A Section Review by Ross Booth

A SECTION REVIEW

Old Paradians beat Old Xaverians by 25 points in the replay of last seasons B Section Grand Final.

Paradians were well served by their on ball players — Brian Grills, Dominic & Frank Gleeson. For the Xavs. Nick Wilton was solid at centre half-back and was well supported by flankers Martin Beattie and Peter Curtain.

Collegians lost their second match of the season, shades of 86, going down to De La Salle by 20 points. For the D's Mick Deveson was best afield whilst Chris Pollard battled hard all day for the Lions. The loss of Ian Herman & David Hoyle has meant the Lions are down 50 to 60 possessions on last year and this is having an affect on a few of the Collegians link men.

Ormond surprised Old Scotch storming away to a five goal lead by quarter time. Scotch rallied but could not bridge the gap, thus giving the 'Monds' a useful win at Batman Avenue which has never been a happy hunting ground. For the victors young Paul Schukraft was on target with 9 goals whilst evergreen Peter Sherwen booted 7 for the Cardinals.

North Old Boys were swamped by Caulfield Grammarians who unleashed a last quarter burst of 8 goals to win its first match of the season. North had no answer to the 'Fields' for whom Ray Bergins was in top form along with reliables David Matthews (1987 skipper) & Mark McClelland.

And so we find that the 1986 Grand Finalists are both yet to win a game!

Uni Blues bounced back after the first week's loss with a crushing victory over an under-manned Bulleen-Templestowe. The Blues had too much height and system up forward for the Bullants and the experienced due of Mark Tyquin (6 goals) & Don McInnes (5 goals) had a field day. Best for the Blues were rovers Gust & Allen.

Peter French Previews Round Three

Old Xaverians meet De La at Elsternwick in what to my mind in the match of the round. De La has every reason to feel pleased with its performance so far for after indifferent displays in the practice matches and a crippling run of injuries, the club has surprised even a few of its die hard supporters to be unbeaten to date. Old Xavs on the other hand have been most impressive despite last week's loss at Bundoora. The Club has recruited well, stabilised its administration and is responding well to Danny Corcoran's demands of discipline and teamwork. The Xavs will start favourites and should win. I'm impressed with their goal scoring ability where an ageless Steve Curtain is again leading the way at the spearhead. He should have a field day with both Waldrons, Brian and Peter sidelined, although Stephen Rae may use Dick Williams at full back where his pace could worry the veteran Xav. Xavs lack of class small men was exposed last week and De La has a rising young star in Chris Campbell who together with the De La hard workers — Connolly, Hellard, Cooke, McHenry and Marklowe are bound to cause the Xavs a headache or two. New goal kicking leader Colin Lowe will learn all about the game today when it lines up against the experience Old Xav. vice-captain Nick Burne. Lowe's pace and agility will surprise Burne but in Beattie & Atkinson he has two dependable backstops and with Wilton in great touch at Centre half back I believe Old Xavs have the stars to match the D's at every turn even allowing for their ruck supremacy with the return of skipper Mick Greene to support the ever improving Mike Smith.

Another game full of interest will be played at the University between the Blues & Old Scotch. Scotch gave Ormond a five goal break last week and was never able to bridge the gap, whilst the Blues began in top gear and led by 11 goals at half time. Allen & Gust were busy rovers whilst McInnes, Tyquin & Curnow were too experienced for their young bullant opponents. Scotch will miss Fergus who has broken a collarbone and might be surprised at the students desire to win the loose ball. I hear Ormond are on record as saying they'd never been tackled as hard by the Blues in the past and Alan Salter has obviously been working hard with the Pside. At home today and with Mike Tandell dominant around the ground I'm going for the Blues.

Ormond will make it 3 in a row by downing North at Malone Street. North have "forgotten" how to win and meet a revitalised Ormond at the wrong time. The Mon's have just the right blend of youth and experience at present and are reaping the rewards of a sound under age policy, as a number of last years successful U19's have forced their way into the senior side. On paper North look more than formidable and if there's to be an upset in A Section this week it could well come in this game. However current form and the homeground advantage will give the 'Monds its third win.

Caulfield are at home to Old Paradians and will have been delighted with last weeks win. With Ray Berzins, Kains Fish & McLelland running into form they must be given a chance of another upset. However OP's are playing so well at present I've no hesitation in selecting them today, and in the final game Collegians will break the ice by beating Bulleen-Temp. who have a long and difficult year ahead.

In B Section the Marcellin Fawkner game is the match of the day in what is a great round of matches. Marcellin at home are hard to beat and are teaming well. However they do lack height, strength and experience, qualities Fawkner do not and with Young, Korp, Buckley & Peter Majerczak in top form I'm going for the visitors.

Old Trinity have been waiting 6 months for a chance to revenge their loss in the C Section Grand Final. They have it today and at home will be too good for Banyule whilst St. Bernards will appreciate back to back games and will open their account with a win over Ivanhoe. St. Kilda another side which is struggling make the long trip to Pitcher Park where they face a confident and cohesive Parkside. There's only one outcome — a win for the "Red Devils". Finally Therry and the Blacks meet at Oak Park in what promises to be a great game. Blacks have recruited well and with last weeks win under their belt I've a hunch they'll surprise Therry and come away with the points.

Kew's journey to Thomastown will be a good test for both clubs as they strive to keep pace with O.M.'s. Kew struggled for 3 quarters last week against a tenacious Melbourne High, but eventually broke away to win well. They have Joey Busuttil in great form and with De La recruit Mario Bria adding much needed support I believe Kew's "Carriers" will give them a hard earned win.

AJAX has been close to a win and should break the ice today against the Rovers at David Street and Old Brighton is the selection to upset an over confident Monash.

Old Haileybury at home will have too much talent for Balaclava who are acknowledging the difference between D & C Section whilst Melbourne High can be expected to make things difficult for O.M.'s at the other school oval but they lack OM's depth and class and would provide the upset of the day if they got up.

Congratulations are in order for Preston Marist Brothers Old Boys Player Jim Mounsey (all 6'5" of him) for his 150th game with the Club in the opening game against Old Mentonians. A Best and Fairest Winner in 1983, he now battles it out with the Reserves every week and shows true grit whether the ball is in the air or on the ground. Keep it up "Moose"!!

OLD PARADIAN WHISPERS 50th GAME

The Committee, players and supporters of Old Paradians extend hearty congratulations to Chris 'Whisper' Ray, on playing his 50th game for the club on 25th April, 1987 against Caulfield. Chris joined the Club in 1984, and is the Reserves Captain since 1985. The Reserves have won two premierships during the last two years, and we hope, that Chris will lead the team to repeat the performance for the third successive year, with his talent, enthusiasm and team spirit. Chris was also the Social Secretary last year, and is a very good clubman. We wish Chris the very best, on and off the field, to keep whispering at our club for many more years to come.

Everybody at St. Bedes would like to congratulate Dave "Billy Picken" Marshall on playing his 50th game today. Dave, one of the more colourful players, joined the club and has played an important part in keeping Thursday nights going. He has shown his versatility at the Club by playing in many positions around the ground and even off the ground (socially). All the best Dave hope the next 50 go as well as the 12km run during pre-season. Well done!

KEW MILESTONES

Kew stalwart Darrell O'Farrell plays his 150th game today. "Dutchy" began at Kew in 1978 in the U19s, was made Captain and then set about winning Most Consistent Player Trophy for that season. Darrell also coached the U19s during 1984 when injury prevented him playing.

Darrell's senior career has been as a strong, determined backman winning Most Courageous Trophy in 1986.

Good luck today Darrell for your 150th.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Ken Frencham
President
West Brunswick F.C.

Dear Sir,

Could you please tell Norm Nugent that before he makes his predictions who will be strong in 1987, till him it would be better to see teams play first!

Yours
Ken Frencham.

VALE JOHN BUTCHER

All Amateur football supporters will be saddened to hear of the sudden and tragic death of JOHN BUTCHER. John was recently killed in a car crash and leaves a widow and young infant and to them and John's family we extend our deepest sympathy.

John was a former member of the EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE also represented the State. He played amateur football for Caulfield Grammarians, Univ. Blacks and Old Geelong and won the A Section Goal Kicking in 1972 (80 goals), in 1977 (60 goals) and E Section in 1980 where he topped the Century (102).

Norm Nugent Previews the D, E, F, G, H and U.19's

Congratulations to all recipients of the coveted Certificate of Merit. It was particularly pleasing to see my long standing friend Keith Stookie (sic) alias Sharkie honoured.

Review of Matches played April 11.

D Section

Old Ivanhoe have sounded a warning to all other clubs following their big win over North Brunswick. Old Camberwell proved their opening form was not true when they easily accounted for Elsternwick. A good first quarter burst was sufficient for Heatherton to defeat an inconsistent St. Kevins while Preston continued on their winning way with a convincing victory over Bulleen United. In the other game Old Mentonians overwhelmed Coburg to lay aside their DeChene Oval hoodoo.

E Section

Brunswick confirmed their 1987 strength by defeating Old Geelong by ten points. West Brunswick recorded their first victory for nearly a season when they finished 14 points in front of Clayton while University High School Old Boys won their first E Section game (this time around) against Peninsula Old Boys. St. Bedes gave further evidence of their improvement when they defeated Powerhouse by over ten goals. In the other game State Bank added Old Essendon to their Oval 4 victim list with a twenty one point victory.

F Section

University Reds obviously appreciated the wide wings of the Harry Trott Oval as they convincingly defeated Commonwealth Bank. Aquinas again displayed their talents with a fifteen goal victory over LaTrobe University. Doveton was untroubled to defeat Old Carey who are taking time to adjust to the section. Williamstown CYMS won the 'contest of the west' by defeating Footscray by thirty eight points. St. Andrews scored their initial 1987 victory when they easily accounted for hapless A.N.Z. Bank. Whitefriars burst the St. Leonards bubble with an overwhelming victory at Donvale.

G Section

Old Scotch emerged victorious over Marcellin by almost five goals while St. Bernards defeated Old Melbourne by a similar margin. Kew & Port Colts staged an interesting game before Kew emerged victors by thirteen points. Collegians just fell in against Old Haileybury by four points. De La Salle had little trouble defeating GTV.9.

H Section

Eltham have stamped themselves as a force following their twenty goal victory over St. Kilda. Old Geelong had little difficulty accounting for Powerhouse/Balaclava while Old Brighton's inaccuracy prevented them having a wider winning margin against Therry. New club Richmond Central recorded their first V.A.F.A. victory against State Bank. Old Xaverians received little opposition from North Old Boys while St. Kevin's had the bye.

Under 19 Section 1

De La Salle scored their first 1987 win by ten points against Melbourne High School Old Boys. Old Xaverians turned a fifteen point deficit at half time into an eleven point victory against Old Paradians Green while Ormond's inaccuracy limited their margin over Collegians to eleven points. University Blues scored a big victory over Bulleen-Temp. in spite of their inaccurate kicking for goal. In the other game Marcellin were untroubled to defeat North Old Boys who have made a disappointing start to the season.

Under 19 Section 2

St. Bernards defeated Old Haileybury by three goals whereas Therry defeated Old Brighton by the huge margin of twenty three goals. In a game of contrasting score patterns Old Scotch drew with Old Melbourne. Both sides could have been fortunate or unfortunately . . . time alone will tell. Thomastown had little difficulty disposing of C.B.C. St. Kilda while northern based side Banyule had a twenty nine point victory over University Blacks.

Under 19 Section 3

Monash Blues had exactly twenty goals to spare against an undermanned Old Paradians Purple. In a similar result Caulfield Grammarians proved their worth with a big victory over Williamstown. The Ivanhoe & Fawkner game was much more evenly contested before the Magpies recorded a fifty point victory. Whitefriars gave warning they will be a force when they defeated Hampton Rovers by more than doubling their score.

Preview of April 25 games (Round 3)

D Section

Two inconsistent sides North Brunswick & St. Kevins meet on the Allard Reserve. At home I favour North Brunswick which I know will provide Alan Quaife with some pre match oratory. Long standing rivals Old Camberwell & Old Ivanhoe meet on the Barnard Reserve. Old Ivanhoe because of its greater consistency is my choice. Heatherton, an enigmatic side is at home to Preston who has shown good 1987 form. Preston should take the points again today. An interesting match at Bulleen should eventuate when Coburg visits. Neither side has won a 1987 game and my reason for selecting Bulleen United is based purely on home ground advantage. Old Mentonians visit Elsternwick and should win providing the narrow confines of Oval 2 do not restrict their teamwork too much.

E Section

Brunswick should record their third consecutive victory as Peninsula Old Boys do not appear strong in 1987. Neither does Clayton appear a strong 1987 side and for this reason I favour Old Geelong today. University High School Old Boys similarly should defeat Powerhouse who are not enjoying their first E Section season. Tigers at Oval 4, tabbies away, has been the sorry State Bank saga for many seasons and today at St. Bedes I select the home side. Old Essendon should prove too talented for West Brunswick in Royal Park.

F Section

Aquinas make the long westward trip to visit Williamstown CYMS. Based on their first two game performances I must select Aquinas. The battle of the Bankers sees A.N.Z. visit Commonwealth. I will 'stick with the strength' and select the 'Blue and Golds' at home. A close game can be expected at Bulleen when LaTrobe University visit Old Carey. Although Carey have not distinguished themselves this season I have a hunch they will win today. St. Andrews should prove too strong for Footscray I.T. who have yet to record a victory. Another interesting game will be that between St. Leonards & Doveton which will prove a good measure of St. Leonard's improvement. Despite this I favour Doveton. Whitefriars visit University Reds and should take the Sunday points.

G Section

Bloods & De La Salle should prove an interesting game although form points to a Blood victory. At home St. Bernard's should prove too talented for Old Scotch while Kew should be too strong for Monash Whites. At Bulleen G.T.V. 9 should be able to defeat Marcellin who have now shown much 1987 form. Port Colts will be out to avenge their second round defeat and I suspect Old Haileybury will be the ones to lose their game today. Long standing rivals Old Melbourne & Collegians meet in a game which Collegians, because of their better 1987 performances, should win.

H Section

Neither State Bank nor North Old Boys has an enviable 1987 record so I will stay with home ground advantage and select State Bank. Eltham should prove sufficiently talented to account for Old Geelong while Old Brighton & Old Xaverians appear fairly evenly matched. With no great confidence I select 'The Corcodiles' to defeat Old Brighton. St. Kilda at home may prove just too able for Richmond Central while St. Kevins & Therry should stage another close game. With no great confidence I select Therry.

Under 19 Section 1

De La Salle will prove too strong for North Old Boys who appear undermanned this season. I expect University Blues to be too strong for Melbourne High School Old Boys whereas I expect the visitors Old Paradians Green to return to the winning list when they play Marcellin. Old Xaverians will face another test against Ormond today. The Xaverians proved last week that they are a talented combination and I select them today. Bulleen-Templestowe await Collegians and I expect the combine to win.

Under 19 Section 2

Thomastown visit Old Melbourne and should return with the points. I expect St. Bernards to defeat Old Scotch & Therry on Round 2 form must be a strong chance against St. Kilda. However from experience I know how difficult it is for visitors to win on the Coughlin Oval so I select St. Kilda. Old Brighton should prove too strong for Banyule as should Old Haileybury for University Blacks.

Under 19 Section 3

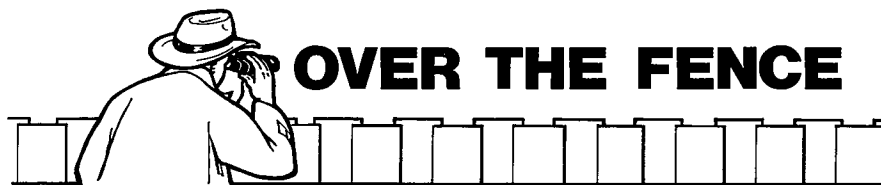

Caulfield Grammarians are a talented side and so they should take the points against Whitefriars. Fawkner will offer Williamstown more resistance than in Round 1 but I favour the 'C.Y.'s to win again. Ivanhoe may have gathered sufficient momentum to defeat Hampton Rovers in what could be the match of the day. Old Paradians Purple at Bundoora will be a stronger opponent than in Round 2 for Monash Blues. Given a return of injured players and home ground advantage I will show my optimism and select the Paradians.

'OTF' has also received a number of inquiries on the 'ORDER OFF' Rule and we're happy to publish the Rule to settle any arguments.

"In any match the field umpire(s) shall have the power to order from the field for a period of 15 minutes actual playing time any player reported by him, or any other umpire appointed by the Association to officiate at matches under its control, for any offence reportable under the laws of the game and no such player shall be replaced during the period he has been ordered from the field.

Provided

that where the umpire is of the opinion that the aforesaid period of 15 minutes is inappropriate because of the gravity of the reportable offence he may order the player from the field for the remainder of the game and no such player shall be replaced. Any player ordered from the field by the umpire as aforesaid for a period of 15 minutes playing time shall leave the ground through the interchange area and the time of his departure from the field shall be noted by the timekeepers. The official runner of the offending player's team or authorised representative of the coach shall be responsible for advising the timekeepers of the departure of the offending player from the field and for attending upon the timekeepers for the purpose of ascertaining when 15 minutes playing time has expired after the players departure from the field, and the timekeepers shall inform the Runner accordingly at the earliest practicable opportunity whereupon the offending player or an interchange player may take the field through the interchange area.

In the event of any player refusing to leave the field when so ordered by the field umpire the match shall be awarded to the opposing side.

MILESTONES AT WEST BRUNSWICK

All at West Brunswick congratulate Bob Taylor on playing his 150th game against Clayton last week. Whilst Bob has a very light frame and is not too tall, he is an excellent overhead mark who backs his judgement to pull down mark after mark every match he plays. When Bob first joined the club he couldn't kick over a jam jar with his wrong foot but through persistence and dedication has worked on his skills to become one of our best disposers of the ball on both sides of his body. Bob has been an odd job man for the club over the years, but has joined the committee in 1987 and his contribution is fantastic. Well done Bob on your career to date and we know there will be many more excellent games to come.

Today records Brett "concrete legs" Millan 100th game. Brett had been around the club for a few years being one of the few remaining players to play in our last U19's team. Brett is a very solid player who has spend most of his career playing in defence. His greatest attribute is his dedication and determination to attach the ball and help his team-mates. Brett always encourages every player on the ground and his voice can be heard all over the ground — even when he is in the back pocket. Well done Brett and we know Brett will be a great influence on the success the club will have in season 1987

100 UP FOR LATROBE UNI PRESIDENT

Latrobe Uni. President Barry Reichelt plays his 100 game on Saturday April 25th against Old Carey. Barry has been at the Club since 1981, and has been president since 1985. He is a tireless worker both on and off the field, and we wish him well on his 100th and for the rest of the season.

DRAGONS 250TH

At 11 years of age playing his first game in the Under 15s and playing every year since with the one Club. A player who has won many awards and was afforded life membership in 1980. To John Adams all at Clayton take the opportunity to congratulate John who is only 93 game off the club record, which is fortunately still growing for Terry but not for John. Well done John good luck with the coming season. 250 games John is a top effort and a worthy career milestone.

FAWKNER

All at Fawknor congratulate Terry Burke who achieved a major milestone by playing his 150th game for the Club against Old Trinity last Saturday. Terry has been a great contributor both on and off the field over the years and we look forward to having him around the club for many more to come. Well done Terry. Paul Tymms played his 50th game last week also, congratulations Paul.

5 YEARS AGO — 1982

Newcomers to B Section Bulleen-Templestowe had started the season well with two wins, the second coming against their 1981 stumbling block, Alphington who were unable to pace it with the Bullants after half time.

St. Kilda CBOC congratulated Gerard Spence on his 200th game. AJAX continued their good form in A Section with a convincing 27 point win against Old Scotch, 13.12.(90) to 8.15.(63). Best were Ritterman, Dewinter, Wiener (AJAX), and Sherwen, Morgan, Meadows (Old Scotch).

Banyule in EE, after a close contest with Old Trinity for 3 terms came away in the last term to win by 22 points, 18.17 to 14.19. Stars were Taylor, G.Hobba (4 goals), Legge (Banyule) and Robison, Douglas McPherson (Old T.).

50 games to Clint Hinchin (Coll.) 1987 Club President, George Pappas and Jack Nalpantidis (MHSOB).

10 YEARS AGO — 1977

"Heavy Harry" Simon Costello played his 100th game with Univ. Blacks.

A Section captains were J. Griffiths Caul.Gramm. C. Cunningham Noth O.B. B. Lyons De La Salle, M. Power Marcellin O.C. S. Maguire North O.B. S. Emerson Old Trinity, B. Bourne Ormond, G. Wade St. Bernards, R. Perrett Univ. Blacks and R. Hager Univ. Blues.

Richard "Reg" Elliott played his 200th game for Old Carey in a great career — captain 5 times and half-forward flanker for the state team in 1968. Richard is chairman of the Executive in 1987.

Old Brighton D Section led Old Camberwell by one point at half time and then kicked 2.11 to Old C's 11.3 in the second half to loose by 45 points. Best were Warkin, Ellis, D. Remington Old Camberwell and S. & J. Priestley, Millis Old Brighton.

TRAINER DON 150 GAMES

All at St. Bedes Old Collegians congratulate Donny 'Bayliss' Bailey on reaching his 150th game as head trainer at the Bedas. Don is in his ninth season and has actually officiated in nearly 300 games as he is also trainer for the reserves. Although Don's girth is not getting any smaller and his legs are not getting any younger he can still get into a healthy jog when attending an injured player on the field. Don's

15 YEARS AGO — 1972

Congratulations to Bruce Ferrall A.M.P. 200 games, Lee "Moose" Thomas & John "Dobber" Barker, both 150 games with UHS Old Boys.

After two rounds, 5 teams in A Section were undefeated, Univ. Blues & St. Bernards, second and third in 1971 both failed badly again, St. Bernards going down by 73 points to 1971 premiers, Ormond, and the Blues losing to Caulfield Grammarians by the same margin.

In a C Section thriller, St. Kilda C.B.C.'s final quarter burst of 6.3 failed by 5 points to give them victory against Assumption.

Tuck 8 goals, T. Kelly & Daly (Assumption) & Carey, Casey & Esmonde St. Kilda C.B.C. were best.

20 YEARS AGO — 1967

Nigel Kendall Caul. Gramm. played his 150th game in a career of 10 years covering a period in which the club has risen from D Section to A Section.

Goal Umpire Clarrie Paizis was congratulated on his Black Belt Judo award, only the 17th in Australia.

Coburg convincingly beat Old Xaverians to be only unbeaten team in A Section. Accuracy and inaccuracy — the winners 9.4, the losers 6.18.

Best were Merrick, Warfe, Dumanye, Coburg and A. Johnson, McKenzie, Bowden Old Xavs.

35 YEARS AGO — 1952

Old Melburnians with skilled forward play of Murray Morris (7 goals), a feature of their game, were too swift for Alphington and scored by 7 goals. Rovers, Ian Rutherford & Mike Courtney turned on sparkling football.

joyful nature makes him popular with the players however spill the training oil or swipe the scissors and your likely to have your head chewed off. Don has also been a committee member and is willing to give a hand behind the bar at socials where he shows the benefit of his vast experience with the 'pluto'.

Congratulations Don and here's hoping for 200 games.

P.S. Don is also a member of the O.B. Association.

TRAGIC DEATH OF JOHN BUTCHER CAULFIELD GRAMMARIANS

John Butcher (J.B.) was killed in a car accident on Thursday night, 9 April, 1987.

J.B. was a solicitor in practice in the eastern suburbs of Melbourne and is survived by his wife Sherician and children Samuel, John and Amy.

Caulfield Grammarians and his many friends in the VFA mourn his passing and deepest sympathy is extended to his family.

J.B. commenced his amateur career with the CGFC Juniors in 1967 and graduated to the Sniors in 1968. By 1969 he had taken over the full forward position and when he finished his career with CGFC at the end on 1978 had kicked over 700 goals for the Club. During his 12 years as a player the Club was in A Grade for 10 years and in B Grade for 2 years (1975/76). He was of course an important player in the 1970 A Grade Premiership team. His best tally for a season with CGFC was 87 goals in 1972.

In 1979 J.B. transferred to University Blacks and in 1980 he moved to Old Geelong Grammarians and achieved "A Ton" — 110 goals in a season.

Congratulations are extended to the following two players who have been stalwarts to the De La 3rd XVIII over the past 3 to 4 years. They are Guy Engel and Tony Lazzaro who in the first 2 matches this season registered their 50th games. Both players are well recognised through the Club XVIII comp. and now G Grade as they fill vital positions; Guy at CHF and Tony in the middle. All in the club hope they continue to carry on in the following years and register many more games and help us onto that elusive premiership.

Well done fella's and keep up the good work.

When University Blues stalwart Roger Curnow takes the field today against Old Scotch it will be for his 150th amateur game. He joined the "BLUES" in

He represented Victoria against Tasmania in 1975 (5 goals) and at the Australian Amateur Football Carnival in Adelaide in 1976 (4 goals against Tasmania and 5 against South Australia).

In addition to his prowess on the field J.B. was an able administrator being on the committee of CGFC for a number of years and holding the position of Executive Vice President in 1978.

He served on the Executive of the VAA from 1973/74 to 23.11.81 whilst still an active player. One frustrated full back asked if there was any additional penalty for striking a member of the Executive.

An A Grade Coach (Gus ?) who never conceded much when discussing the ability of the opposition is credited with the comment that J.B. was "one of those forwards who kicks 8 goals with 7 kicks". Like all true full forwards J.B. loved a goal and never shored after a game until every Caulfield goal was accounted for — "in case there are a few spares floating around".

Vale John Butcher — tell the new selectors you prefer full forward and that "other fellow" will be moved out to centre half forward.

John Wilson
C.G.

1978 after some 30 games with Hawthorn Reserves, before which he played for a short period with O.Carey. During his time at the University Roger has filled every big man position in the team with distinction, and last year saw him wearing the coveted No. 12 jumper of Captain of the "Blues" an honour well deserved. A most popular member he has represented Victoria in amateur football, an interrupted pre-season due to family responsibilities following the tragic loss of his father saw him playing with the reserves in the first match however with true spirit he fought his way back to Centre half-forward in the seniors where he was among the best players against Bull-Temp.

Today will be a proud day for his two greatest fans, his mother Fay and his grandfather Arthur Rennie.

THERRY

What a fine effort from the seniors in the last quarter of the game against St. Bernards last Saturday. During the final term Therry, down to 16 men and kicking against the wind, managed to maintain their ¾ time lead and defeat St. Bernards by 22 points. The result of this match demonstrates the cohesiveness that coach Bernie Dunn is able to gain from his players in any situation which is why he had been such a successful coach. Every player who represented Therry on Saturday must be commended for the spirit in which they fought the game out, and winning, when they could have so easily dropped their 'bundle' and been completely over-run by the opposition. With efforts like this it appears that Therry is destined for a very successful year.

SECOND MILESTONE AT CLAYTON FOR 1987

With John Adams playing his 250th game in the first game of the season at Clayton. Phillip Black has now finally reached his 100th game. Phillip has really only played regularly from 1984 although he started in 1972 with the Club. Phil through injury and employment has not only missed games in a season but missed seasons. He has still however always been around the Club helping. Well done Phil — Top effort — Congratulations from all at Clayton.

100 GAMES FOR O.E.G.

The Committee and Players of O.E.G. are very proud to announce that Guy Turner has played 100 games for us. Guy has shared the ups and downs of the Club and has always been to the forefront when it comes to helping on and off the field. In his first season with O.E.G. he received the best and fairest trophy for the Reserves. Since then he has been first ruckman, often under-rated by the opposition but not by us — showing this at the end of the season by collecting many Best & Fairest votes.

This year he has the honour of leading the team on to the field — Congratulations and thanks Captain Guy for your first 100 games for the Grammarians.

100 AT DOVETON

One of Doveton SJOC's most notorious players in goal-shark Glen "Muddy" Mallon marked his 100th game against Old Carey in the Reserves last week.

"Muddy" since joining the Club in the Gypsy Daze has been a loyal clubman and battled his way to fame as a leading full forward in the last four years, leading the F Section Goal kicking in 1983 with 90 and 1985 with 125. "Muddy's" efforts at the goal front have been an important start in the drive of Doveton SJOC but with the other avenues for goal in the senior team currently proving themselves, Muddy's stint with the understudies may go a few weeks more yet.

However it is players of Muddy's character on which the JOC's have been built, and we are sure to have this Superboot for a few more seasons yet. Congratulations Muddy.

WRONG WAY GO BACK

Your lump sum payout ought to be earning super-high interest.

If you've recently invested, or are about to invest, your lump sum superannuation payout in a low interest return fund, we suggest you think again.

You may well be cheating yourself of considerable extra interest and thousands of extra dollars.

For information on how to move your money into our high return Super Guard Portfolio, contact your local National Mutual agent now.
