

The Monash Blues Football Club is seeking a Men's Reserves Coach, for the upcoming 2022 season.

Position

The Reserves Coach will be responsible for leading the Men's Reserves Team, whilst working in conjunction with the Men's Senior Coach to develop and prepare players in readiness for Senior opportunities. The successful candidate will work alongside the senior coaching group and team managers to ensure the highest standards are driven across the club.

Remuneration

This position is competitively remunerated and rates will be discussed on application.

Skills and Qualifications

Applicants should be able to demonstrate the following

- Demonstrate previous Leadership experience in a club environment.
- A passion to drive a strong and inclusive culture including a commitment to support the relationship between Men's and Women's teams.
- The ability to effectively communicate both on and off field, develop skills, football knowledge and provide regular feedback to groups and individuals.
- An ability to work in collaboration with others to achieve success.
- Strong ability to develop relationships with a range of stakeholders.
- Excellent organisational and time management skills.
- Level 1 or above AFL Coaching Accreditation (or willingness to obtain).
- Previous local football coaching experience.

Pre-season Commitment

The Reserves Coach will be responsible for assisting the coordination of preseason training beginning mid November through until March with two sessions a week. Monday & Wednesday nights

During Season Commitment

The season is between April-August with any finals played in September. Two trainings a week and game on Saturday. Trainings run on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

All training sessions are completed at Monash University Clayton Campus.

For all enquiries, please contact President Alex Carr on 0400 954 682.

Please direct all applications to president.mbfc@gmail.com