

Chief Executive Officer

Victorian Amateur Football Association

Founded in 1892, the Victorian Amateur Football Association (VAFA) comprises 75 clubs and is the largest single senior football league in Australia. The VAFA is the leading Amateur Football competition in Australia and all players play, for the love of the game. The competition has 250 teams and over 11,000 registered players and play all over metropolitan Melbourne.

The CEO is responsible for developing the VAFA in accordance with its stated values and driving the commercial strategies in a changing environment that will see the redevelopment of its headquarters and the introduction of a women's competition in 2017. In addition to leading the staff, the CEO will effectively consult with a range of external stakeholders including the clubs, AFL, AFL Victoria, Government, members and volunteers to grow the competition.
