RESERVE WOMEN COACH

La Trobe University Football Club are seeking applicants for the position of the Reserve Women Coach for the 2019 season.

Based on-campus at La Trobe University in Bundoora, the club is entering an exciting year of football. We are a club which is returning to its home base, with brand new facilities and ground as a part of a sports precinct re-development at La Trobe University. LTUFC is seeking a motivated coach with an emphasis on the following traits:

- AFL Level 1 Coaching Accreditation (or the desire to attain).
- Ability to develop and motivate Women's Footballers at the Club.
- Work in conjunction with the Women's Senior Coach.
- Recruit Players to the Club.
- Implement club goals, vision and continue to build the Clubs culture.
- Develop Footballers to play Senior Football.
- Develop player skills and general football ability.
- Continue to uphold the Club's reputation as an enjoyable place for young men and women to socialise and exercise through participation in football.

The Club has high expectations for its future and is looking forward to developing a strong partnership with the Men's and Women's Coaching staff to continue to grow as a Club.

Please send all applications in email to President, Samantha Greene (president@ltufc.org), by Friday 22nd February.
