COVID Update, Mental Health Round & 2021 VAFA Holmesglen U19 Footy Festival

COVID – Rd10 Thanks

Strange old times these – last week’s VAFA Rd10 having been played with no crowds following State Government announcements related to easing of restrictions, was certainly an odd way to return to VAFA football.

We would like to thank the whole VAFA community for their assistance in relation to staying home last week as we gear towards, hopefully, a ‘normal’ round of matches this weekend.

As difficult as the last month has been, we continue to look forward, with as much certainty as we can, to the remainder of the VAFA season and ensuing finals.

Mental Health Awareness Round

This weekend the VAFA celebrates its Mental Health Awareness Round. Our long-term mental health partner Thick & Thin and a recent additional partner in this space, Tackle Your Feelings, have combined to provide mental health support and services to all of our clubs to assist the entire VAFA community.

Unfortunately, the planned Mental Health Breakfast set for this Wednesday June 16 had to be postponed until July 28 due to the recent State Government COVID restrictions. The breakfast was planned to launch and create further awareness of our partnerships in the mental health space, with the long-term view of developing a VAFA Mental Health Strategy.

Mental health is such a significant challenge for society in general and the VAFA, by partnering with both Thick & Thin and Tackle Your Feelings, recognises this and will continue to support clubs and our community in this space.

For more details on both partners and the upcoming Mental Health Breakfast please refer to the For The Love Of The Game section of this edition of the Amateur Footballer or visit VAFA.com.au.

U19 football in the spotlight

This Sunday (June 27) will see the VAFA host all U19 Premier teams at Elsternwick Park as a celebration of VAFA U19 football.

The proposal stemmed from the U19 Advisory Group who have suggested showcasing the future of the VAFA at one venue, allowing the Premier U19 teams to be supported by all members of their respective clubs.

VAFA U19 football continues to flourish and is the life blood of our competition. In 1981 there were (3) divisions with (31) U19 teams, representing 30 clubs, twenty years later in 2001 there were (4) divisions with (42) U19 teams, representing (39) Clubs and in 2021 we proudly have (5) divisions, with (52) U19 teams representing (39) clubs across our competition.

An interesting statistic is that of the (52) U19 teams fielded in 2021, of the (30) Premier Clubs (26) of are represented with U19 teams and of our (36) Divisional Clubs (26) have an U19 team – clearly highlighting the importance of fielding U19 teams by way of assisting in club sustainability.

We would like to acknowledge our Major Partner Holmesglen Institute who continue to support and assist in the further development of VAFA U19 football, a most important element of the future sustainability of our clubs.

Special thanks to the foresight of the U19 Advisory Group and in particular Matt Collister (VAFA Football Operations Manager) and the whole Football & Umpiring department for their implementation of an exciting new initiative for the VAFA.

If you are free this Sunday, pop on down to Elsternwick Park to see the best of VAFA U19 football on show.

See you at the Footy.

We would like to thank the whole VAFA community for their assistance in relation to staying home last week

Field day for Stephens as Caulfield enter 4

St Bernard's claimed their third win of the season as they defeated Collegians by 49 points at the Snake Pit. After giving up the first three goals of the match, the Snow Dogs kicked into gear with the next eight before running away with another eight goals to six in the second half. Charlie Vague kicked three goals and was awarded the Base Compression Man of the Match, while Marcus Holland kicked three of his own. Adam Bentick made his return to footy with two goals and plenty of disposals while Viv Michie, Nick Canny and Oli Jackson (4 goals) were their best. The Lions suffered four significant injuries to Sam Hibbins, Viv Michie, Alex Morgan and Luke McCleary, the latter of which forced an early end to the game as an ambulance was required for his injured elbow. The Snow Dogs will be up against it this weekend when they travel to Toorak Park but will be buoyed by their Round 1 performance when they lost to Xavs by 32 points. Without Bentick. Collegians, without question, will enter this round with some new faces as they recalibrate with a home game against the ladder leaders.

Nine goals from Will Lewis steered Old Brighton to their second win over Uni Blues in 2021, running out 46-point winners at Brighton Beach Oval. Leading by 34 points at the main break, the Tonners were tested by the Blues as they reduced the margin to two points, before Lewis led them to an eight-goal final term. Callan Wellings was a standout alongside Lewis while Jack Stephens and Lachlan Swaney were the best for the Blues. The third-placed Tonners won't have far to stray this weekend when they take on OM's – a game that could potentially put one early dagger in OM's finals hopes. The Blues host the Fields to try and arrest fourth spot back, and that game will be the RSN Carnival Match of the Round.

Caulfield Grammarians entered the top four and made it five wins in a row when they ran out 76-point winners against Old Trinity at Glenhuntly Oval. The Fields led by 23 points at half-time but accelerated with nine goals to one in the third term. Lachlan Stephens was the star of the show with nine majors while Brett Eddy booted a season-high seven. Harry Thompson and Christos Manoussakis fought valiantly for the T's. The win means the Fields leapfrog the Blues into the four. They could solidify that position with an away win at the Uni Oval this weekend as they try to make it six straight wins, while the T's will host Scotch in what could be another winnable game if things click.

Old Xaverians proved too strong for Old Scotch with a 57-point win at Camberwell Sports Ground. Leading by 32 at the final break, Xavs made sure of things with four unanswered goals in the final term. Jack Hewitt kicked a season-high five goals for Xavs, while Hayden Troiani continued his outstanding form. Will Clark and Mackenzie Rivett were the best for Scotch – the latter playing just his second game this season. Xavs will host Bernard's and try to maintain the pressure on SKOB in top spot, while Scotch could put an early end to relegation talks if they can notch their fourth win of the season against the T's.

Three straight goals in the fourth quarter helped St Kevin's OB to their seventh win of the season, defeating Old Melburnians by 22 points at TH King Oval. Leading by just four points at three quarter time, SKOB finished in a canter with Phil Edgar (4) and Tom Jok (3) leading the charge on the scoreboard. Edgar and Josh Wallis were named best for SKOB, while Gus Borthwick and Sean Heatherington starred for OM's. SKOB may not be flying but they come up against the embattled Collegians at the Trott, while OM's will try to keep their finals hopes alive against Brighton at EP.

Blackers leap Bloods as top 4 crystallisers on the turn for home

Off the back of special performances from Nick Hay (six goals) and Lachlan Huntington (five) in a 79-point demolition of Fitzroy, the University Blacks elevated themselves to top of the table as the race to Round 18 begins. Down star ruckman Josh Steadman and reliable forward target Alastair Robbins, the Blackers still managed to put through a season-high 19-majors and 36-scoring shots en-route to their largest margin of victory since the 2019 semi-final against Beaumaris. St Bedes/Mentone Tigers are next up for Uni who are fresh off a heart-breaking red-time defeat at the hands of Haileybury, going down by four-points after Durras Seccull played the villain and secured the Tigers second-straight defeat in the final stages. Uni got the chocolates over Bedes earlier in the year by 22-points with the aforementioned Robbins kicking three while James Mangoni bagged six in a best affeld performance. Though the Tigers 'can' score the ball at a decent clip, the University Blacks constrictive defensive line will make life incredibly hard and should be the difference in this one, with the Blackers leaving Brindisi Street with their third straight victory. Prediction: University Blacks def St Bedes/Mentone Tigers by 32-points.

Speaking of St Bedes, Old Haileyburians were pushed to the absolute edge by the Tigers, and it took an incredible snap from superstar Durras Seccull in the final few minutes to push the Bloods ahead and hold on to record their seventh straight win. Missing key pieces Josh Gasparini and Riley Thompson, as well as second leading goal kicker Sam Loewe, Haileybury still managed to squeeze out another win, continuing to build on their largest win streak since 2005. Fitzroy returned from their three-week high after Donovan Toohey's round seven heroics, running into the buzzsaw that is University Blacks, going down handily by 79-points, their largest defeat since Round 16 2019. Despite getting some big names back after the hiatus, the likes of Jack Dalton and Tom Wilson are still missing from the regular side, but I still suspect the Roys' will be a lot more competitive going forward despite this result. The Bloods defeated Fitzroy by 18-points in Round 5, a game that saw Durras Seccull and Jack McKay each kicking three apiece. Another tough ask for the Roys after the break, going against another high-powered locomotive in Haileybury that have no issue scoring the ball, an important factor that Fitzroy have a hard time stopping. Prediction: Old Haileyburians def Fitzroy by 49-points.

The boys from Banksia picked up right where they left off after the break with their elite defensive line continuing to hold their opponents to ridiculously low totals, with De La Salle the only side managing to put more than 55-points on Beaumaris so far this year. Holding their round ten opponents in AJAX to just 27-points, it marks their second lowest total allowed all season, bested by only their opponents this weekend in Parkdale Vultures, who were held to just 14-points in Round 3. Still missing Jackson Voss, Sam Gibbins and Riley Virtue from the side, the Sharks depth has been put on display and they have not faulted. The Vultures put up a gallant fight in their round ten matchup with Carey, going down by just 17-points despite missing their leading goal-kicker Ryan Macdermid. It obviously hasn't been a year to remember for Parkdale but maybe they can use this effort as something to build on. The aforementioned clash between these two sides in round three saw the Sharks run out 123-point winners, and though results this time around may be similar as the Sharks are arguably better than they were earlier in the year, lets hope the Vultures can keep this competitive. Prediction: Beaumaris def Parkdale Vultures by 117-points.

A record-breaking weekend for De La Salle as they decimated Williamstown CYMS by 128-points, their largest margin of victory in over a decade. Paired with this, De La also managed their highest scoring total in over ten years, passing their 176-point total in Round 12 2012. Despite missing star Hugh Nicholson for the clash, Brodie McLaughlin (seven majors) and Adrian Indovino (six) managed to shoulder the load en-route to De La's fifth consecutive victory, tying their longest winning streak since 2015. Tasked with derailing this unstoppable machine this weekend is Old Carey, who ended their three-game losing streak with a 17-point win over the Vultures. Running out without key players Ben Jepsen, Will Mitchell and Henry Chapman, the Panthers could be forgiven for not being overly convincing in the win, but the four-points is what they came for, and the victory lifts them out of the relegation zone and into sixth. Indovino was arguably the deciding factor in their round six clash which saw him kick four in De La's 19-point win. The main difference between these two sides is their ability to put the ball between the big sticks, and fresh off a historic performance at Dairy Bell, it wouldn't be a shock to see the Blues put another large total on the board here. Prediction: De La Salle def Old Carey by 41-points.

Moving on from the perpetrators of the Destruction at Dairy Bell, the victims in Williamstown CYMS also set some records they may want to forget. This was the CYs largest defeat since Round 15 2012, and their largest score allowed since Round 1 2015, though it was clearly a terrible afternoon, a chance at redemption awaits this weekend as they return home to Fearon for a clash with AJAX. Bradley Tucker is still absent from the side, so hopefully he isn't too far away and can return to boost the midfield depth. Limited to just 27-points in round ten, their lowest score since Round 18 2018, the Jackas have been struggling to put points on the board all season long, averaging a mere 48-points per game. Paired with this, AJAX hold the competitions lowest percentage in-front of goal, converting only 38.9% of shots they take (51/131). Despite all of this, the Jackas still have a strong defensive structure in place and can lean on this to keep things close. This one should be relatively close but look for the CYs to get revenge on their former Premier C counterparts and get the win at home. Prediction: Williamstown CYMS def AJAX by 10-points.

In consecutive games, Mazenod has beaten Hampton – this time to the tune of 83 points at Boss James Reserve. It is official. The Nodders are coming. Hampton did a lot right. Samuel Michael had less influence, and the Carnovale/Perkins tandem had great individual games. The Rovers issue was scoring against this Mazenod defence which once again held its own against the best offensive team in the competition. This week it was the Nodders who put on all the scoreboard pressure. Chris Campbell, who was held goalless in their first matchup, kicked six on route to a best on ground performance, and Mitchel D'Angelo continued his stellar form with five of his own. Mazenod has now moved into the top four after ironically winning four on the trot. They will host Ormond this week in a massive 3rd vs 4th matchup. The Rovers have now dropped three straight and things will not get any easier as they look to regain some form against the unbeaten Monash Blues.

UHS-VU have now won two in a row against Preston beating them by 13 points at Brens Oval. This one will hurt the Bullants more than any game they have played this year. Preston held a lead at every break but the final, as a fierce Vultures line-up piled on 6.7 to 3.3 in the final quarter to sneak out winners. Patrick Brookes was terrific kicking three in a best on ground performance while James Healey and William Thompson were prolific down back. Patrick Vanin played out of his mind kicking five for the winless Bullants and Sean Calcedo made a push into form starring in the midfield. UHS-VU will travel to Old Ivanhoe this week in what should be a cracking game. The Vultures only lost by 21 points last time these two met, and with their newfound form, Old Ivanhoe will be in for a solid test. Preston will host Old Geelong who will smell blood after their great win against Ormond.

Revenge will taste sweet for Old Geelong as they ran over Ormond by 15 points at Como Park. This game was high pressure and high intensity from the outset with neither team able to separate themselves from the other after three quarters. Four straight goals in the 4th were too much for the Monders who were not able to match the Oggers run and tackle pressure in the last. The key position players won this one for Old Geelong. I flagged in my preview that the addition of Christian Hatzis may prove the difference, and with six goals to his name, it is hard to argue that he did not have a massive influence on this game. Ryan Kemp down back was best on ground and ruckman Jack Sheridan was everywhere all day. The Monders have now dropped two on the trot, and given they beat the Oggers by 93 points only two matches ago, will have some reflecting to do. Tom Buckley was outstanding for the Monders and ruckman Harry Bingham found some great form kicking three while having an influence all around the ground. The Monders will face a massive test this week when they travel to Mazenod. The Nodders' defence has been in great form, and Ormond has been struggling to score. The game will, however, be won in the middle. If you have some spare time this Saturday, I would be making my way to Central Reserve. The Oggers only beat the Bullants by 27 in round three, so it should be an interesting matchup as they look to win three straight when they travel to Preston.

Monash stays undefeated as they walk away 51-point winners against Old Mentonians. Inaccurate kicking plagued the Panthers again, and the Blues made them pay throughout the day. Daniel Lawson was best on ground leading the best defence in the league and Daniel Easson showed no signs of slowing in form as he put on a clinic in the middle. Old Mentone put in a good fight led by Tom McCarthy and Jarrad Kay, but again are still searching for some consistency up forward. The Panthers will travel to Marcellin in a revenge game. After blowing a six-goal lead in round five, Old Mentone will fancy their chances against a wounded Marcellin outfit trying to avoid relegation. Monash will host Hampton this week. Their round three matchup was one for the ages with the Blues escaping four-point winners. The Rovers are down on form and looking for a big scalp. This could be a major danger game for the premiership favourites if they are not careful.

Old Ivanhoe took away an important four points beating Marcellin by 18 points at Marcellin College. The match was tight all day, and most will agree that the Marcellin midfield was on top, but in the end, a four-goal to one last quarter saw the Hoers run away victors. Major disappointment again for the Eagles who sit 2-6 without losing a game by more than 21 points all year. Patrick Howe and Jordan Perry were terrific ensuring Marcellin got first hands on the pill, but the game was won by Old Ivanhoe's key position players. Luke Velluto in the ruck, Jaryd Robertson at CHB and Mal Mitriss (who was best on ground) at CHF proved too much for a Marcellin side that lacks size. The Hoers will host a red-hot UHS-VU, and despite the Vultures form, the Hoers will see this game as an opportunity to finally move into the top four. Marcellin now sits on the cusp of relegation and will see their matchup this week with Old Mentone as a must win. Sneaking away victors in their first game will give the Eagles some confidence that they can get their season back on track.

ROUND 11 TIPS

- Mazenod v Ormond
- Old Ivanhoe v UHS-VU
- Monash v UHS-VU

Tackling Mental Health

Why is mental health important?

- Mental ill health is a significant challenge for society, with 1 in 5 people likely to experience a diagnosable mental health condition in their lifetime.
- Most football clubs will have 80-100 players so there's likely to be multiple people who are experiencing mental health challenges at any point in time.
- Football communities are traditionally supportive and nurturing environments, and clubs have an opportunity to create an environment whereby the people within it feel safe and comfortable to have conversations about mental health.

Thick & Thin (T&T) is a player led initiative that has been increasing awareness of mental health within the VAFA since 2015. T&T looks to events across the football year to encourage clubs to openly plan and strategize for clubs that are inclusive and proactive in approaching mental health and wellbeing. Community sport plays a major role in maintaining positive mental health for many people.

Tackle Your Feelings (TYF) is a free mental health training program for local footy clubs and coaches that is supporting the VAFA in 2021. The program aims to give coaches the tools to understand, recognise and manage their response to signs of mental ill-health. TYF is a collaboration between the AFL Coaches Association, AFL Players' Association and Zurich Insurance/Z Zurich Foundation

Through both Thick & Thin and Tackle Your Feelings, the VAFA hope to build capacity within communities, creating multiple connectors to help bring appropriate support to those in need.

Coaches are so influential to the lives of their players, so they are uniquely placed to have a positive impact on the mental health of their players. Players in their own right are leaders, and also have influence on the peers and teammates.

Across two training sessions and a game day, coaches spend a lot of time with players so they are also in a position to be able to recognise and respond to someone if they are experiencing mental ill-health

More information can be obtained by emailing, Sean Walker (VAFA Club Development) sean@vafa.com.au

The two organisations are joining forces to bring you the biggest and most informative mental health breakfast for all VAFA clubs.

The breakfast event is being hosted at the MCG on Wednesday 28 July and will include:

- A panel discussion featuring past and present AFL and AFLW players and officials including the great Neil Balme, Dylan Buckley and Ellie Blackburn;
- A presentation on mental health initiatives that clubs can implement;
- An overview of the Tackle Your Feelings Program; and
- A show bag for each club containing information on support services and other resources.

We welcome all players, officials and supporters of community sport to come along to the breakfast.

Please contact the Thick & Thin team at thickandthinvic@gmail.com if you have any questions.

Please note that ticket sales will finish on Wednesday, 21 July if not sold out prior. This event is capped at 250 attendees so get in early to avoid disappointment.

BCNA Update

Last week, we announced a total of 19K raised by VAFA clubs for Breast Cancer Network Australia over our Round 5 PLAY4 BCNA Round. Well, far be it for us to be wrong BUT the funds keep rolling in and that total continues to soar with the latest figures showing VAFA clubs have raised closer to 26K – 12K more than any other league or association. Amazing from our community!

Albert Park induct Will Ransom as Life Member

With club functions being cancelled and postponed due to the current COVID restrictions, it's fantastic to see that club personnel are still being recognised for their outstanding contribution.

The latest to fall into this category – Will Ransom from Albert Park. One of Falcon's finest, Ransom will receive Life Membership of the club this weekend after arriving over a decade ago from Tyabb.

According to the club, it was a quick Google search that led Ransom to the Falcons where he has since played 111 games (21 in the Seniors and 91 in the Reserves) and kicked five goals.

"Since the beginning, Will has brought down many of our finer players, including several of his own brothers along the way," the club said.

"Will instantly became involved with the club committee, offering his services for a collective eight years.

"He co-coached the Reserves team with Nick Thurley in 2018 and has been a major sponsor through his business, ModTech, for seven consecutive years."

The VAFA congratulates Will on his outstanding contribution to the Falcons and his resulting Life Membership.

Shining Bright as Chompers' Teeth

For those tuning into the Sunday Footy Show on Channel 9 this week, they would have noticed the shoutout from host Tony Jones and the panel re: the VAFA's Live Stream of Marcellin vs Old Ivanhoe. The VAFA commentators, Mitch Dyer and Josh Heriot, were in the spotlight when TJ's son, Mitchell, took a great mark across half-back and Dyer unleashed a centimetre perfect "Jones is shining bright as Chompers' teeth" – To watch the segment, head to the VAFA Twitter page or to watch a replay of the entire match, visit the VAFA Facebook page!

Anytime Fitness Women's Rising Star Nominee

Carla Barics (Aquinas OCFC)

Congratulations to Aquinas defender, Carla Barics, who has been named the Round 10 Anytime Fitness Women's Rising Star.

Carla was best afield in her side's 44-point win over Richmond Central on Saturday, making it five appearances in the best players from her past six matches.

What the club said:

"Carla started her football career at East Ringwood Juniors in 2017 and crossed to Aquinas JFC in 2020 for the U18 season.

She has always been interested in footy and her dad started a new team as coach so she could play with friends.

Her intercept marking in the backline and attack on the footy is like Brisbane Lions CHB Kate Lutkins and add her exceptional foot skills as well she resembles Tom Stewart from Geelong.

Carla's strengths include her attack on the ball both on the ground and in the air, intercept marking, exceptional foot skills and decision making. She is renowned for her foot skills, always hits a target coming out of D50

As an 18yo she is certainly more than holding her own at senior level and never takes a backward step. She has a highly competitive nature and elite skills which makes her a real threat."

Mecwacare Men's Rising Star Nomination

Benjamin Overman (St Bernard's)

The VAFA congratulates Ben Overman from St Bernard's after he was named the Round 10 Mecwacare Men's Rising Star following his outstanding performance during the Snow Dogs' 49-point win against Collegians.

What the club said:

"Ben began at St Bernard's in our Junior Auskick program when he was five years old. He's deceptively quick, a long and usually accurate kick – much like Adelaide's Lachlan Sholl.

Ben's grandfather established the St Bernard's Junior Club section. His father Jack played over 100 Senior games and was Vice Captain and his uncle is the current VAFA Board member and Treasurer Mick Overman.

He continues to wear his father's old St Bernard's apparel such as 15-year-old club polo tops and thinks he has a double degree in camping - however his teacher was Russell Coight!"

Top 4 surging ahead in Division 1

Prahran Assumption cemented their spot in the top four with a 13-point victory over PEGS at Toorak Park. The Two Blues trailed by seven points at half-time before captain James Musster led the charge in a match-winning third term. Riley Hogan (2) and Callum Wilson (2) kicked multiples on an otherwise low-scoring day, while Oscar Bales and Alec Binns were impressive for the Bombers. Prahran retains a two-game buffer over Therry in fifth spot, while PEGS sit sixth and three games outside the four.

Therry moved into fifth spot on the ladder following their 27-point victory over Old Peninsula at Fawknor Reserve. It was very much a see-sawing affair with both sides winning two quarters each, but it was the dominance of Therry in Q1 and Q3 where they piled on 10 goals to two that gave them the edge. Jarrod Egglestone and Kane O'Halloran booted four goals each for the Lions, while Adam Smrdel continued his outstanding individual form for the Pirates.

Old Camberwell returned to form after suffering their first loss of the year in Round 7, bouncing back with a 27-point win over St Mary's Salesian. Leading by eight points at quarter time, the Wellers stamped their authority in the second term with five goals to one proving the difference. Robert Deev and Cameron Wilson were once again named in the best for the Wellers, while teammate Caine Hillier slotted four goals for the second match in a row. William Coten dished out his second BOG performance for the Saints in three games as Henry Wong gave his best for the year.

Whitefriars claimed their second win over Brunswick this season as they ran out 37-point winners at Gillon Oval. Leading by nine points after a tight first half, the Friars kicked away with five goals to one in the third term. James Connellan kicked three in a BOG display while Angus Hands (2) and Christian Feher (2) also had a day out. Liam Weightman and Patrick O'Donoghue flew the flag as the best for NOBS in what was their eighth loss of the season. Friars remain in second spot with seven wins and just the one loss.

Another side who claimed their seventh win of the year, Kew ran over Oakleigh by six goals at Scammell Reserve. The Bears by 14 points at three quarter time but finished in style with five goals to one in the final term. Jeremy Hannan and Bailey Gilbert were the best of the Bears while Nathan Sambevski kicked a game-high four goals. Still without Aaron Cloke, the Krushers relied on Zach Thomas to boot three majors and Edward Standish to continue his fantastic form.

PREVIEW

St Mary's vs Brunswick

The Saints were flying prior to their Round 10 loss against the ladder leaders but will fancy their chances to re-enter the winner's column against Brunswick. It was a thriller the last time these sides met in Round 6, with the Saints holding onto a two-point victory. NOBS will head into the match looking and feeling confident that they can claim their first win, especially after kicking more goals than the Saints in Round 6.

Old Camberwell vs Therry Penola

With Egglestone and O'Halloran firing, the Lions have moved into fifth spot and just two games outside the four. They will, however, be up against the best side in the competition and will need to improve upon the season-low 3.8 (26) they offered up against the Wellers in Round 5. On the other side of things, the Wellers have two sides hot up their proverbial wind tunnel and, when they did win in Round 5, it was their highest score of the season 17.13 (115).

Old Peninsula vs Prahran Assumption

With their last two wins against PEGS and Old Camberwell, Prahran Assumption is hot to trot in Division 1. Their 42-point victory over Old Peninsula in Round 5 was their second-highest win of the year. The Pirates well valiant against Therry over the weekend but offered up another score in the 50s – the sixth round in a row of 55 points or less. They need to find goals and won't be buoyed by the fact the Two Blues have the third tightest defence in the competition.

Kew vs PEGS

A man needs to know his limitations and for Kew, it certainly ain't in front of goal after they kicked another 100+ score – their third in the past five rounds. Nathan Sambevski (18), Richard Wilton (17) and Ned Waters (14) are sharing the spoils, while Matt Sharkey (12) and Michael Hannan (11) aren't far behind. PEGS need a win to stay in touch with the top four (they're now three games below) but will be happy with their defensive effort over the past two weeks, keeping Brunswick to 52 and Prharan to 62 despite the losses.

Whitefriars vs Oakleigh

The last time these two met was only three matches ago when the Friars escaped with a 13-point victory. In fact, the 9.9 (63) from Friars was their lowest score of the season. In saying that, the Krushers have scored over 78 just once this year so will need to find avenues to goal outside of Aaron Cloke.

Aquinas draw Raider Blood

Aquinas claimed the upset of the round, securing their second win of the year with a two-point victory over Old Paradians at Garvey Oval. The Bloods trailed by 24 points at half-time before they dominated the second half with seven goals to three. Matthew Aver was the match-winner for the Bloods with a bag of five and BOG performance, while Daniel Foley and Connor O'Brien chipped in with two each. In just their second loss of the year, the Raiders were well-served by James Penny and Blair Healy.

In another thriller, Glen Eira managed to keep their unbeaten record intact with a hard-fought eight-point win over Manningham Cobras. The Gryphons trailed by four points at the main break before kicking four unanswered goals in the third. However, the game was far from over as the Cobras booted two straight in the final term to bring the margin within two goals. Stuart Carey and Samuel Schiller were standouts for Glen Eira, while Ayden Sukkel was best for the Cobras. Kane Maghamez top-scored with three goals for Manningham.

West Brunswick delivered their strongest performance of the season when they defeated Yarra Old Grammarians by 93 points at Ransford Oval. Nine unanswered goals set the tone in the opening term, and it only got better for the Westies as they piled on a further 11 goals to six thereafter. Stephen Wall had a day out with eight goals, while Stirling Reeve was named their best player. No results had been submitted by Yarra at the time of publication.

Ash Close joined MHSOB's Ashan Wijayakumara at the top of the goal kicking leader board after he booted 10 goals to help Ivanhoe to a 61-point win over Power House. Trailing by five points after a tight opening term, the Magpies kicked six goals to two in the second before finishing the game with seven unanswered. Wayne Schultz was the next best in front of goal with three for Ivanhoe, while Brendan Wright and Fiachra O'Deasmhunaigh starred for the House.

MHSOB collected the four points on the weekend following a seniors and reserves forfeit from Bulleen Templestowe.

PREVIEW

Aquinas vs Bulleen Templestowe

Aquinas will look to make it two wins a row for the first time this year when they host Bulleen Templestowe at Aquinas College. It was a 158-point demolition when they met in Round 2 and after the results in R10, the Bullants will be up against it again.

Yarra Old Grammarians vs MHSOB

YOG's came out of the layoff and faced a rampaging Westies, and things won't get any easier with MHSOB coming off a further bye round following BT's forfeit. The Unicorn's forward 50 is the scariest thing in Division 2 and with YOG's averaging 104 points against, it could be a tough day.

Old Paradians vs Power House

The Raiders suffered only their second loss of the season last week, while the House have just the one win. With their backs up against the wall, it's great to see the House welcome back star Fiachra O'Deasmhunaigh as they try to make it two straight losses for the Raiders.

Ivanhoe vs Glen Eira

The Glen Eira express is stopping all stations to an undefeated season, unless the scariest forward 50 in Div 2 gets a hold of them in Round 16. While Ash Close's form gives the Magpies a chance, expect another triumph for the Gryphons.

Manningham vs West Brunswick

In the final game of Round 11, the in-form Cobras (who almost toppled the Gryphons) come up against the equally red-hot Westies coming off a genuine thumping of YOG's. 32 points separated the two sides when they met in Round 2, with the Westies proving too strong.

Hawks claim close one, Bulls rage

A fierce and fiery rivalry is brewing between Emmaus St Leo's and Hawthorn as the latter claimed a four-point victory in a thriller at Bennettswood Reserve on Saturday. The Animals burst out of the gate and kicked five goals to one in the first quarter before the Hawks gained control in the second, snagging six majors and limiting their opponents to just one to take an 11-point lead into the main break. The second half would continue to be an arm-wrestle subtly leaning in Hawthorn's direction until an Animals goal saw them in the lead with minutes to go, before the Hawks wrangled it back to hold on in a final term that was not for the fainthearted. Justin Raiti was a clear standout for the winners with three goals and Luke McLeod found plenty of the ball. Matt Hill (3) starred for Emmaus St Leo's, as did Lawrence Virgo (2) and Harry Davis (2), while Jonathan Greensides (1) took top honours.

North Brunswick had ten individual goalkickers on the weekend as they systematically dismantled Albert Park by 157 points at Allard Park. It's hard to know which part of the game hurt the Falcons more as they went scoreless to the Bulls' 13.14.92 at halftime, before finishing the game with two of their own goals on the board from Brett Tottenham and Daniel Young. Marcus Watt (2) was named best on for North Brunswick, while seven of his teammates were multiple goal scorers - with Rhys Mehlstaubler (4), Patrick Notaro (4), Keary Mourelatos (3), Jake Notaro (3) and John Tucker (3) all getting on the board in a big way. For Albert Park, Alistair Lupo took top honours in a disappointing day for his side. On a brighter note, the Falcons claimed their first reserves victory of the season.

Parkside suffered their second loss of the season when they travelled to Kevin Bartlett Reserve on Saturday. The Snakes got out to an early lead in the first quarter before the Red Devils got back within ten points going into the halftime break. Only two goals were scored in the third quarter and they were both for Richmond Central, giving Parkside some work to do in the final term. The Snakes held onto the lead despite a five-goal to three quarter, bringing about their fifth win of the season. Jake Munro and Jack Bilson both kicked three each for the home side to keep them close to the top of the divisional goalkicking tally, while Matthew Lammeretz named their best. In Simon Mackie's absence, Shane Doherty (3) and Jai Swainger (2) were the Red Devils' only multiple goal scorers as Michael Romano (1) took top honours.

It was a game of serious lead changes when Canterbury made the trek to face Westbourne Grammarians at Westbourne Grammar. An 18-point lead to the Warriors at quarter-time quickly turned into a 29-point deficit by the main break as the Cobras piled on seven unanswered goals. It was then Westbourne's turn to snag six goals while keeping their opponents goalless as they took a slight buffer into the last quarter, with Canterbury going down by 22 points at the final siren. The home side had nine individual goalscorers, with Leigh Reddrop (2) taking top spot on the best players list, and Ali Eqbal, Ben Johnson and Kelsey Rameka all kicking two each of their own. For the Cobras, Thomas Lowden kicked three, Arun Panjwani two, while Ben Jose (1) took top honours.

Emmaus St Leo's will travel to Westbourne Grammar this weekend to face the Warriors, who are at home for the second game in a row. The Animals are coming off a close loss, while the Warriors will look to consolidate a good win.

For the first Sunday game of the year, Hawthorn will welcome Canterbury to Box Hill City Oval as the Cobras look to rebound after their round 10 loss. The Hawks are aiming to strengthen their stranglehold on the top spot on the ladder and get their eighth win of the season in a special WINGS Mental Health Match.

The winless Falcons will host a Richmond Central side fresh off a win against a top 2 side at Bill Woodfull Oval. The Snakes sit two games clear in fourth on the ladder, but will want to utilise the opportunity for a percentage-booster given how tight it is at the top. Parkside are coming off a loss but will want to rebound quickly when they welcome North Brunswick to Pitcher Park. After handing out a comprehensive thrashing in round 10, the Bulls will be looking to take a top 2 scalp against a Red Devils side smarting from suffering their second defeat of the season.

Results are in, nothing's changed

Four more results and yet absolutely zero movement on the Division 4 Men's ladder as Round 10 was run and done over the weekend.

Elsternwick bounced back from their first loss of the season in Round 7 with a comprehensive 125-point win over Masala-Dandenong at Holmes/Todd Oval. At home and refreshed, the Wickers kicked five goals to one in the opening term before inflicting as much damage as possible with 17 goals to two thereafter. In just his second game for the season, Julian Yeatman returned to his goal-kicking best with a match-high six majors, while Cameron Campbell slotted four. The result marked the fifth time this year that the Wickers won by over 100 points and their second against Masala. They will now face an equally embattled Box Hill North at Elgar Park while the Tigers will look to bounce back in a winnable match against Swinburne Uni.

The Demons, who sit in eighth spot with one win on the year, took it right up to La Trobe University on Saturday but eventually fell by 22 points. The Demons led at both QT and HT before the Trobers kicked into gear with five goals to one in the second half. Dominic Tracy and Darcy Thorn were named best for the Trobers while teammates Joshua Horder and Patrick Lindsay booted three goals each. Stephen Keenan was a force up forward for Box Hill with three and Peter Cassidy-Marsh continued his B&F form as their best. Box Hill will be tested the Wickers this weekend after going down by 252 points in Round 2, while La Trobe travel to Thomas Carrol Reserve for a return bout with St John's that resulted in an 89-point Trobers victory in Round 7.

After three tough weeks heading into the Rounds 8 and 9 cancellations where they kicked a total of just 9 goals, St John's impressed despite going down to South Melbourne Districts by 12 points at Lindsay Hassett Oval. The Bloods were all the rage after their Round 7 victory over the previously undefeated

Elsternwick but were made to work as the JOC's trailed by just five points at the last break before both sides squandered opportunities in the final term (1.6 (12) – 0.5 (5)). Michael Dufficy, Jack Stratford and Toby Parish kicked two goals apiece for the Bloods, with the former named best afield. Nicholas Terrill continued his outstanding form for the JOC's with three goals and plenty of touches. Terrill has now been named in St John's best in seven of his eight games. He will now be tasked with helping the JOC's break their four-game losing streak against La Trobe this weekend, while the Bloods will host the fifth-placed Eley Park Sharks after beating them by 98 points in Round 2.

The Sharks will head into that match with momentum after they claimed their third win of the season last week, defeating Swinburne Uni by 16 points at St James Park. The Sharks won the game with a blistering opening term of five goals to one before things evened out over the ensuing three quarters. Jesiah McGarvie kicked three goals and took his season-tally to 21 from seven games, while Jaydn Pridmore was B0G. Brent Hodson and David Rinaldo were once again standouts for the Razorbacks, as they prepare for a winnable match against Masala. In fact, the last time they played Masala in Round 6, it was a 22-point victory in favour of Swinburne. Eley Park will be the next team trying to stem the flow of South Melbourne Districts.

MILESTONES

VAFA congratulates the following players on reaching these incredible milestones. Well done!

Will Emerson (Ivanhoe)

The VAFA congratulates Will Emerson on his 100th club game last Saturday (June 19) against Power House. Emmo has been with the club since 2012. He played in both the 2014 Under 19 (North) premierships team and was a star forward pocket in the Hoers' 2015 D2 reserves premiership. Both teams were coached by his dad Bill. It speaks volumes of Emmo's determination that he persisted in the reserves in 2016 and early 2018 when injuries took their toll. It wasn't until Round 1 2019 that he played his first senior game. What Emmo lacks in stature, he more than makes up for with gut-busting running, crafty crumbing, a ton of courage and great team spirit. Well done Emmo. We look forward to many more games in the black and white.

Tyson Cattle (Albert Park)

Congratulations to Albert Park stalwart and former President, Tyson Cattle, who plays his 100th game for the Falcons this weekend. From humble beginnings playing in the paddocks at Lake King in Western Australia, Tyson followed brother, Nathan, across the Nullarbor to land at the Falcons back in 2014. Cattle slotted straight into the seniors on debut in Round 1 of the season, pushing the club into finals and achieving his first VAFA Division 3 Team of the Year selection.

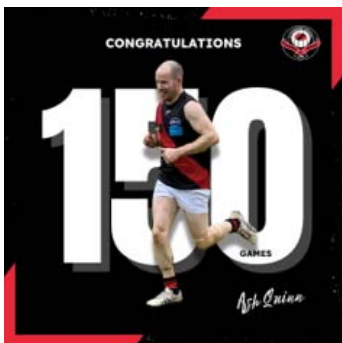

100

Ash Quinn (Elsternwick)

The VAFA congratulates Ash Quinn on reaching 150 game for Elsternwick. Ash began playing with Elsternwick in 2007 and was a member of the Elsternwick Senior side that was Runner-Up to Kew in D3 in 2013. In 2014 Ash suffered a severe knee injury that appeared to end his playing career. Not one to give up easily, Ash was appointed non-playing coach of Elsternwick Reserves, and coached in 2016 and 2017. He also served on the EAFC Committee in 2018 and 2019. In 2018 Ash made a comeback to playing and played Seniors and Reserves in 2018, 2019 and 2021. Congratulations, Ash Quinn, on playing your 150th game for Elsternwick AFC.

Saints put on goal-kicking masterclass

Marcellin vs Kew

The Eagles picked up right where they left off, registering a 31-point victory over Kew. It was Marcellin's defensive unit that was most impressive, as Anja Marshallsay, Maddie Di Cosmo and Lani Pane only allowed the Bears to score a solitary point for the entire game. When the ball was up the other end, the class of Liv Dikransis stood out amongst some inaccurate kicking from her teammates, as she led the way with 2 quality snap goals. Tara Donnan and Kathryn Cook were the best for the Bears as they figured out where they sit against the benchmark in the league. They will now need to win most, if not all, of their remaining games to be a chance to sneak into finals.

St Mary's vs Old Trinity

You wouldn't know this game was played between 7th and 8th, as both teams put on a quality display of football in perfect conditions at Ferndale Park. Even though Trinity led from start to finish, St Mary's never let them get further than a couple of kicks in front, ultimately going down by 8 points. The T's had extra motivation for this clash, with Phoebe Maus and Mel Poulter both reaching 50 games, the first females to do so for the club. Sally Peers had the greatest impact on the game, with a clear best on ground display, and she was well supported by Isabella Aikman and Gee Stewart. Emma Loveless put through St Mary's only two majors, whilst Grace Varcoe continued her consistent form.

West Brunswick vs Caulfield Grammarians

The clash between third-placed Caulfield Grammarians and fourth-placed West Brunswick lived up to expectations, with Caulfield running away 17-point winners in an arm wrestle at McAlister Oval. Matilda Hubbard (West Brunswick) slotted 2 first half goals to give her side the momentum going into half time. Trailing by 4 points at the main break, the Fields kept the Magpies goalless in the second half, and it was Caulfield's midfield who were able to hit the scoreboard. In a game that was won in the middle, wingers Iffy Donnellan and Maysen Duffy, alongside club leader Cheree Peters, never stopped all day. The Fields turn their attention to the undefeated Marcellin and are positioned as well as any team to cause an upset.

SKOB Saints vs Old Xaverians

SKOB Saints showcased their goal-kicking power at Righetti Oval, defeating Old Xaverians by 46 points, and staying hot on the heels of ladder leaders Marcellin. Lizzie Wardlaw had her best return of the year with 3 goals, and Sarah Cameron chipped in with 2 of her own. With 4 other Saints kicking a goal, Xavs had no answers as the lead grew at each break. Despite the St Kevins forwards having a field day, it was Ellie McLinden down back who put together the most impressive performance of the day. The highlight of the game belonged to Margaret Gleeson, when she slotted a goal on the final siren to fittingly mark her 50th game for the club. The Saints, just like every other team in the competition this year, could not find a way to stop Sarah Anderson as she was once again amongst the best for Xavs, and she found some support from Audrey Rhodes who put together her best game of the season.
