about it next week mates!

BALL BRIEFS

150 GAMES TO R.O.B.'s VICE-CAPTAIN — CLUB RECORD

Congratulations to John "Spidge" Martin who reaches his 150 game milestone today with Reservoir Old Boys. John is the first Reservoir player to reach 150 games and naturally holds the club record for most games played. He has been with the club since its inception in 1965 and was a member of the premiership team of that year. A top class centreman and half-forward, John can adapt to any position as the situation arises for the benefit of the club, this typifies his unselfish attitude and desire to place the club's success above all else. His success has not come without effort and his dedication to hard training has been an inspiration to team mates. Consistently among the top vote pollers and twice the winner of the club's Best and Fairest award, he again appears certain to be among the top vote earners this year. A natural leader, John's enthusiasm and dedication has no equal. Off the field he has been a hard worker for the social club, and his efforts have ensured the success of the recent Presentation Nights. Once again, congratulations John from all at Reservoir and we are all looking forward to you reaching 200.

100 UP TO A PARKSIDER

Congratulations from all at Parkside to Peter (Jump the Fence in the Dark) Byrne on playing his 100th game last week. Earlier in the season Peter was struggling to secure a place in the side but his persistence has now paid off and he has become a regular member of our Reserves team. Well done Peter — keep up the good work and go on to the 200.

Congratulations to David Wood on completing fifty games for Marcellin last week. "Woodie" has played in many positions in our Reserves and his enthusiasm and dashing style make him a most useful player.

LOOKING BACK

Our apologies to our readers for the non-appearance of "LOOKING BACK" in the last two issues.

... given it away eh?

by Mike Dunham

"Given it away, eh? The question was asked by my companion of some years standing as he shrewdly eyed my sarsaparilla.

"Feeling crook?"

"No, it's a personal decision."

"Won't be seeing you in here eh?"

"Well, I'm here now aren't I?"

"Yes, well you know what I mean, you won't be drinking that stuff all night," he said.

He was quite right of course, I learned later. I couldn't include myself in the long drinking sessions on Friday evening, and over the week-end and it wasn't the sars either. The Blokes started off the same way with convivial chat, but as the time passed, I found the conversation growing louder and the laughter more raucous and I just couldn't see the funny side of their jokes which I realised had been repeated over and over again. So, I began to slip away, and on the way home I even bought a box of chocolates for my wife.

"You're home early," said my wife. My small daughter screeched, "It's Daddy, it's Daddy," and two scruffy footballers came in from the garden with smiles on their faces. As I settled myself in an easy chair I was bombarded with statements and questions and stories of what "Sir" had said at school, and would I fix this broken doll, and "the Tigers are best, aren't they Dad?" I was wanted, it seemed. Yet this is what I said I couldn't face after a 'hard-day's-work, I'd had to relax with a few beers with the boys.

It happened quite slowly really and it wasn't till the fourth Friday night in a row that my wife said. "It's nice to have you home early these days, it makes the week-end so much longer," and the boys anticipating my early arrival had set up the chessmen. It was then that I realised that I was looking forward to it as much as they were.

I don't get involved in chook raffles anymore but I don't think I ever came out in front with them anyway. One week, I did win three, but for the most part it would have been cheaper to buy one at the delicatessen.

At the football, I don't drink and I don't miss the important incidents.

Well, I'm $10 a week better off. I've lost weight. I like Monday morning a lot more. I'm facing up to difficulties, and I'm taking a real interest in things, especially at work. It's funny, I used to say that grog made no difference to me. I could take it or leave it, and all that rot about it being manly to drink, why I've never felt better in my life. And I seem to find more time to do things — maybe it's because I want to do them.

"Still off it then?" said my erstwhile drinking companion. "Still crook?"

"Not on your life," I said, "never felt better. Must rush, I'm taking the boys to the football." □
